Sustainability Fellowship: Make an impact this summer!

Sustainability Fellowships pair exceptional undergraduate and graduate students from UNH and universities across the country with municipal, educational, corporate, and non-profit partners in New England to work on transformative sustainability initiatives. Each summer, Fellows undertake challenging sustainability projects that are designed to create an immediate impact, offer an extraordinary learning experience, and foster meaningful collaboration.

Become a Fellow and become part of the next generation of sustainability leaders!

- Work with municipal, educational, corporate, and non-profit partners in New England (check out our summer 2021 Fellowship sites)
- Connect with a growing network of sustainability leaders (mentors, advisors, alumni and peers)
- Learn through hands-on experience and professional development
- Build resilience throughout New England
- Earn $5,200 (undergrads) or $6,500 (recent alumni or graduate students)
- App Deadline: February 15, 2021

Semester in the City: Pursue your passions!

Semester in the City is so much more than an internship. Pursue or discover your passions while earning college credit and building skills as a changemaker at a leading Boston social sector organization. Semester in the City works with changemaking organizations to host students for meaningful internships with dedicated mentors, and earns you a full semester of college credit. You also take courses and workshops that support your internship and teach you how to impact the issues you care about. They have expanded their program so you can work and live in Boston or support your community right here at UNH! What are you waiting for?

Apply for Fall 2021 to start working on issues you care about, grow your network, and make new friends.

With Semester in the City you get to:

- Intern at a leading business, nonprofit, or government agency (check out potential Internship Host Sites in the "Where might I intern..." dropdown sections)
- Network with professionals driving real and meaningful change
- Learn about careers for people, planet, and profit
- Continue paying your standard tuition and there are NO special fees. All financial aid will apply.
- Live in a fully-furnished apartment in Boston (housing fees apply) or stay on campus or in Durham (for SITC@UNH).
- Financial Perks: unlimited transportation pass, a living stipend of $595/semester, some meals included
- Fall 2021 App Deadlines: Priority: March 1st; Final: April 1st
