

4-1-2016

An Enduring Legacy: A Symposium on the Magna Carta

University of New Hampshire School of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholars.unh.edu/m_carta_symposiumflyers

Part of the History Commons, and the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

University of New Hampshire School of Law, "An Enduring Legacy: A Symposium on the Magna Carta" (2016). Symposium Publicity Materials. 3.

https://scholars.unh.edu/m_carta_symposiumflyers/3

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Symposium: An Evening Celebrating the Signing of the Magna Carta at University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Symposium Publicity Materials by an authorized administrator of University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. For more information, please contact ellen.phillips@law.unh.edu.

School of Law

- UNH Law Experience
- Academics
- Admissions
- Centers & Institutes
- Career Planning
- Library

- About
- Alumni

About > Events > An Enduring Legacy: A Symposium on the Magna Carta

About

News

Events

Calendar

An Enduring Legacy: A Symposium on the Magna Carta

Employment

Nondiscrimination Statement

ABA Consumer Information

Accreditation

Giving

Campus Security

Consumer Information

Information Technology

UNH Law Publications

An Enduring Legacy: A Symposium on the Magna Carta

When: Tuesday, April 12, 2016 - 5:15pm

Where:

Rich Room, UNH School of Law (Enter through the Warren B. Rudman Center)

Featuring: Professor of History David Bachrach and Professor of Law Marcus Hurn

The Federalist Society and the American Constitution Society will be hosting a Symposium on the Magna Carta. This Symposium is in celebration of "Magna Carta: Enduring Legacy: 1215-2015," a traveling exhibit created by the American Bar Association and the Library of Congress that will be visiting the UNH Law Library.

The Symposium will begin with a reception at 5:15 pm in the IP Library on the 3rd Floor of the UNH Law Library where the exhibit will be on display that evening. This will be followed by a presentation on the Magna Carta featuring UNH faculty members at 6 pm in the Rich Room (204).

FIND A DEGREE

- Choose -

The event had piqued the interest of several prominent members of the legal community, and we hope to have many students, faculty, and staff members there. If you plan on being there please RSVP to Professor Zago at sue.zago@law.unh.edu.

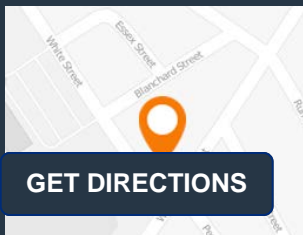

If you are interested in viewing the exhibit but cannot make the Symposium, it will be on display Monday, April 11th through Friday, April 22nd from 8 am until 5 pm on the 2nd Floor in the corner office by the stairs in the UNH Law Library.

This is an SBA Sponsored Event.

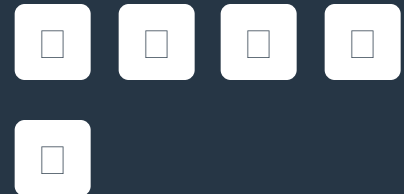

The Federalist Society
for Law & Public Policy Studies

2 White Street | Concord, NH
03301
603.228.1541

ABA Required Disclosures
Home | Contact Us

Stay Connected. Find us on:

Copyright © 2016 University of New Hampshire School of Law.
All Rights Reserved