Librarian's Report
To the Trustees of Silsby Free Public Library and Citizens of the Town of Acworth

In presenting this my annual report, I wish to express my thanks for books and magazines given during the past year, also to Mr. and Mrs. Nye, Mrs. Hyde and Philip S. Hyde for their labor in renovating the interior of the library and to all who have helped in any way.

Seven hundred sixty-six books and 1063 magazines have been loaned. Some new books have been added. A good number of magazines will come to us this year among them "Child Life" for the younger children.

During the winter months, Mr. Nye has had charge of the library and has performed his work well.

Respectfully submitted,

ANGIE H. LIVINGSTONE, Librarian.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HEALTH

There was an epidemic of measles during October and November; twenty-eight cases were reported and quarantined.

There have been several cases of German measles and chicken pox. Three members of one family had diphtheria.

Under the direction of the State Board of Health Division of Child Welfare, the fifth annual health clinic for children, under school age was held September 22nd, 1926. Twenty-four children were brought for the yearly examination, which was given by Dr. Charles Keeley of Claremont. Mrs. Z. Lupien Hasham, County nurse, was in charge. The local Woman's club is a great help in this work.

Prevention of disease, safe-guarding and building up health is the watchword of the day, and it is earnestly hoped that each citizen will have a live interest in this movement and in this way help, its development.

FRED L. ROBBINS, Health Officer.
The Public Schools

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Members of the Acworth School Board:

I herewith submit my second report as superintendent of your schools.

A comparison of the statistical reports of the past two years reveals several encouraging facts. The number of pupils enrolled has increased by seven. In spite of this fact, the number of absences has decreased from 2641 for the year 1924-1925 to 1995 for the last year. This, together with the increase in percent of attendance from 91 to 93, shows that the parents and the children of Acworth appreciate the value of unbroken school attendance. The pupils not absent or tardy during the year number 11, an increase of 6. In only one way are the figures unfavorable. The number of half days lost, for holidays, storms, etc., increased to 14. For this reason the calendar of the current year has been arranged with the hope that the schools of Acworth may be open the full 180 days which make up the legal school year. Each day lost deprives the pupils of just that much of their rightful heritage. Last year New Hampshire made a record, probably not duplicated anywhere in the United States, in the fact that every school in the state was open thirty-six weeks. This means that every child in the state had the opportunity of attending school during the entire thirty-six weeks.

This year it became necessary to shingle the school house at the Town. This caused additional expense of about $250. This, together with the fact that no dog tax money was available to the school, has subjected the school board to a rather strict budget. The board has economized in every way possible to overcome this handicap.

The South Acworth school needs painting badly. This must be done soon if it is to be done economically. A jacketed stove at the Center school would help distribute the heat about the room more efficiently. This jacket would cost little and is a fuel saver. When money is available this should be done.

It is recommended that, when sufficient funds are in sight, the school district enter upon a program of installing modern desks in the rooms. It is, of course, undesirable that all this should be done in one year. Comfortable movable seats and desks add much to the attractiveness of the room. This is unimportant in comparison with the great benefit of correct position at the desks. Pupils sit at the desk about five hours a day. Five hours spent in a cramped, stoop-shouldered position is a menace to health.

Acworth is now supporting a local high school. Its graduates have entered three different higher institutions. Every one of these graduates is doing work of a high calibre. There has not been one subject failed by any of them. A one hundred percent record in this regard is unusual. Let us give honor to our graduates.

The large increase in the number of pupils attending the third and fourth year of high school is gratifying to the citizens of the town. It was one of the results expected when the local school was founded. This, of course adds several hundred dollars to the necessary school expense. It is money well spent. A comparatively large group of well educated young people is a decided asset to any town. I am sure Acworth will be well repaid for this increased expense.

I wish once more to express my appreciation of the helpful cooperation and advice of your efficient school board.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY W. GILMORE,
Superintendent of Schools.
