Dear Elz,

Tomorrow we move to Yong Dung Po, we are told. The alternate is within the next five days.

Today was a fine day—sunny, warm, and exhilarating. I thought about home and family. I regretted that all men are not brothers but selfish beings who hunt down one another and kill so ruthlessly. I was in such good spirits that I even forgave the D.C. folks for not promoting me (but not for long).

It was the kind of day that must have inspired the writing of such songs as Vienna Woods and other long time favorites. It was the kind of day during which, if I had been home, I would have taken you and
Dear Elz:

Tomorrow we move to YONG DUNG-PO, we are told. The alternate is within the next five days.

Today was a fine day – Sunny – warm and exhilarating. I thought about home and family. I regretted that all men are not brothers but selfish beings who hunt down one another and kill so ruthlessly. I was in such good spirits that I even forgave the D.C. folks for not promoting me (but not for long). It was the kind of day that must have inspired the writing of such songs as VIENNA WOODS and other long time favorites. It was the kind of day during which, if I had been home, I would have taken you and the family and gone riding somewhere
—anywhere—just so we would be together. It was the kind of day that makes one feel part of the
the universe ... and close to God.
There are not so many days like this one over here in Korea where the twain (east and west) has met.

In a way I wonder about the possibility of your letter transmitting
to me your own exalted feelings after that D.C. trip. One tletter described your despondency after the trip — the next letter, your relief
and comparative feelings the next
day. I had similar reactions
your letter telling about the trip
dashed my hopes for promotion to a new low. But today, in my forgiving mood, I don't feel
the family and gone riding somewhere
- anywhere..... just so we would be together. It was the kind of day that makes one feel that he is part of the
the universe .... and close to God.
There are not so many days like this one over here in Korea where east are the TWAIN (East and West) has met.

   In a way I wonder about the possibility of your letter transmitting to me your own exalted feelings after that D.C. trip. One letter described your despondency after
the trip - + the next ^letter your relief
and comparative feelings the next
day. I had similar reactions
your letter telling about the trip
dashed my hopes for promotion to a new low. But today, in my forgiving mood, I don’t feel
It's so badly about it all. The world does not seem so cruel. Perhaps it's because I now have a more indifferent attitude because I have definitely made up my mind to quit Uncle Sam's Army as soon as I can. I shall resort back to civilian life and shift for myself. If I should then fail, I'll have only myself to blame. Now, I'm in the Army and feel that the blame is not of my own.

I have written for correspondence from the 'U' in Illinois. I intend to pick up at least five more college credits over here to bring me over the 2-yr college mark. Then when I get back stateside and out of the Army, I intend to enter law school, so help me. so badly about it all. The world does not seem so cruel. Perhaps it’s because I now have a more indifferent attitude because I have definitely made up my mind to quit Uncle Sam’s Army as soon as I can. I shall resort return back to civilian life and shift for myself. If I should then fail, I’ll have only myself to blame. Now, I’m in the Army and feel that the blame is not my own.

I have written for correspondence course from the “U” of Illinois. I intend to pick up at least five more college credits over here to bring me over the 2-yr college mark. Then when I get back stateside and out of the Army, I intend to enter law school, so help me.
I got a letter from the VA in Newark telling me that I will still be able to pursue studies even after the deadline because of my Korean service. They said I had 46 months of schooling remaining under the bill. So just prepare yourself for the plans I now have. I really intend to carry them through full time. We'll have to live on our savings and the $125.00 monthly from the GI Bill. Today I feel happy and forgiving. I'm not mad at anybody—not even Capt. Johnson.

I reiterate my love for you and my two darling children. I am quite fortunate in having the three of you. I love you all so much that I am quite miserable when I know you cannot be proud of me—and my progress.

Love always, Lovay Cobb.
I got a letter from the V.A. in Newark telling me that I will still be able to pursue studies even after the deadline because of my Korean service. They said I had 46-months of schooling remaining under the bill. So just prepare yourself for the plans I now have. I really intend to carry them thru FULL TIME. We’ll have to live on our savings and the $125.00 monthly from the GI Bill. Today I feel happy and forgiving. I’m not mad at anybody – not even Capt. Johnson.

I reiterate my love for you and my two darling children. I am quite fortunate in having the three of you. I love you all so much that I am quite miserable when I know you cannot be proud of me – and my progress.

Love

Hubby Ivorey Cobb
Note: Enclosed are two checks for a total of $200 for the purchase of bonds. This amount will buy $2.50 worth of bonds and still leave you $12.50 for spending change. Buy the bonds and let me know about it.

Incidentally, you have never told me what you did with the other money I requested you to buy bonds with (the bonus + the money order). I'm sure you have done as requested but just neglected to write me about it. Well, I want you to write me about it too.

Also I have not received a bank statement at all. Please.

Hubby

[Signature]
Note:

Enclosed are two checks for a total of $200.00 for the purchase of bonds. This amount will buy $250.00 worth of Bonds and still leave you $12.50 for spending change. Buy the bonds and let me know about it.

Incidentally, you have never told me what you did with the other money I requested you to buy bonds with (the Bonus + the money orders). I’m sure you have done as requested but just neglected to write me about it. Well, I want you to write me about it, too.

Also I have not received a bank statement at all. Please.

Hubby

Ivorey Cobb