CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Acting in the capacity of a party that is assigned the responsibility of interpreting the desires and purpose of a person as expressed through the medium of a will is a duty that is extremely difficult to perform. The history of interpretations of wills indicates that nearly as many plans and ideas are advanced as there are people making interpretations of the same document.

The Colonel Town Spending Committee, elected by the voters of the town, in the last analysis is merely an agent of the people entrusted with the responsibility of interpreting and carrying out the ideals and ideas Colonel Town might have had when he had this document drawn up. During the period of time that the present committee have had this responsibility it has been their interpretation that paramount among the Colonel's philosophies was building into the people of Lancaster character and citizenship, using as a medium for this objective the income from his estate which he bequeathed to the town. Whether or not the Committee have succeeded in carrying out this ambition and dream of the Colonel, only the citizens of the town can tell. It is sufficient to say that back of each appropriation has been this fundamental philosophy.

In going over the effect of the Spending Committee on the lives of the people in the town of Lancaster, it is interesting to reflect for a moment on some of the projects which have been carried on. Perhaps one of the most gratifying endeavors has been money and effort expended in making available funds for the younger people of the town in carrying on their education beyond the point of our local high-school. Through this medium 49 of our young people, both village and rural, have availed themselves of the privileges of attaining training that would equip them for positions in the demands of life whereby they would be able to serve their fellowmen a little better. From the Committee's point of view, this is a contribution from the Colonel Town Fund in building character and citizenship. As a by-product of this project each of these young people has been asked to sign a note. The history of this project has been so gratifying in connection with the repayments of these notes that the project at the present time is being carried on from funds that have been loaned in past years to young people who are now in a position to repay and make possible the re-loaning of this money to some other young person who still has his educational program ahead. These young people have assumed this responsibility earnestly and have demonstrated their appreciation for the project and their serious intention to carry out their part by repayments on the money which was loaned them. The Committee has a very definite feeling that not only have educational facilities that were made possible to these young people tended to build character and citizenship, but the assuming of the moral obligation of repayment has also very definitely built character and citizenship in these young people. The Scholarship Committee has asked for no appropriation for two years and will not in the coming year due to repayment of loans.

This same philosophy might be carried even further. A large amount of the money made available through Colonel Town's bequest is used for the maintenance and carrying on of athletic and recreational facilities at little or no cost to those participating. This feature the Committee feels builds character and citizenship. As a by-product of these various ventures our people have demonstrated their character and citizenship by—First: Respecting the rights of other people in the town in sharing the use of the various pieces of equipment. Second: The respect for Colonel Town and his bequest by the careful and respectful use they make of the Colonel Town properties and the gentlemanly and ladylike manner in which they conduct themselves while using the Colonel Town facilities. The third, and perhaps most significant way in which the Colonel Town bequest has built citizenship and character in Lancaster people, has been their very definite attitude to carry on and do as much as they can themselves rather than ask Colonel Town through the Spending Committee to do things for them. A few examples which illustrate this point are;

The Rotary Club appropriates funds for the maintenance of a skating rink. The Kiwanis Club carries on with very little help the playground which was originally conducted by the Spending Committee. The Boy Scout troops fundamentally carry their own financial program with very little help from the Spending Committee. The Hospital Auxiliary have assumed their responsibility and ask for very little help. This year the town school districts appropriated money for the transportation of school children of high-school age to supplement the appropriation of the Colonel Town Fund rather than ask for an increased appropriation from the Spending Committee.

From the Committee's point of view all of these projects and their by-products have demonstrated that the citizens of Lancaster look upon the bequest of Colonel Town as a fund to augment and assist them in building character and citizenship among their people rather than as a means whereby they can shirk responsibilities which definitely belong to them. This type of philosophy which evidently is part of the spirit of the people of the town of Lancaster has definitely made Colonel Town's bequest an asset rather than a liability to its people.

DAN A. O'BRIEN,
Chairman Spending Committee.

Feb. 15, 1940.

Secretary's Report

The Colonel Town Spending Committee for 1939 was composed of nine members as follows: Mrs. Ethel McCarten, Dr. W. M. Bronson and L. E. Bragg, whose terms of office expire in 1940; Evelyn Moyle, Enos G. Fay and Dan A. O'Brien, whose terms of office expire 1941; Mrs. Katherine Lane, Carroll Stoughton and Elmer Dickey, whose terms of office terminate in 1942. The officers for 1939 were: Dan A. O'Brien, Chairman; Enos G. Fay, Treasurer; Evelyn Moyle, Secretary. The following Sub-committees served for the past year: House Committee—Dr. W. M. Bronson, Chairman; Enos Fay and Evelyn Moyle; Field Committee—Carroll Stoughton, Chairman, L. E. Bragg and Katherine Lane; Camp Committee—L. E. Bragg, Chairman, Dan O'Brien and Mrs. Ethel McCarten; Scholarship Committee—D. M. White, Chairman, Carroll Stoughton and Mrs. Ethel McCarten.

Meetings were held intermitently during the year, most of which were for urgent appropriations or matters of policy. To keep abreast with the changing conditions and adapting the rules and regulations to additional equipment which has been added to the plant, the rules were revised, copies of which were posted conspicuously in various parts of the Colonel Town property. Following a precedent which was established some years back, the Committee waited until after all of the money had been received from the Trustees before making the major portion of their appropriations. Final payment by the Trustees occurred after the last dividends were received which was in January.

During the year flowers have been placed on Colonel Town's grave each week during the summer. This year was the first opportunity to make any estimate as to the benefit derived from money spent in 1938 for insulation and storm windows at the Community House. The management has reported a very definite improvement in the efforts to keep the building comfortable notwithstanding the fact that January of 1940 has been as difficult a month to keep buildings comfortable as has been experienced in the North Country for many years. During the year the usual appropriations have been made, details of which can be found in the Treasurer's Report. The Treasurer's Report might be supplemented by the fact that the Scholarship Committee under the leadership of D. M. White, a non-member of the Committee serving on the Sub-committee, has reached a point now where repayments from former loans were sufficient to meet demands for all requests in 1938 and 1939.

In conjunction with carrying on with the ordinary appropriations some improvements have been made on the field in a drainage near the back-stop of the baseball diamond. Water in this vicinity has always been a menace and it is hoped that the new system of drainage will correct this situation. An additional appropriation was made to the Juvenile Library this year for books. From reports received by the Committee the library has developed into a real worthwhile factor in the lives of young people in the community to such an extent that the books have been practically worn out. The Community Camp has been somewhat improved during the past year and has continued as in the past to be one of the most popular projects carried on by the Committee. The tennis courts have grown in popularity each year. For want of adequate funds the courts were carried through 1939 in a rather unsatisfactory condition.

Money has been appropriated for improving these courts in 1940 as soon as weather conditions will permit, making them available for play as soon as possible. The Committee has also appropriated money for work on the house at the Community Camp. The renovation of the house which is being considered will include the preservation of as much of the old structure as possible with a finished building that will harmonize with the other building at the Camp and be more useful in carrying on the activities of this popular resort.

The Spending Committee feels it has a dual roll to perform in carrying on of its duties. First: Conducting the property in such a manner that it will be used to its maximum and that the people can get the greatest possible amount of pleasure and satisfaction from using it, and, second, maintaining the property not only as a medium of pleasure and satisfaction to the people but as a memorial to Colonel Town, its donor, which the Committee feels carries with it a certain dignity. Judging from the amount of use which the people make of the Colonel Town properties, it is evident that our adults and youth are enjoying the facilities made available through Colonel Town's bequest. The fine condition in which the property is preserved, the small amount of money necessary for repairs and the orderly manner in which people conduct themselves while on the property indicate that the people themselves sense that this property is a memorial to a fine citizen. The administering of the property has been extremely easy from the standpoint of the violation of rules or asking for exception to rules, a situation which has made serving on the Spending Committee pleasant and to which the Committee owes a debt of gratitude to every citizen in the town of Lancaster for their cooperation.

MISS EVELYN MOYLE,

Secretary Spending Committee.

REPORT OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE

At the annual meeting of the Town School District in March 1939, Mr. Chester Marshall was re-elected.

The state inspector visited our seven schools in the fall, and reported that he was pleased with the excellent condition of the buildings.

One major repair job was accomplished last fall which now gives the children at No. 11 a suitable yard in which to play. The rocks were removed and tile installed, in order to take care of the drainage.

The smaller number of tuition children next year makes possible a drop in the amount of money needed.

CHESTER MARSHALL—Term Expires 1942

WILLIAM GALBRAITH—Term Expires 1941

RALPH D. SHUTE—Term Expires 1940.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

To the Honorable School Board and Citizens of the Lancaster School District:

The same seven schools are in operation this year as last. Gore school remains the largest with twenty-eight pupils, closely followed by Stebbins Hill with twenty-seven enrolled. Fewer town district pupils are enrolled in the village this year.

Repairs

Only one major repair job was undertaken this year, and that was the draining and grading of the yard at No. 11. For years this yard had been very wet, and covered with large rocks. These rocks have been removed, and two large drains installed which greatly improves the condition of the grounds.

The shed at No. 15 should have the foundation replaced, as it was weakened during the flood of '36.

Health

The same excellent health program that has been in operation for several years has been continued. Early in the year a physical check-up is given by the school physician, and the defects found are followed up by the school nurse. The dental clinics have been of great value in the correction of teeth defects.

Transportation

Five routes are maintained for the elementary children, and several for the high school pupils. This last is made possible by the special appropriation at the school meeting, and by the contribution from the Col. Town Fund.

Education as an Investment

A considerable number of our former town district pupils are now holding responsible positions, not only in our own state, but in other states of the Union as well. This has been made possible by the fact that they were enabled to get sound training in Lancaster Academy, and to further their education by attending institutions of higher learning. This is sure proof that education pays good dividends for those who have the talent and desire to profit from the investment.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM G. FULLER.

Librarian's Annual Report

The most noticeable happening in our Public Library this last year was the resignation of Mrs. Annie P. Hastings from the Trusteeship, Nov. 20th, of which she had been a member for 43 years, and the oldest in membership. In this capacity she has served faithfully and most efficiently. Her natural love for the best in literature has helped to keep the Library as a high standard, of which there is much need in this day of cheap and obscene literature.

Mrs. Hastings will always feel a personal interest in the welfare of the Library, especially the Juvenile Department, of which she has long had the vision. However, Mrs. Hastings' place has been most satisfactorily filled by Mrs. Ethel McCarten whose ideals for good reading will be maintained in the selection of books. The Trustees now are Mr. James L. Dow, who has been Treasurer since 1916, Mrs. Emily Holton, and Mrs. Ethel McCarten.

Books added to the Library last year numbered 131, of which seven are gifts, and for which we are grateful to the donors.

As many books are discarded each year, the average number remains about 9,000; 16,253 have been in circulation during the year, over 3,000 non-fiction—an average of over 50 a day.

The English teachers select the best books for the students starting in the High School. Fiction, biography, and travel, and reference books are in constant demand. The Bookmobile from Concord continues its call every six weeks, which is a help.

Names recorded in our guest book for visiting tourists during the summer months of 1939 number 200.

Money collected for fines alone for the year amounted to $76.00 and was turned over to the Treasurer.

Following are the Periodicals:

American Boy, American Girl, American Forests, American Home, American Magazine, Atlantic Magazine, Atlantic Monthly, Better Homes and Gardens, Catholic Digest, Child Life, Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping, Hobbies, National Geographic, Nature Magazine, News Week, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science, Readers Digest, Saturday evening Post, St. Nicholas, Story Parade, Wee Wisdom.

Respectfully submitted,

MARTHA W. BRACKETT,

Librarian.

Juvenile Library Report

The retirement of Mrs. Annie Hastings, long a member of the Board of Trustees of the Library, was marked with regret by all with whom she had been associated. The children's room being an especial dream of Mrs. Hastings' come true, (Thanks to the Colonel Town Fund), her interest has been always in the young people. Wishing to give something to commemorate her years of service, she has given a collection of curios from many lands, complete with the case, as well as minerals, shells, coins, and so forth, which were collected by her only son, Warren.

Mrs. Wm. L. McCarten was appointed by the Selectmen to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Hastings.

Miss Charlotte Bronson entertained the First and Second grades on two occasions in the Fall at Story Hours.

The following organizations each gave a book to the children's room at Book Week: Rotary Club, Unity Club, Daughters of Isabella, and Kiwanis Club.

The Librarian attended the State Library meeting at Plymouth, and the district meeting at North Stratford, in September.

With so much cheap reading on the news-stands today, the Library should make a double effort to keep the children's interest on worth while material. This means that sufficient funds for books should be provided to hold the readers.

New books added to the Juvenile department—48, only four being gifts. Fines turned in to Treasurer—$20.00. Total circulation—8,175.

Respectfully submitted,

ELAINE F. HICKEY,

Juvenile Librarian.
