GRADUATE STUDENT ATTENDS CLIMATE CHANGE CONFERENCE

Dovev Levine attended the Copenhagen climate change conference in December

Dovev Levine, an academic counselor in UNH's Graduate School and a fifth-year doctoral candidate in the natural resources and environmental studies program, was pleased to receive a fellowship to present his work at an energy and climate research workshop in Germany. Even more exciting was the timing of the November seminar, which provided time at the end for those who wanted to travel to Copenhagen for the climate change conference.
