Submitting my report for the year of 1943, I am again privileged to state the lowest cost for grass and brush fires in Kingston in the history of the Forest Fire Service. This has been made possible in a great measure by the splendid cooperation of the Kingston Fire Department officers and personnel in rendering no bill for services. I wish to make public thanks for this cooperation.

Report of the Superintendent of Schools

February 1, 1944.

To the School Board and Citizens of Kingston:

It is with pleasure that I submit my second annual report as Superintendent of your schools.

As we all realize, the past school year has been during one of the most critical war periods we have experienced. Schools have been affected because of trying mental-strains on the part of parents, children and teachers as well as by the prevalent lack of normal home life caused by industrial boom and increased employment of adult members of the family. Children have been handicapped in many instances by having been left more "on their own." Those under the age of 10 who lack supervision and parental guidance at home today may be the real problems tomorrow. Some say, "It's Adult Delinquency"! However, it appears that all are attempting to make the best of the situation and are looking ahead to renewed normal times with optimism and enthusiasm.

To refute the often repeated statements by high administrative officials that the people do not seem to be conscious of or sufficiently realistic in their attitude toward the awfulness of this global war, Dr. Moehlman in "The Nations Schools" magazine for February, 1944, makes the following statements: "No nation on the face of the earth has ever undergone so complete and rapid a transition from highly organized pacifism to war in so short a time. No people has ever voluntarily given so much of its income through self-taxation and voluntary savings to the support of war effort."

Today our soldiers are fighting in practically every part of the world to restore peace and freedom.

Tomorrow the students who are now in our schools must help to solve the tremendous problems involved if that peace is to be made permanent. Our country will need informed, enlightened and devoted citizens then, as much as it needs trained, loyal and courageous soldiers now.

Boys and girls, who in other times would have completed their elementary and high school training, are now leaving school in large numbers. In some communities, the exodus from school has reached proportions alarming to those concerned with the success of the war effort and for the longtime effort of youth.

The motives which cause pupils to leave school are understandable—attractions of high wages, desire to do something definite to help win the war, the influence of the example of others who have left, and the inducements of those who do not realize the value of increased schooling. It is generally agreed by army and civilian authorities that the greatest service which boys and girls of sixteen and seventeen can render to the war effort is to get ready for national service in the armed forces, in war production, in civilian war agencies or in specialized training by continuation of regular schooling at least until high school graduation. From the financial standpoint, a Research Bulletin of the National Education Association presents the following: "Time and money invested in education brings handsome economic return. The probable life earnings of a typical elementary, high school and college graduate in comparison to the required schooling is shown below:

Schooling	Period of Work	Total Earnings
Elementary	46 years (14 to 60)	$ 64,000
High School	42 years (18 to 60)	88,000
College	38 years (22 to 60)	160,000

Teachers:

About fifty percent of the teachers in Supervisory Union No. 14 are new to their respective positions this year. Mrs. Marion Sanborn of Fremont who has had several years of successful teaching experience at Westmoreland replaced Miss Lawrence in grades 1 & 2 and Miss Mabel Kendall of Antrim who taught last year at Weare, N. H., replaced Miss Cheney in grades 3 & 4. Both Miss Lawrence and Miss Cheney resigned to accept more lucrative positions in Massachusetts. We were fortunate to keep Mrs. Magnusson and Miss Flanders as teachers in our upper grades.

Text-books:

More world-mindedness is being developed in our older children by more careful selection of subjects matter by text-book writers—a fact which will ultimately develop the power to think out the relation of facts to the actual interests of the entire world. It is probably not an exaggeration to say that this world-mindedness is growing with every passing week. In our own schools, perhaps one of the greatest improvements in study materials has been the continuation, as finances would permit, of the new reading system which was started two years ago. Anyone familiar with the new reading materials in contrast with the old texts can readily see the stimulating advantages to the younger children. We note from observation and from publications that most communities have kept their school buildings on a par with, or even ahead of the average home in the community. School buildings are a means to an end; they should be media for the progress of human development. Kingston certainly has a building to be proud of. It seems that the heating difficulties have been overcome by needed adjustments on the coal stoker, more knowledge of operation of the stoker and by having had the building insulated over the ceiling. This last item should be paid for in a comparatively short time by saving of fuel. The landscaping which was completed during the last summer through the generosity of Mr. Andrew Christie, has certainly proven to be a great improvement in the appearance of the grounds and will undoubtedly show more improvement in the future.

Appreciation also goes to Mr. Christie for the additional display of mounted birds which has recently been added to those presented by him last year.

Standardized tests have been administered to all children above grade one; this provides a means whereby their achievement may be checked with their ability. It has been discovered that slower pupils are often expected to accomplish more than their ability would permit, while others would not do as much as they are capable of doing. Best results are obtained when people work up to their capacity. Achievements tests are also helpful in diagnosing pupils, difficulties and to know where and in what field additional drill would be most helpful.

Through participation in the "Schools-at-War" program the children have assumed attitudes of cooperation in addition to giving material help by buying war savings stamps and bonds, the latter of which we hope will develop into habits of thriftiness. The teachers, parents and pupils should be commended for their efforts in this program. It is interesting to note that during the present school year $1,476.20 has been invested in war savings by the pupils. This is a very satisfying improvement over the grand total of $1,100 which was invested during the past school year. The sum of $200 which was realized last year from the results of the "scrap iron salvage" campaign is deposited at the Exeter Banking Co.

Shortly after the distribution of War Ration Book No. 4, Chester Bowles, Acting Administrator for the Office of Price Administration wrote: "The distribution of War Ration Book 4 has been carried out with dispatch and precision. We are indebted again as we have been in the past to the school officials and teachers of the nation—I feel sure that they will be relieved to know that the task will not have to be repeated soon." Other volunteers who helped in this task should also be commended.

Pupils in grades 3-8 subscribe to the "Weekly Reader" and "Current Events," weekly publications, which help to keep them informed of the most important news of the day. Some elementary science laboratory equipment and supplies have been purchased to provide for some "table demonstrations" in connection with the course in Elementary Science. Fertilizer samples, donated by Mr. Austin Kemp, are a welcome addition to the above mentioned science department.

The boys and girls in grades 5-8 are enjoying and profiting from their opportunity to use the Sanborn Seminary Gymnasium, thanks to Mr. Leonard Sanborn for the time and energy which he gives with the pupils and to the Sanborn Seminary officials for their willingness to allow the Bakie pupils to use the gymnasium.

We urge all who can, to please make an earnest effort to secure important medical or dental attention necessary, if notified.

The milk and hot lunch program, which is much stressed by health and nutrition authorities is carried out most successfully in the school.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the Parent-Teacher Association, teachers, and all for their cooperation and help in carrying out our health program.

Report on Music for Kingston

To the Superintendent and School Board of Kingston, N. H.:

I hereby submit a report on music for the year 1942-43.

Just as war itself is not a sheer physical struggle but also a struggle of ideologies, so education must be two-sided.

In years past workers gained great creative satisfaction from work so designed that the whole process could be comprehended but in this age of industrialization and mass production this creative satisfaction is seldom realized. Obviously an outlet is desirable.

At present as in no time in history, music from the radio and phonograph permeates our life both day and night. Hearing good music is an advantage; yet this passive receptiveness is not music in its highest form and not enough in itself alone.

Our aim in the public schools is to provide the child with this creative experience that music so uniquely offers. This is in accordance with our democratic ideal of faith in not what men are, but what they are capable of becoming. In addition to this a more concrete function is served by this creative expression through song. Many times meanings are grasped and emotions stirred which do more than words to weld people together in defense of democracy. This is no small aspect and not to be overlooked.

Respectfully submitted,

JEAN BEATON.
