The Head Master of the Hinsdale High School submits the report of his school for the year ending Feb. 21, 1918:

Registration.

Forty-nine pupils entered the High School, Sept. 4, 1917, including 16 boys and 33 girls. Of this number, there are at present 46 in the school, 3 girls having withdrawn. The enrollment is divided as follows:

Attendance.

At the close of the Fall term there were 18 pupils who had been neither absent nor tardy. Due to the many cases of colds, etc., our attendance has been broken up very much in the winter months.

The following pupils have been neither absent nor tardy:

Helen A. Blouin,    Margerite Levasseur,
Bernice Fuller,     Mildred Merritt,
Bertha Fuller,      Frank Walker,
Helen M. Kimball,   Marion Watson.
Caleb Langille,
Instructors.

The teachers in the High School and the subjects taught by them are as follows:

- Miss Grey—Drawing.
- Miss Partch—Music.
- Miss Russell—Domestic Arts.
- Miss Proctor—Liberal Arts.
- Mr. Elliott—Agriculture.

Although Miss Grey and Miss Partch have been with us only a short time we are confident that the interest and endeavor which they are showing in their work will prove very successful.

Scholarship.

Our class records show that the standing of the pupils is not up to the point where it should be. High School work requires from an hour to an hour and a half of preparation outside of the school hours. The undergraduates are not doing the amount of home work that they should. Unless the teachers have the coöperation of the parents in this matter the scholarship will fall to a point where the individual pupil will find serious difficulty in his senior year.

The highest rank for the present school year is held by Jean Grey.

The highest rank by classes is as follows:

- Seniors—Jean Grey.
- Juniors—Mildred Pike.
- Sophomore—Mildred Booth.
- Freshman—Raymond Merritt.

Frank Walker has attained the highest rank for three and one-half years and has been appointed valedictorian of the Senior Class. Hilda Sawyer, as the second highest in the Senior Class, has been appointed salutatorian.

Improvements.

A few minor repairs are needed in the building which should be attended to as soon as convenient. A gutter over the entrance and some patching of the roof are needed before the spring rainy season.

Our unused text books are not cared for properly and a suitable place for them would be appreciated by the teachers and also an item toward economy in the lessened wear and tear on the books.

Visitors.

Our list of visitors this year has been small. Only one parent has called on us during a school session. The Head Master wishes more of the parents would visit our recitation work. It would be of great benefit to all and would result in many improvements over our work at present. The teachers need the cooperation of the parents and unless they receive it the school can never become more than a passive institution.

Curricula.

The courses now given at the High School include Liberal Arts, Domestic Science and Agriculture. The course in Agriculture is not receiving the support from the entering classes that it merits. Two boys elected this course at the opening of the present year. It will be impossible and not in the interest of economy to continue this course if the parents are unappreciative of the value of the work in agriculture.

The pupils are weak in the subjects, English and Mathematics. A modern language should be included in the agricultural course to remedy this defect. A review course in mathematics in the senior year would also be of benefit to all the pupils. There is also need of a course in history for the freshmen, as the only history course now offered is American History, which is given the senior year.

Perhaps the one thing which disturbs the whole student body and teachers more than any other is the combining of the pupils into groups of two or more school years, such as the senior and junior, and offering a subject which should be given separately to each class, in alternate years to both classes, at the same time. This practice should be discontinued in nearly every case for the following reasons:

1. It places students in a class in advance of their years, training and experience.

2. The combination of two classes lowers the standard of the advanced class.

3. It overcrowds our accommodations for laboratory work.

4. It increases the range of difference between the individual pupils.

5. Pupils failing to pass one year must wait over one year in order to repeat the course.

This practice, if continued for any length of time, will result in lowering the standard of the school, preventing the pupils from following their original course or, what is far worse, causing them to leave school.

In conclusion, the Head Master wishes to express the hope for a better coöperation between the various factors controlling our schools. The duty of a citizen does not end with the election of a Board of Education and an appropriation of a certain sum of money. The Board of Education must be of assistance to the teachers and pupils or our success is small. The parents need to be the most interested of all, for is it not for their children that our educational systems have been built up?

Respectfully submitted,

J. CARROLL ELLIOTT,
Head Master.

Drawing for all girls in first two years.

Music for all classes once a week.
REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

To the Board of Education, Hinsdale, N. H.:

I respectfully submit my sixth annual report as Superintendent of Schools.

For the school year 1916-17 there were 291 pupils registered in the public schools. Of these 137 were boys and 154 were girls. The average membership was 264 and the average daily attendance was 253, making the percentage of attendance 95.8. This is a creditable showing and compares favorably with the State average of 92.5.

These children received a year's schooling at a total expenditure of $10,429.95. On the basis of the average membership this was a cost per pupil of $39.50. The average cost per pupil for the entire State for the preceding year was $37.84.

The valuation of the town of Hinsdale is $3,204,201. The expenditure, therefore, per $1,000 is $3.25. The average rate of school assessment for the entire year is $4.61.

There have been few changes in the teaching force this year. During the summer Miss Ward accepted a position in Worcester, Mass., and to succeed her Miss Stearns was transferred from the sub-grammar school. Miss Luella Conley was engaged to fill the vacancy thus created in that school. Miss Conley is a Normal graduate and a teacher of experience. Mr. Wentworth, too, resigned his position as principal of the high school to enlist in the army, and Mr. J. Carroll Elliott was engaged to succeed him.

The special teachers, Miss Bjurman, Miss Striker and Miss Smith, secured other positions, and Miss Hazel Partch and Miss Edith F. Gray were engaged to fill the vacancies.

The Board has taken a positive stand in regard to the increase of the teachers' salaries. In the spring every teacher in town was re-elected with an increase of salary.

All of the present teachers have had pedagogical or Normal training or an extended and successful experience, both in many cases. The needs of the individual child have been stressed in my conferences with the teachers this year and the results in some schools have been progressively encouraging. The real results appear in better working pupils, more effective teaching, and more rapid progress.

While we have sought to give additional help to the backward children, we have not forgotten that the brighter pupils are quite as much entitled to especial consideration. A few pupils have been doubly promoted. There must, in the nature of things, be a certain percentage of non-promotions. It will always be true that some children, because of sickness, immaturity, or some other sufficient reason, will be profited by the repetition of a year's work. In June 91 per cent of the pupils were promoted. This is somewhat larger than the promotion rate for the State, which has been 88 per cent in 1911-12; 88.4 per cent in 1913-14; 89.2 per cent in 1915-16.

The war has called new attention to what is at once a great opportunity and a paramount duty of American schools. I refer to the teaching of the privileges and the obligations of democracy. To make this instruction fruitful, we must arouse in the budding citizen a lively interest in the present affairs of his country, and implant within him a solemn purpose to do his "bit" in the solution of its problems. To that end, in addition to the study of history, the reading and discussion of current events and instruction in personal and community hygiene are taken up weekly in all but the lowest grades.

"Lessons in Community and National Life," a series of papers prepared under the direction of the Federal Bureau of Education in coöperation with the U. S. Food Administration, has been placed in the hands of the teachers. This circular will furnish a body of material supplementary to the courses now at hand, and is designed to train the pupils in the schools to recognize their rights and obligations in the "coöperative society" in which they live.

For some years a representative of the Keene National Bank has coöperated with the teachers in training the children in habits of thrift by saving their pennies for deposit in the bank. This plan has worked very successfully, but this year, at the suggestion of the bank people, the plan has been changed so that now the children buy with their savings U. S. Thrift Stamps. According to reports on February 15 22 children had purchased stamps to the value of $69.38.

Early in the fall the children were afforded an opportunity to engage in Red Cross work. They undertook the work with eagerness and have since formed Junior Chapters. An effort is under way to secure a hundred per cent membership.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES JUNE, 1917.
Pauline E. Delphy            John G. Snow
Gertrude M. Sprague          Nina G. Wellington
Jason M. Wright

One of these entered New Hampshire college at Durham, one entered Normal school, one is doing post-graduate work, and two are engaged in gainful occupations. There are 12 members (February 15) in the present
Senior Class.

In June 15 pupils were graduated from the eighth grades. In September 100 per cent strong they entered the high school. Before the end of the spring term the Superintendent held a conference with the class at which he advised them in the selection of a curriculum, pointing out the suitable courses for those intending to become teachers and the opportunities at Dartmouth and Durham and the State normal schools for prospective teachers. In August a supplementary letter was sent to each graduate, giving further information as to the opportunities which await teachers in the State. Six selected the domestic arts course, seven chose the liberal arts course, and two decided on the agricultural course.

The average salary of high school teachers in the State is—men, $1,380; women, $685. The average salary of teachers below the high school is—men, $73 per month; women, $46.50 per month.

The names of the grammar graduates are as follows: Helen Blouin, Henrietta J. Young, Mark Chamberlin, Elmer Fuller, Stephen Boucher, Hubert Mann, Roy Merritt, Harold White, Bernice Fuller, Bertha Fuller, Antoinette LeVasseur, Marie Mannis, Alta Snow, Ellen Watson, Lorena Browning.

During the year 1912-13 there were 19 pupils in the high school; during the year 1916-17 there were 49 pupils enrolled; an increase of 158 per cent in four years. The number of teachers then was the same as the present number of teachers. Then there was one curriculum only, but permitting a substitute study for Latin. Now there are three curricula. The cost per pupil then was not less than $116. The cost per pupil last year was not over $70. The average for the State is between $65 and $70.
Respectfully submitted,
ANDREW P. AVERILL,
Superintendent of Schools.

Smallest daily attendance, 5
Average daily attendance, 19

By order of the Selectmen, the Library was closed on account of the fuel situation, beginning January 20, except on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, this arrangement to last until further notice. This, combined with the change in the date of closing reports to February 1, has affected the number of books circulated and the reading room attendance, so that no comparison has been made with recent years.

War conditions have considerably affected the amount of reading done, many former patrons being too busy with Red Cross work or newspaper reading to devote as much time as formerly to reading library books.

Besides numerous books relating to the war which have been presented this year, is an illustrated volume, "Concerning Cats," from Mrs. Salome Cutler Fairchild of Washington, D. C., whose father, Artemas Hubbard Cutler, was a native of Hinsdale.

The week of September 24th was War Library week throughout the country. During that week a local campaign was conducted for the purpose of raising Hinsdale's quota of $83.65, or five cents per capita tax, and collecting books and magazines for the establishment of libraries in army camps. A committee of ten very kindly gave their services for this purpose. As a result, after paying freight and carting, $98.88 and four barrels of books and magazines were sent as Hinsdale's contribution.

The list of periodicals on file remains practically the same as printed last year. Among the books added recently are numerous very interesting war stories.

The petty cash in the hands of the Librarian is as follows:

REPORT OF HEALTH OFFICER.

There have been several nuisances abated in the past year in the form of emptying of sewage in the gutters of the streets. One instance is the putting in of a new drain on Brattleboro Street, which was voted on at the last town meeting.

3 cases scarlet fever,
7 cases measles,
