Report of Town History Committee.

At the annual town meeting in March 1910, the undersigned were appointed a committee to examine the writings of the town historian, and ascertain the probable cost of publishing the same. In regard to the first proposition we have spent two days with the historian examining his work so far as we could. At our request he read to us either wholly or in part what he had prepared under some of the different topics, he also read some of his biographical sketches. His writings bear the impress of care and painstaking, and we were much interested in listening to these various readings. A desire to state the facts, briefly, concisely, and impartially, seems to be a characteristic feature of the work. But as to their accuracy and completeness no committee can speak with certainty without consulting data and different sources of information which would consume a vastly greater amount of time than this committee feel authorized to give.

In regard to the cost of publication, we have consulted with publishing houses in Concord and they estimate the cost for a book of 675 pages with about 50 pages more of cuts and bound partly in cloth and some in one-half leather, to be about $1,600.00 for an edition of 750 copies. Now that the work is practically completed it is to be hoped that the town will favorably consider the matter of its publication. So far as we have been able to examine the work we give it our hearty approval.

GEORGE L. DEMING,
FENNO B. COMINGS,
WILLIAM W. BALLOCH,
Committee.
REPORT ON TOWN HISTORY.

A year of waiting has also brought to view many unforeseen needs of the history. These we have endeavored to supply, so that now the manuscript is far more complete as a whole than a year ago. So many additions and corrections have been made, that it became necessary to re-write a large number of the records.

At our instance, a committee was chosen by the town a year ago, to examine our work and counsel with us regarding the same. This they have faithfully done as will be shown by their report at this time.

On December 28th last, we issued an announcement to friends of Cornish abroad, as well as to the families of the town, that the history was nearing completion, thus giving them a final opportunity to correct their records, and to express the amount of patronage they were willing to bestow favoring the publication of the history. The responses have been a happy surprise. About one hundred have signified their purpose to purchase a copy of the book when published. Accompanying some of these responses are pledges of further financial aid. Several also are willing to contribute the entire expense of inserting their cuts in the history. Therefore this seems to be the opportune time for the town to move forward with the publication of the history.

W. H. CHILD, Historian.

FRED C. PARDY,
HERBERT DEMING, School Board.
EBEN M. JOHNSON,

A true copy of Warrant—Attest:

FRED C. PARDY,
HERBERT DEMING, School Board.
EBEN M. JOHNSON,
The School Board respectfully presents the following report for the school year ending February 15, 1911:

We have maintained school in thirteen different houses, giving each division the advantage of thirty weeks schooling, with the exception of Division 7, which owing to the scarcity of teachers, we could not open a school there during the spring term.

We have done our best to secure competent teachers, and as a rule we have succeeded. Our teachers have done faithful work and there is a marked advancement in our schools.

We have employed twenty-five different teachers, four male, and twenty-one female teachers. We wish the parents would take a deeper interest in the schools and be more strict in sending their children to school every day.

The report of the Truant Officer’s enumeration of scholars in town between 5 and 16 years of age is boys 107, girls 95, total 202.

Besides the usual small repairs necessary in several school houses, we have thoroughly repaired and painted inside and out, the house in division 11, and shingled the house in division 9. There are some repairs needed in other houses in town, making it necessary for the district to raise a reasonable sum for repairs, if the houses are to be kept in the best shape for the interest of the schools.

Following will be found the roll of honor and statistical report.

FRED C. PARDY, School Board
HERBERT DEMING, of
EBEN M. JOHNSON, Cornish.
