Report of the Board of Education.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

FELLOW CITIZENS:

That an education is the best guarantee of success, is conceded.

That the public schools are the bulwark of the nation, no one denies that believes in a Republican form of government.

That discipline in the school is of paramount importance is admitted. That the best in the line of helps are always the most profitable to use, I sincerely believe.

That you expect more from those for whom you do the most, is reasonable as applied to your schools.

The "Free Text-book Law" has cost you the past year an investment of \$165 57; the property is worth to-day at a fair estimate 90 per cent. of its cost, or \$150.00. The additions to the above the coming year will be small. We report the past year three schools, aggregating a total of fifty-nine weeks, divided into three schools with two terms each, for which we have employed four different teachers, at the average price of \$26.33 $\frac{1}{2}$ per month, including board.

Eighty different scholars have attended these schools, five of which, Carl D. Abbott, Myra D. Abbott, Hobart D. Kiblin, Myra L. Dodge and Ralph L. Dodge, attended the entire school year without being absent or tardy, and registered for perfect attendance during one term we find Blanche L. Dodge, Pearl E. Dodge, Helen A. Robb, Nellie Hobbs, Hattie L. Jeffs, Eva G. Abbott, Albert H. Holland, Nellie W. Howe, George D. Abbott, Alvah C. Jeffs, Francenia Blanchard, Mary F. Blanchard, Zina M. McClure, Edgar C. Brown, Cyrus S. McClure, Mary S. Kiblin, Nellie O. Smith, Annie L. Smith, Ella J. Smith and James M. Smith.

The Darling children have been schooled at their home by their mother, and Chas. X. Cutter's children have been schooled in Antrim.

One hundred and sixty-one visits by Supt., parents and others, prove that some are interested outside of the scholars. The details of each school are as follows:—

SCHOOL No. 1 (Center.)

SPRING TERM, 9 weeks; 29 scholars. MISS MARY CROSBY of Deering, teacher. All attended to reading and spelling, 18 penmanship, 19 arithmetic, 3 geography, 8 grammar, 8 composition, 8 physiology, 3 algebra.

The school was all we expected or could ask for, save the tardy-marks, and 80 per cent. of those stood against three scholars.

The fall term was taught by Miss LOTTIE W. GOODHUE of Hancock. The examination proved the school a success. Miss GOODHUE proved herself possessed of fine ability and earnest purpose, and is a perfect lady.

The school continued for twelve weeks, had 28 scholars, all of which attended to reading, spelling and penmanship, 21 arithmetic, 7 geography, 3 grammar, 11 composition, 3 physiology, 2 book-keeping, and 4 algebra. Tardy-marks deface the register, and four scholars deserve the disgrace of nearly all.

SCHOOL No. 2. (Near Mr. Jefts')

SPRING TERM, 8 weeks, 18 scholars. FALL TERM, 12 weeks, 18 scholars, MISS LIZZIE A. TYRREL of Hancock, teacher. Miss TYRREL merits the success which attended her labors here. All the scholars attended to reading, spelling and physiology, 16 penmanship, 16 arithmetic, 4 grammar, 8 history, 1 book-keeping and 1 botany.

SCHOOL No. 3. (So. Stoddard.)

SPRING TERM 8 weeks, 26 scholars. FALL TERM 11 weeks, 24 scholars. MRS. HENRI J. ROBBINS, teacher. The register tells us that all the scholars attended to reading and spelling, 19 penmanship, 20 arithmetic, 14 geography, 3 grammar, 2 composition. Mrs. R. is an experienced teacher and has taught this school four consecutive terms. We believe her last term here was her best.

I am sorry to be compelled to say that there is a disposition on the part of some parents to condemn loudly in public what they are privately encouraging their own children to do. "Consistency is a jewel."

The law furnishing free text-books gives the School Board a better acquaintance with the dispositions of the parents and guardians of our schools, adding little to the pleasures of serving the public, but adding considerable to the burdens.

Asking your support in everything pertaining to the public weal, the foregoing is respectfully submitted by

EDWARD B. DODGE.
