Mr Jinkes Dear sir i recieved your letter yesterday and i haster to answer it i did not git my trunk till last saturday and i then curid your coat to Dunbar and it is safe and i shal try to git it sent ~~ser~~ to you as son as thare is a chance i should note to you before but i thought i would wate till i see if my trunk come i had to rite to newyork twice before it come my helth improves very slow i have had a relax ever cence i got home but i hope i shal git over it some time i am sory to heare that so meny of the boyes ere unfit for duty but you must keep up good courage and all will come out rite in the end and may god bles and protect you all

bless and protect you all and it is my humble prayer to god that you may all be spared to git home safe to your friends wonce more give my best respects to Cap Combes and g h Stone and L m Parker and all the rest of the boyes tel them i should like to see them all you have my Prayers that god will keep you safe to the end thare is no nuse that will be enterreting so i will close hoping to heare from you again

yours truly

E W Reynolds

you must excuse my blunders for i cant see very well

I send you this to show you the differance between the new and the old school, his blindness troubled him in onaking Capitals, burn it

and it is my humble prayer
