LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the Trustees of Langdon Public Library:

Gifts of books have been received from Dover Public Library, Mrs. Hawkridge and Anita Knox.

Mrs. Addie Mitchell of Dover presented a collection of books, the property of her brother, the late Chauncey B. Hoyt. Many of these will be valuable for reference; some are the lives of political leaders; others, lives of artists and their works.

Mrs. Louis deRochemont renewed the subscription to Natural History for the current year. Miss Theodore Lyman, Humane Review.

Reports from the State have been received. Many magazines are brought to us after families have read them; these are read and then passed on to families that have few magazines.

For all gifts and kind interest in the Library I thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

HATTIE M. GREENOUGH,

Librarian.

SCHOOL REPORT

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Newington:

I, herewith, submit to you my ninth report as superintendent of your schools.

Newington during the past year employed two teachers in its two rooms with a total enrollment of 65 pupils. The September enrollment of the present year is 69, with the primary room very crowded. Under such conditions it is particularly difficult to secure satisfactory results. Sooner or later one of two courses will have to be adopted. Either a third teacher must be employed or the age limit of admittance to the first grade must be raised. A third teacher would mean additional expense to the district but, since Newington is now a state aid town, a major part of the increase would be met from state funds. Relieving the teachers from the present overcrowded condition would allow them to give more individual attention to each pupil and result in more rapid advancement in his studies. The pupils requiring the most of the teacher's time are those who are too young chronologically or who have not yet reached the mental reading age. The effort that these pupils require on the part of the teacher is disproportionate to their numbers. If the age limit of admitting children to the first grade were raised, the time and effort of the teacher would be more evenly distributed. These younger children, entering one year later would make more rapid progress the next year and would make this advance with greater ease and pleasure. The budget presented in this March school meeting anticipates two teachers only.

The School Board of Newington is operating the schools economically. The costs of the school are somewhat below the state average and these costs are lowered, as far as the town is concerned by state payments. The State Board of Education gives the average per pupil cost for New Hampshire during the past year as $79.98. This same source gives the per pupil cost for Newington as $73.97 or $6.01 below average. Since the State Aid received December 1937 amounted to $463.31 the actual cost to the district based on our own school enrollment was $7.85 less than the above figure.

It will be interesting to note that Newington has now completed four years as a state aid district. During those four years the yearly check has varied between $463.31 and $627.72. The aid for next year will depend upon the action of the legislature now in session but will be in the neighborhood of $400.

The Newington schools are good schools. I believe this true because the subject of Reading is our first concern. Your teachers are doing particularly good work in this, believing that, other things being equal, a good reader is a good scholar. Reading, in the primary grades is an individual skill and is so taught. In the upper grades as much oral reading as time will permit, is the rule. This course seems to be one reason for the uniformly satisfactory work of our graduates in secondary schools.

With a small group of our children, absences continue to be a problem. A large number of absences means one of two things, either the pupil fails his subject—if not that year then at some later time—or the teacher must take time away from the faithful pupils to help the indifferent, “catch up” on their work. Except in cases of illness, I believe we should not take regular school time which is for all pupils, to make up work unnecessarily lost. It is noticeable that while this small group is causing the great majority of absences during the first sixteen weeks of this school year, twenty-two pupils have perfect attendance.

We were all glad to welcome Mrs. Poore once more as our teacher of music. She has such a live interest in her subject that it reflects itself in her pupils. In her hands we know our music instruction will be a success and that our pupils will learn to love music, which, after all, is the reason for music's being.

Mrs. Sheehy, our school nurse, has accomplished much during her term with us. Her hearty cooperation with parents and teachers is appreciated. The welfare of our children is her chief concern. As soon as Newington feels able we should make arrangements for her to visit the schools more often.

There never was a time when children, smaller or larger, faced greater safety hazards than they do today. The age of machinery forces even the young child to meet the problem of safety before he has time to comprehend it. At the earliest ages it is important that the child be taught how to avoid dangers. Dangers in the home, at play, at work and especially on the highway. Little "workbooks" and primers are now being developed. We believe it possible to develop in even the primary child, habits of safety consciousness throughout his life. I recommend that, as soon as available, texts in safety be adopted as regular readers in our schools. This work has been done informally by the teachers of the nation during the past few years. This is responsible, in great part, for the fact that accidental deaths among children are decreasing in number. A regularly organized course would, we believe, produce greater results.

May I again express my appreciation to the School Board of Newington for advice and hearty cooperation given me in the work of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

ROY W. GILLMORE,

Superintendent of Schools.
