SCHOOL REPORT.

DISTRICT NO. 1.

CHARLES LOWE, Prudential Committee.

Summer term taught by Miss Anna S. Richardson, of Lyndeboro', a teacher of experience and well adapted to the work in the school room. We think she gave general satisfaction. It is a source of pleasure to see the interest manifested in the school by the parents.

Fall term, six weeks, under the instruction of Mr. Frank M. Banfill, of Nashua. Mr. B.'s first term. Although inexperienced in teaching, he found no difficulty in finding his true and proper place in the school room. His gentlemanly ways and cheerful countenance, and firmness in order, soon had a beneficial influence. Considering the shortness of the term, we think a good work was done.

Winter term, eight weeks, taught by Miss Ella J. Burns, of Nashua, a teacher of long experience, and understanding well the responsibilities of the teacher and the duty of the pupils, she at once commenced successfully the work before her. To labor for the best good of her pupils seemed to be her great desire. The closing exercises gave evidence of faithful work by teacher and scholars.

DISTRICT NO. 2.

GEORGE P. HOLT, Prudential Committee.

Summer term, six weeks, taught by Miss Anna P. Fitch. Miss F.'s first term. Fresh from the halls of learning, and with a mind well disciplined, she commenced her work with zeal, and soon gained the respect and esteem of all. Although the day of examination was very rainy, a good number of the parents were in to witness the closing exercises. Everything was satisfactory and highly gratifying to your Superintendent, and we think, to all present.

Winter term, six weeks, taught by Miss Eva J. Sawyer, of Antrim. The general appearance of the school at the commencement was favorable. We looked for good results, and our hopes were not blasted. The examination showed commendable progress in all branches pursued. As the terms are very short, we would suggest that more aid at home during the long winter evenings might be of great and lasting benefit to the children.

DISTRICT NO. 3.

DUSTIN POLLARD, Prudential Committee.

Miss Ellen M. Nahor, teacher. This school was under her instruction 30 weeks; the improvement made was remarkable. A great advance was perceptible in every class, and by every pupil. Your Superintendent spent a day in the school at the close of the last term, and truly it was a pleasant one—one we all shall long remember. One grand feature in the examination was thoroughness. Every answer, every explanation made was done understandingly. Another good feature was the deep interest manifested by every pupil; this was seen in a remarkable degree. We wish that every father and every mother could have witnessed the exercises of the morning. The two classes in Algebra and the various classes in Arithmetic made their recitations very interesting. All questions were promptly answered, and the work on the board neatly performed and readily and clearly explained. Notes, bills, drafts, etc., were handed in for acceptance; we think all, or nearly all, were correct. We believe the outline maps add much to the interest in Geography. We approve of Miss Nahor's method of instruction, and wish we had more teachers like her. She certainly is deserving of great praise.

DISTRICT NO. 4.

JAMES QUIMBY, Prudential Committee.

Summer term, six weeks, taught by Miss Fannie I. Lakin, of Greenfield. Your Committee was not able to be in at the close of the summer term, but we think the improvement good.

The fall term taught by the same teacher. The examination gave evidence of faithful labor, and was entirely satisfactory. Miss L., with more advantages, will make a good and successful teacher in any school.

DISTRICTS NOS. 5 & 8.

JOHN T. ROBERTSON, Prudential Committee.

One term, twelve weeks, taught by Mr. J. T. Robertson, a person too well known as a teacher and a man to need any praise from me. We will only say that the school did well, and we enjoyed our visit at the close very much.

DISTRICT NO. 7.

REUBEN DUTTON, Prudential Committee.

Summer term taught by Miss Lillie B. Dutton, of Lyndeboro'; a teacher of some experience and well qualified by nature as well as by knowledge gained from books to make her a successful teacher. She accomplished a good work during the few weeks she labored for the school.

Winter term, eight weeks, taught by Mr. Newell J. Sawyer. Being pleasant in the school room, he naturally gains and retains the respect and love of his pupils. Possessing, as he does, ample powers, both physical and mental, the thought has occurred to us that he might be more useful, and do more good in some other school. This is only a suggestion. Now we are making suggestions, we will name one more. The pupils are so few in this district, if all the legal voters would be willing to unite with other districts and give up district No. 7, we think it would be a good thing.

DISTRICT NO. 10.

A. N. HARDY, Prudential Committee.

Summer term taught by Miss E. A. Bradford, of Francestown. Number of weeks, six. Considering the brevity of the term, we think the school did well. The school was under good instruction and good government, which is very essential in order that the best results may be obtained. Miss B. has the requisite qualities, and with more experience will gain a standing among our best teachers.

Winter term, eight weeks, taught by Miss M. I. Ramsey, of Peterboro'. Miss R. entered into her work with much enthusiasm, and quickly gained the confidence and love of all her pupils, consequently there was nothing to mar the happiness or hinder the progress of the school. Advance was made in all branches. We can recommend Miss R. as a kind and faithful teacher.

REMARKS.

FELLOW CITIZENS: Looking at the condition of our school houses and the number of pupils in the various districts, we feel disposed to make a few suggestions. We think we are not spending our money to the best advantage, or receiving so much good from it as we might if some changes could be made. We believe we should dispense with two or three districts and enlarge the one in the village, and then build a good substantial house, one in which we might have a graded school. Two good teachers could then instruct eighty or one hundred pupils, and the improvement would be far greater. The trouble is there are not scholars enough in some of our districts to get up an interest. We know there would be some disadvantages; the greatest would be the distance some would be obliged to go. We think if you will look at it carefully you will see the advantages far outweigh the disadvantages. We recommend the change and leave it for your consideration, hoping the citizens of the town will give it careful thought. The work of the year will be remembered with pleasure. Thanking all for their kindness we submit this report.

A. N. HARDY,

SUPT. SCHOOL COMMITTEE.
