- 5) County & State Updates related to Community Extension Needs –Rep. Kelley, Commissioner Gorman, & Edith Tucker
  - a) Eamon Kelley: Low grade timber commission – looking to extension for guidance in relation to the biomass replacement bill – needing to find other uses for low grade timber due to Maine plant fire. Would like a representative from the North Country; first report to be compiled by Dec 1st.
  - b) Rep. Gorman: This spring was involved in conversations regarding the future of The Balsams. Berlin wind farm is up for a new contract. Gave feedback that it has been a very positive experience working with the extension service.

- c) Edith Tucker: Very excited that those involved in 4H can gain tuition credits at this really shows a long range investment in youth. She has seen an increased interest in 4H and the benefits are spread out around the county. Voiced encouragement to be sure to vote in elections this fall, be part of the solutions to our local problems!
- 6) Position Updates:
- a) Field Specialist, Natural Resources — Chris Whiting, 4-H Program Manager
    - i) As of date of meeting, UNH was in negotiations with Sean Ash. Sean has since declined the position. More candidates are being pursued.
    - ii) Coverage of Coos County continues to be managed by Field Specialists Jim Frohn and Wendy Scribner. State Specialists are also available when required.
  - b) Field Specialist, 4-H Healthy Living, Outdoor Education – Kate Guerdat, State 4-H Leader

- a) Shared the Coos County 4H Calendar for 2022 – filled with MANY great offerings and events.
  - b) Introductions of The Adventurers 4H Club – they have remained very strong in Coos, were awarded the outstanding club award three times. The kids have gotten to travel, learn, and have had doors opened for new opportunities thanks to 4H.
  - c) Report of Coos 4H Enrollment – over 120 kids enrolled for 2022, which is up from 2021 at 99.
  - d) Lauren Tyler, lifelong 4H-er will be the assistant camp director at Barry Camp this year.
  - e) Group activity led by The Adventurers.
- 8) Council Membership Vacancies – Scott & Heidi
- a) Two open positions – discussed what stakeholders are missing and who might fill the spots to be extension advocates.
  - b) Reviewed spreadsheet based on April 4th dialogue.
  - c) Nominations:
    - i) Tiffany Sweatt– will be contacted by Scott Stepanian (Declined)
    - ii) Mary Kate Paulhamus if Tiffany says no – will be contacted by Jessie Paine
    - iii) Courtney Vashaw- will be contacted by Lori Langlois (Declined)
    - iv) Ross Caron – will be contacted by Eamon Kelley
    - v) **AC members to please email Scott and Heidi with the outcome of your inquiry
    - vi) ***We should continue to suggest names to add as community prospects and check off which areas they could represent
- (1) To do: Add Bonnie Hurley – Colebrook (Via Rep. Gorman) to the prospective list.

- 9) Other Business:
- a) Barry Camp opened the last week of June
  - b) Not involved in the Androscoggin Valley Food Coop directly at this time just because of time with preexisting projects and initiatives. Heidi was originally on planning team and helped to facilitate some of the early vision work. Right now, the group is aware that we would be a resource for connections with the Nutrition Incentives, food access and affordability work.
  - c) Great to have the 4H kids present at the meeting
  - d) A vote for catered food for future meetings!
  - e) Inquiry for education needed for the Ag field specialist position → Experience in Agriculture plus Bachelors degree or a Masters degree are required.
