

Headquarters Fort Devens

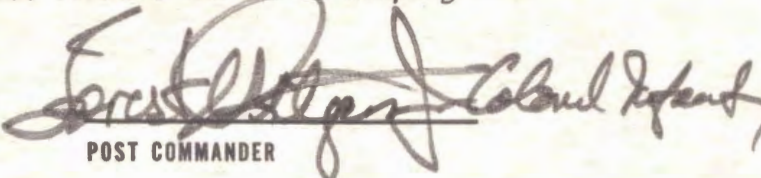

Commander's Certificate

Presented To

MAJOR IVOREY COBB, UNITED STATES ARMY (RET)

Major Ivorey Cobb, United States Army (Ret), performed highly meritorious service as a member of the New England Army Officer Retiree Council from June 1973 to August 1978. He participated with marked ability, conscientiousness and dedication, contributing substantially to accomplishments of the Council in the interest of national defense throughout the State of New Hampshire. His earnest zeal and faithful efforts assisted in constructive deliberations furthering intercommunication between Active Army and retired personnel, and in providing recommendations aimed at improving specific matters affecting them. His record with the Council reflects great credit upon himself and the New England Army Officer Retiree Council and is in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Army.
