

Fifth Ave. High School

IVOREY COBB, RUTH SIMPSON, Reporters

Fifth Avenue High School has a race lad in the person of Walter Robinson who deserves commendation and encouragement for his sports achievements. Walter has four scarlet school "F"s" two of which he received in volleyball and two in baseball. His efforts to become a regular on the swimming team also are laudable. This senior B does not confine his sport activities to the school alone. He is a regular on the North Side Elks' basketball team and plays baseball for the Goldleaf Club, of which he is president.

The juniors are contributing their part to competitive school sports. The colored youngsters who were successful in making the team are John Fleming, Harold Calvert, Chas. Holt, William Paul, Murray McCray and LeRoy Branson.

Shakespeare once said "The man without music in his soul is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils."

no such man be trusted." That statement certainly does not apply to the members of the Fifth Avenue band. The colored members are Wilson Green, saxophone; John Anderson and Ames Howard, trumpets; Geo. Thomas, clarinet; J. V. Davis, cymbals; Joseph Foster, trombone, and John Goggins, drummer.
