DURHAM, NH – New Hampshire residents' assessment of Donald Trump's performance as President is unchanged since April. Just over half of residents continue to say the Mueller investigation is a serious matter that should be fully investigated and few would support Trump firing Robert Mueller, though support for such an action among Republicans has increased.

These findings are based on the latest Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and one (501) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed in English by landline and cellular telephone between August 2 and August 19, 2018. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.4 percent.

Presidential Approval

Granite Staters' assessment of Donald Trump's performance as President is unchanged since April. Forty-four percent approve of Trump's performance as president, 53% disapprove, and 3% don't know or are unsure.

"Trump is nearing the 46% level which typically results in reelection," said UNH Survey Center Director Andrew Smith.

Presidential Approval - Donald Trump

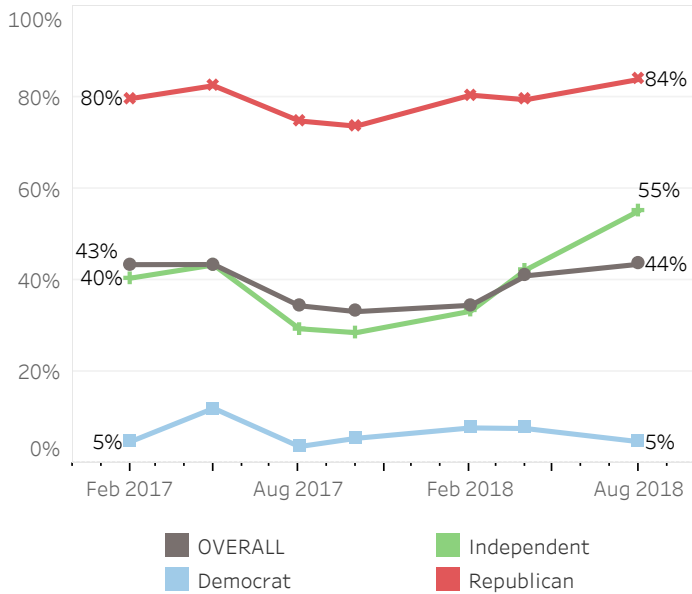

* We ask that this copyrighted information be referred to as the Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center.

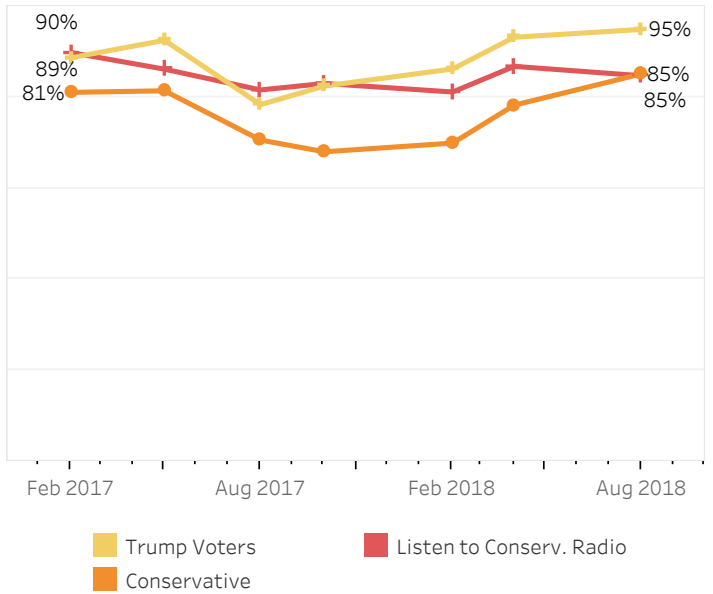

Approval of President Trump is closely tied to partisanship. Eighty-four percent of Republicans approve of Trump's job performance, 55% of Independents approve, up from 42% in February, while only 5% of Democrats approve of Trump's performance as president. Support for Trump among those who voted for him for President in 2016 (95%), among self-described conservatives (85%), and among self-identified Republicans (85%) are at all-time highs.

Those who voted for Trump in 2016, self-described conservatives, conservative talk radio listeners, and those aged 50 to 64 are most likely to approve of Trump's performance. Those who voted for Hillary Clinton in 2016, self-identified Democrats, self-described liberals, Boston Globe and local newspaper readers, those aged 18 to 49, NHPR listeners, and those who have completed postgraduate work are least likely to approve of Trump's performance.

Mueller Investigation

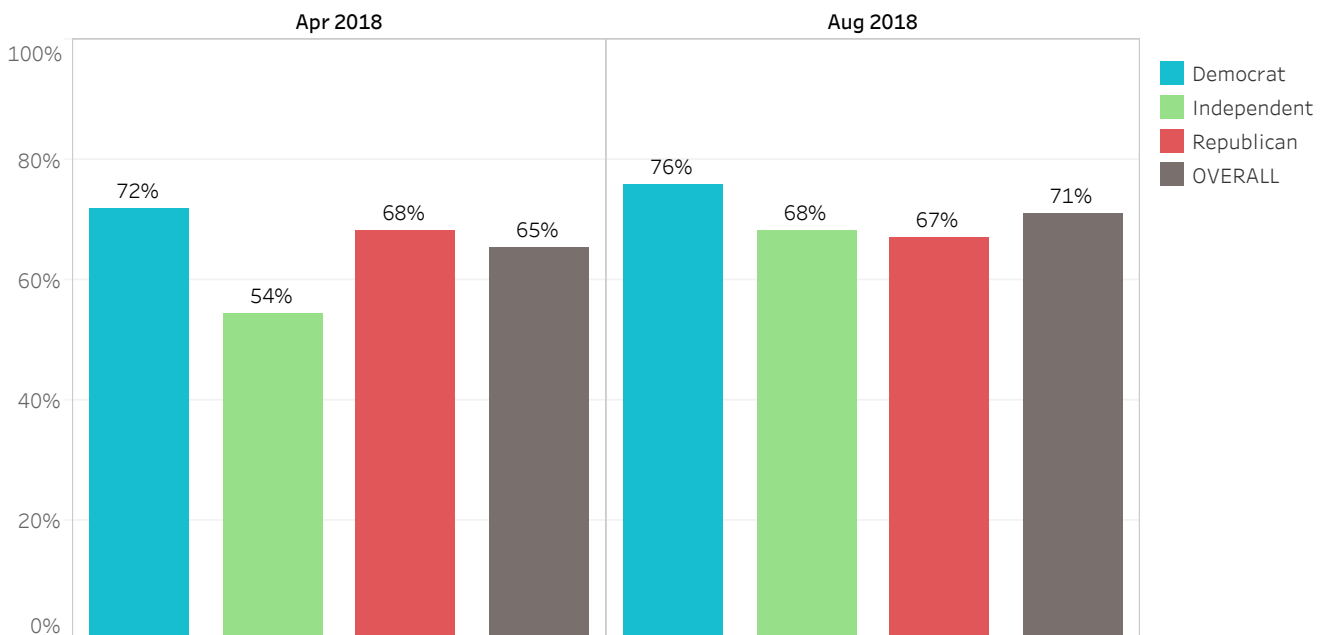

Thirty-nine percent of New Hampshire residents say they have heard a great deal about the investigation led by Robert Mueller to examine Russian efforts to influence the 2016 US presidential election. One-third (32%) say they have heard a moderate amount, 18% have heard only a little, 10% have heard nothing at all, and 1% don't know or are unsure. Awareness of the Mueller investigation is largely unchanged since April.

How Much Heard or Seen About Mueller Investigation

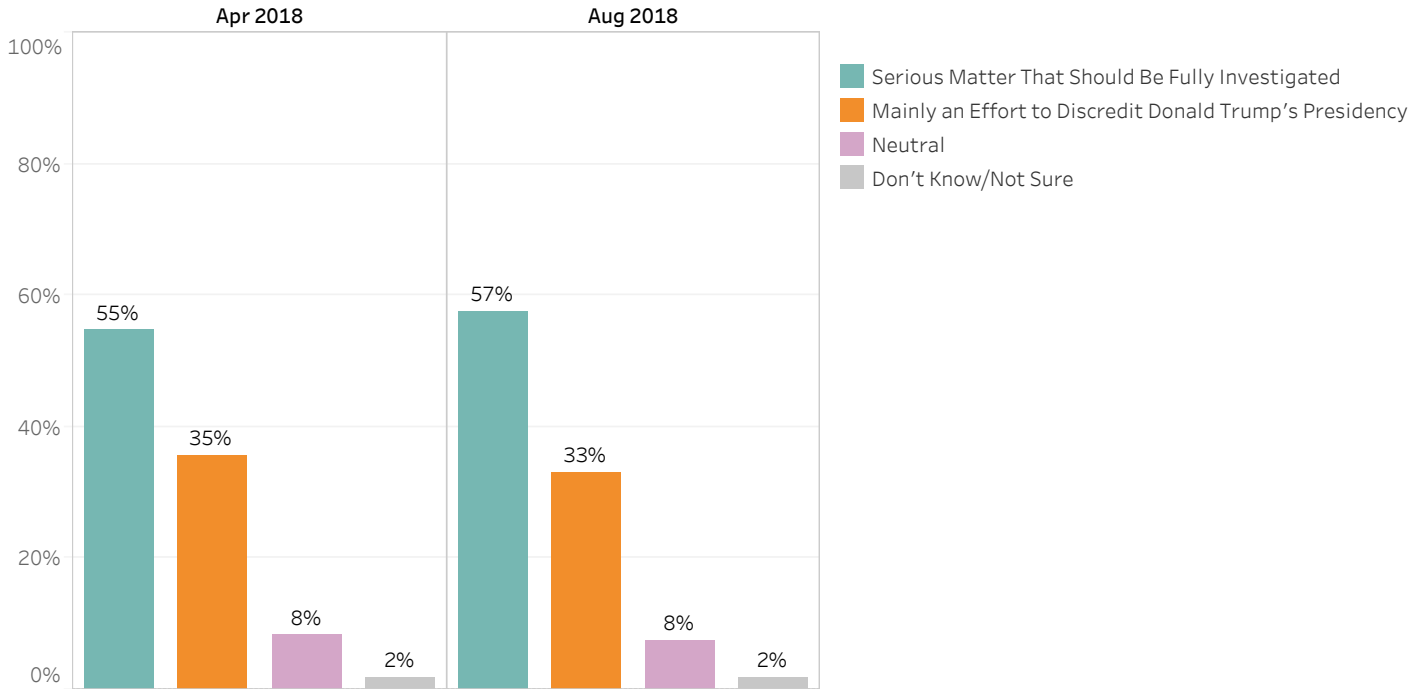

Democrats (76%) are slightly more likely than Independents (68%) and Republicans (67%) to say they have heard a great deal or a moderate amount about the Mueller investigation. However, Independents (68% have heard a great deal or a moderate amount) have become more aware of the investigation since April (54%).

Heard a Great Deal or a Moderate Amount About Mueller Investigation - by Party ID

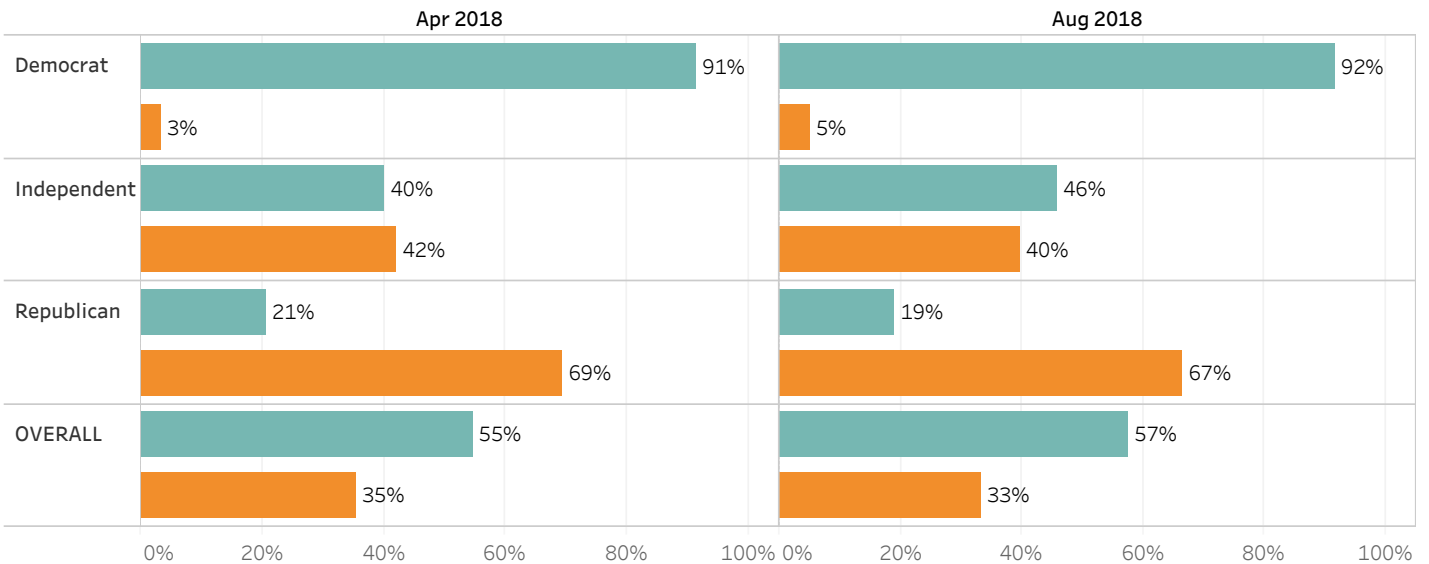

Among those who have heard at least a little about the Mueller investigation (N=442), just over half (57%) say it is a serious matter that should be fully investigated, one-third (33%) say the investigation is mainly an effort to discredit Donald Trump's presidency, 8% are neutral, and 2% don't know or are unsure. Assessment of the Mueller investigation is unchanged since April.

Assessment of Mueller Investigation

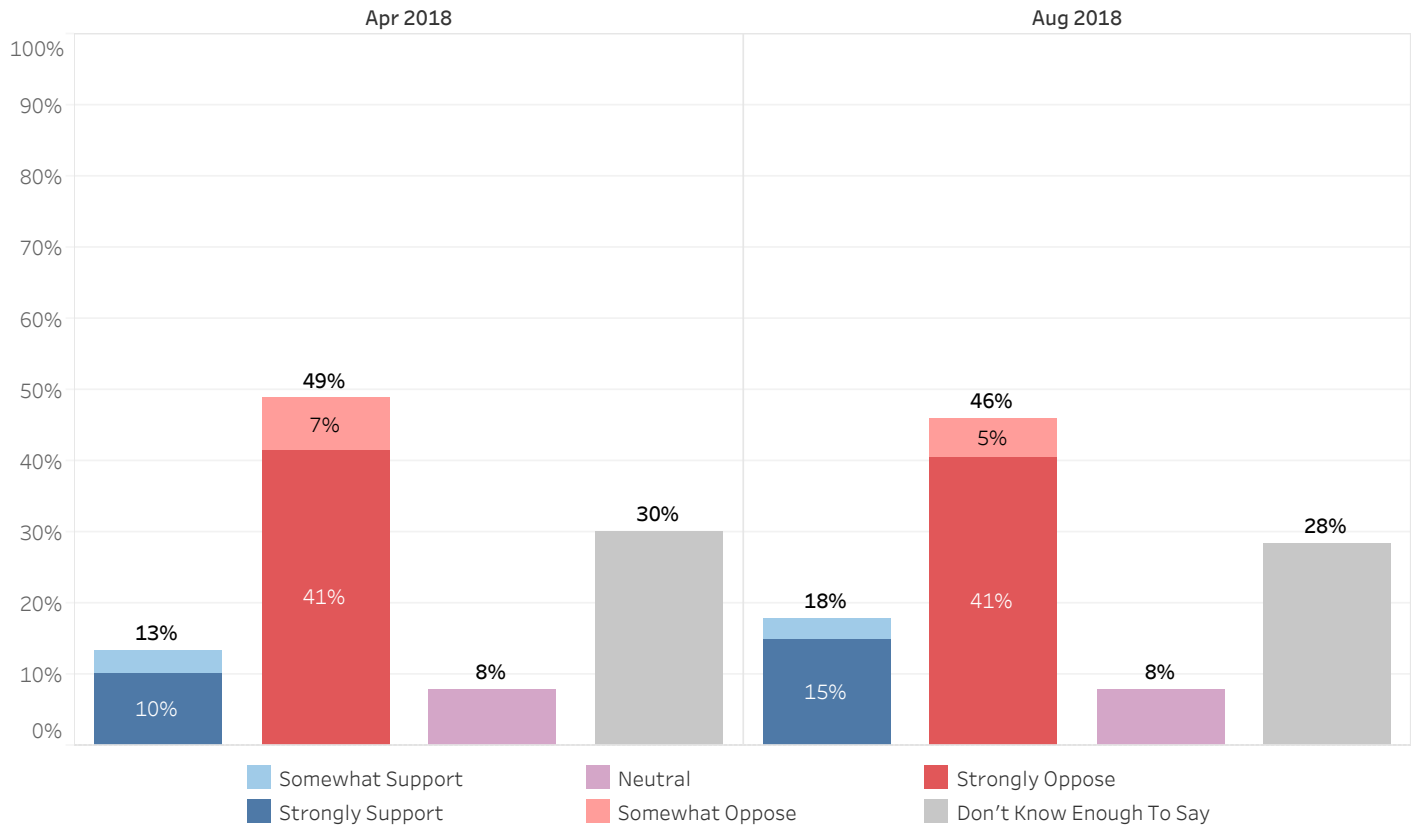

Nearly all Democrats (92%) believe the Mueller investigation is a serious matter that should be fully investigated, while two-thirds of Republicans (67%) say it is mainly an effort to discredit Donald Trump's presidency. A slight plurality of Independents (46%) believe it is a serious matter that should be fully investigated.

There remains very little support for the firing of Robert Mueller by President Trump among those who have heard at least a little about the Mueller investigation. Only 18% say they would strongly (15%) or somewhat (3%) support firing Mueller while nearly half (46%) would strongly (41%) or somewhat (5%) oppose Mueller's firing. Eight percent of respondents are neutral on the issue while 28% don't know enough to say.

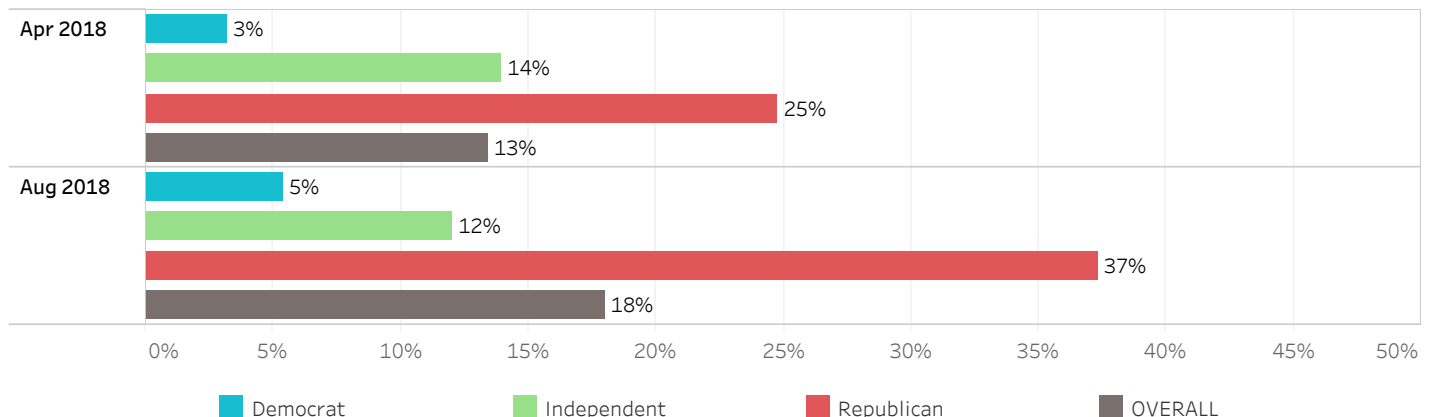

Support/Oppose Trump Firing Mueller

In April, only one-quarter of Republicans (25%) said they would strongly or somewhat support President Trump firing Robert Mueller, while currently 37% would support such an action. Support for firing Mueller among Democrats (5%) and Independents (12%) remains quite low.

Those who voted for Donald Trump in 2016, conservative radio listeners, and self-described conservatives are most likely to support President Trump firing Robert Mueller, while those who voted for Hillary Clinton in 2016, self-described liberals, NHPR listeners, Boston Globe readers, and those aged 65 and older are most likely to oppose it.

Granite State Poll Methodology

These findings are based on the latest Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and one (501) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed in English by landline and cellular telephone between August 2 and August 19, 2018. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.4 percent. These MSE's have not been adjusted for design effect. The design effect for the survey is 1.3%.

The random sample used in the Granite State Poll was purchased from Marketing Systems Group (MSG), Horsham, PA. MSG screens each selected telephone number to eliminate non-working numbers, disconnected numbers, and business numbers to improve the efficiency of the sample, reducing the amount of time interviewers spend calling non-usable numbers. When a landline number is reached, the interviewer randomly selects a member of the household by asking to speak with the adult currently living in the household who has had the most recent birthday. This selection process ensures that every adult (18 years of age or older) in the household has an equal chance of being included in the survey.

The data have been weighted to adjust for numbers of adults and telephone lines within households. Additionally, data were weighted by respondent sex, age, education, and region of the state to targets from the most recent American Community Survey (ACS) conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau. In addition to potential sampling error, all surveys have other potential sources of non-sampling error including question order effects, question wording effects, and non-response. Due to rounding, percentages may not sum to 100%. The number of respondents in each demographic below may not equal the number reported in cross-tabulation tables as some respondents choose not to answer some questions.

For more information about the methodology used in the Granite State Poll, contact Dr. Andrew Smith at (603) 862-2226 or by email at andrew.smith@unh.edu.
