Healing Wounds of War, Making Peace

Dr. Gino Strada (Milan, Italy) Renowned War Surgeon

Emergency Co-Founder,
Surgeon and Writer

Wednesday, March 23rd at 4:00 p.m.

MUB Theatre I

Internationally-recognized war surgeon Gino Strada, M.D., will be at the University of New Hampshire on March 23, 2005 to speak regarding his experiences in war-torn countries and to discuss his book entitled, Green Parrots: A War Surgeon's Diary. The expertise and experience accumulated in fifteen years of war surgery practice convinced Dr. Strada of the necessity of a small organization, flexible and highly specialized, which could intervene in favor of the civilian victims of war without being hindered by the bureaucratic slowness of governments and the military. He co-founded Emergency, a non-governmental organization that raises funds to build and maintain health care facilities in war-torn countries, and also campaigns to ban antipersonnel mines. Dr. Strada will speak from 4 to 5:30 p.m., Wednesday, March 23rd at the University of New Hampshire in the Memorial Union Building, Theater I, located at 83 Main Street, Durham, NH. Dr. Strada will also show portions of a film during his address and will be signing copies of his book.

Seminar begins promptly at 4:00pm. Light refreshments will be served at 3:40pm.
