International education means the world to UNH.

NHIS

4 P.M. – 6 P.M.
WEDNESDAYS
EACH MONTH
MURKLAND 115

FEBRUARY 18
JOEL HARTTER
Geography, COLA

Baboons and Farmers: Impacts of Imposed Conservation in a Forest Park Landscape in East Africa

MARCH 11
LOUIS S. TISA
Microbiology and Genetics, COLSA

Global Issues Require Global Collaborations: Understanding Plant-microbe Interactions with Worldwide Practical and Ecological Relevance

APRIL 15
LU YAN
History, COLA

More Than ‘International Relations‘: Sino-Japanese Cultural Interactions, 1895-1945

MAY 6
STEVE BORNSTEIN
Communication Sciences and Disorders, CHHS

Intervention Approaches for Children with Hearing Impairment and Other Disabilities in Russia