(b) Educational Policy

For the past few years many people who have been attempting to read the news of the world with a mind sufficiently open to be impressed by facts, have believed that barbaric forces which have so rapidly gained the upper hand in such a large part of Europe could not be put under safe restraint by those of their immediate neighbors, militarily weak, who were aligned with the principles of what we have been accustomed to speak of as civilization. The peaceful people of the world are coming slowly to the realization that when whole nations with hundreds of millions of people organize their total energy and vast resources for decades for the purposes of destruction and conquest, it takes more than wishful thinking on the part of those peace-loving people who have for years dedicated themselves to the task of learning how to live in peace to so protect themselves that their living habits may continue without disturbance.

The implications of these facts to education are many and extremely complex. The people of the United States have been slowly, very slowly, getting acquainted with the purposes and methods of the totalitarians. As they have been slow to see the implications of European events to their daily living, so the schools have been slow to see the implications to their methods and purposes. When schools closed on Friday, December 5, 1941, they had by no means incorporated into their fiber the full meaning of recent world-shaking events, but when they opened on Monday, December 8, they had one dominant purpose—complete, intelligent and enthusiastic cooperation in the war effort. Educational leaders fully realize that the very existence of free schools, for even a free people, anywhere in the world depends on the achievement of that purpose. They fully realize that this is not a war of armies and navies, not even of the able-bodied, but a war of the whole population, a war where what every individual does counts, regardless of his age, sex, or physical, mental, or moral condition.

How the schools can adapt their programs to this new objective will tax the abilities of the best thinkers of our country. It is clear that many adaptations are required. Many aspects of education will need to be strengthened and extended while others, very important in times of peace, will have to be redirected or modified in order that the total expanded efforts of war-time education may be applied at the point of greatest need.

The following quotation from a pamphlet issued by the Educational Policies Committee of the National Education Association is pertinent. "While the essential work of organized education should not be interrupted or deflected for trifling reasons 'education as usual' will be neither possible nor desirable. Although every activity in the schools may conceivably be related in some way to the war effort, we must decide not only what is important but also what is of first importance. Priorities must be established among educational activities. The responsibilities of organized education for the successful outcome of the war involve at least the following eleven groups of activities: (1) training workers for war industries and services, (2) producing goods and services needed for the war, (3) conserving materials by prudent consumption and salvage, (4) helping to raise funds to help finance the war, (5) increasing effective manpower by correcting educational deficiencies, (6) promoting health and physical efficiency, (7) protecting school children and property against attack, (8) protecting the ideals of democracy against war hazards, (9) teaching the issues, aims and progress of war and of peace, (10) sustaining the morale of children and adults, (11) maintaining intelligent loyalty to American democracy. Without abandoning essential services of the schools, these war duties of the schools should be given absolute and immediate priority in time, attention, personnel, and funds over any and all activities."

Many if not all of these activities have already been begun in the schools of this supervisory union. A defense class in metal work is now operating in the Pittsfield school shop where several young men are preparing themselves for essential work. Efforts have been made to organize similar work in Alton using the shop facilities there, but sufficient interest has not yet been found to get federal approval. Some modifications have been made in the three regular school shop classes in Pittsfield and in the two agricultural classes in Alton to meet war needs in the training of workers. Even in the rural schools efforts are being made to do something toward the development of the manual abilities that are essential to industrial workers. In the homemaking classes in Pittsfield, Wolfeboro, Alton, and Tuftonboro, attempts are being made to cooperate with other agencies in the production of essential needlework. Many girls and some boys are getting a training that is fundamental in carrying on the various kinds of nutritional work and canteen service. All school shops are assisting the local defense committees in such ways as making tables and splints for fractured bones.

Steps are being taken to get all pupils to use school supplies economically in order to conserve as much as possible. All schools are cooperating in the campaign to salvage waste paper to go ultimately into cardboard for military defense purposes. Some schools are saving cancelled postage stamps to be used for military first-aid work. Instruction is being given in the availability of materials for military and civilian defense purposes. The pupils are urged to carry this information home that all may help to conserve those materials that are essential to the war effort.

Pittsfield High School's recent campaign among the students which resulted in the sale in one week of over $440.00 worth of defense stamps and bonds to members of the student body is illustrative of the activities the schools are and will be carrying on to help finance the war.

Efforts are being made to augment former plans for promoting the health and physical efficiency of all pupils. Parents are urged to cooperate as much as possible in the correction of remedial defects, that all pupils may be handicapped as little as possible with defective teeth, hearing, vision, etc. Our school sponsored health clinics have been exceedingly valuable in the past and they will be fully as valuable now. The selective service physical examinations have shown a large proportion of our young men are handicapped with remedial defects. This is a condition which can be corrected, and must be if we as a people are to meet our problems successfully. There is still much to be desired in our physical education program in the school. This program needs to be strengthened radically. This program needs to be much more effective in the correction of the physical defects of the children in the building of strength and vitality. A fully effective intramural sports program for developing health, skill, and strength in all students should be given priority over competition wherein active participation is limited to a few. The program in physical education should reach every child.

Nutrition plays an important part in the development of health and physical efficiency. All girls in the schools from the seventh grade up are being urged to take courses in homemaking. In the rural schools it is difficult to have well well-organized, effective instruction in homemaking but the rural teachers are being urged to do what they can along this line. The noon hot-lunch being served in nearly all schools in the union serves as an excellent medium for motivating this work.

Surplus commodities are again being furnished to the schools and are an excellent help in seeing that all pupils receive proper nourishment.

In so far as possible the schools are cooperating with the rest of the civilian population in an organization of civilian self protection so that the armed forces may be left free to seek out and defeat the enemy. It is realized that in this country as elsewhere the enemy will try to throw civilians into panic to thereby weaken military power. We are endeavoring to be prepared for every type of attack, from without and from within. We are endeavoring to train children to face these dangers without losing their heads or their courage. This can be done if we plan in advance to meet those dangers. Panic is caused by the unexpected, for which we have no response ready. A plan for civilian protection is not a sign of timidity, rather it is evidence that we know foresight and preparedness sustain courage. Shelters for the children in case of air-raids are being prepared as fast as resources at our command will permit. Children are being trained to reach those shelters without excitement. Provisions have been made for all schools to receive warning as soon as possible of expected raids. Schools are being prepared to furnish their own air-raid wardens, incendiary bomb squads, and first aid staffs, within the limits of their abilities. Plans have been discussed with all teachers for sustaining the morale of pupils. Activities are being planned so that children in air-raid shelters will be kept engaged in interesting activities, such as group singing, group games, simple musical and dramatical programs. As the Office of Civilian Defense has issued instructions to keep all children in schools in the event of raids everything is being done to make children as safe or safer in the schools than they would be at home.

In order to protect the ideals of democracy against war hazards efforts are being made to practice democracy as well as teach it in the schools. Pupils participation in governmental control of the schools is being encouraged. Pittsfield High School has its Student Council. Pittsfield Grammar School has its Safety Patrol. Alton High School has its Student Activities Association; and the Carpenter School in Wolfeboro has its Student Co-operative Government and Safety Patrol.

Children in the schools today will be, in a few years, the adults who will be determining the affairs of the nation. The issues, aims, and progress of the war must be taught to them in order that they may be properly prepared to assume their burdens in the years to come. They must be taught to face frankly the mistakes of the United States, England, France, and other anti-Axis countries in the hope that they will not make the same mistakes. They must be taught that the United States is now inseparably bound up in world affairs, that it must never attempt to retreat to position of isolation. World power has been trust into the hands of the American people. American citizens must now face this fact and must prepare themselves to assume a leading and responsible role in the peace and reconstruction to follow the war.

Although changes in the schools have been and will continue to be extensive and significant nothing that has been said is intended to indicate that the work of the schools should be in any sense suspended for the duration of the war. The cultural values are part of the heritage which we must respect. Every effort should be made after immediate and genuine emergency demands are met to continue the normal educative processes at full efficiency. Education has moved forward in previous crises, it will do so again. All of the war-related work experience in the schools is being made directly valuable in an educational sense. Never has there been a time when the schools have been called upon to carry such a heavy burden of responsibility. The schools have met their responsibilities in the past and I have full faith that they will continue to meet them. The schools shall meet the call of the crisis and out of the harsh necessities of war shall come a school system more fit for the education of free men.

Three vacancies occurred during the school year 1940-41. One of these, the replacement of Miss Stevens by Miss Gillmore at South Barnstead, was mentioned in the last report. The other two were caused by the resignations of Mrs. Sargent on February 21, and Miss Beryle Thompson on May 29. Mrs Lillian Tuttle of Barnstead finished out the year for Mrs. Sargent and Mrs. Susie Barr of Alton replaced Miss Thompson. At the close of the year Mr. Bean, Miss Gillmore and Miss Royce resigned and when schools opened in September Mr. Blanchard did not return. The above table shows how these vacancies were filled.

Mr. Pelton, Miss Murphy and Miss Winslow graduated in June 1941 from the three-year course at Gorham Normal School in Maine; Miss Davoli received her Bachelor's degree in 1940 from Lowell Teacher's College in Massachusetts; and Miss Simpson graduated last June from the three-year course at Farmington Normal School in Maine.

(b) Methods of Instruction

The reading system used in the first grade during the school year 1940-41 is the result of the most recent and extensive research in the field of reading. The books and seatwork materials are even more attractive and interesting than the older editions and the progress of the pupil is so controlled that a better command of vocabulary is assured. It could be seen that the new system was definitely responsible for the exceedingly low per cent of first grade failures last June.

The new system is being extended into the second grade this year and it is planned to adopt it for the third grade next year.

ESTIMATED INCOME OF DISTRICT

Balance June 30, 1942 .....	$0.00
State aid, December, 1942 .....	4,072.71
Dog tax .....	108.48

Income from trust funds .....	47.00

Assessment required to balance School Board's
Budget .....	$10,649.81
Special Appropriation Proposed (Articles in Warrant)
Toilets at Shackford's Corner ...	$300.00
	$300.00
Total assessment required to cover
Budget and appropriations .....	$10,949.81

The above budget cannot be intelligently compared with last year's without the consideration of a number of associated facts. One of these facts is that last year the budget was prepared with the idea in mind that one room would be closed and only six teachers employed. The district voted to increase the printed budget by $900.00. This seems to have been a wise step because the Parade school now has 35 pupils and the Center school 33.

Another fact to consider is that the salaries paid to Barnstead teachers is considerably lower than those paid generally in the state so the budgeted amount for this item has been increased in an attempt to prevent an annual turn over of teaching personnel of all but one or two teachers. Good teaching is being done in the Barnstead schools and it would be regrettable if most of the teachers should leave again this year.

A third fact is that the prices of many supplies and materials for maintaining and operating the schools have already risen 50% or more and are still going up. The items most influenced by this fact are scholars' supplies, (paper, etc.) flags, fuel, and janitors' supplies, (towels, toilet paper, brooms, etc.).

Another item in which there has been a marked increase is that for transportation of pupils. This increase has not been due to higher rates of pay for the same service but to the greater number of pupils to be transported and those from such places as to require separate routes of extra trips of regular conveyances.

Because of these uncontrollable factors the amount being asked for to meet the budget is $1,578.47 more than was raised at the last March meeting.

PART IV. SCHOOL PLANT

Only the most urgent repairs have been attended to during the past year. Miscellaneous painting was done at the Parade, Center, South, and Beauty Hill schools, and the shades at the Parade were replaced.

For several years there has been much discussion about the unsanitary toilets at the Shackford's Corner school. It seems to many interested in the school that the children here should not have to tolerate for another year the bad conditions that exist. It is estimated that with an additional appropriation of $300.00 modern septic toilets could be installed that would make the facilities of this school comparable with those in the other schools. The representatives of the manufacturers of this equipment are holding an outfit for us until the district can take action on March 21 so that there is no question of being able to get it in spite of the war emergency.

PART V. CHILD ACCOUNTING AND STATISTICS

A. Promotion to High School

The following fifteen pupils were promoted to High school in June 1941: Lucille Davis, Laura Gray, Mary Gray, Richard Gray, Robert Gray, Alma Heywood, Barbara Sirrell, Arnold Stock, Alta Whittier, Sam Goodwin, Thomas Marsal, Fred Pitman, Calvin Weeks, Howard Lank, and Vera Wheat.

All except one of these pupils entered high school last fall.

b. High School Pupils

Thirty-nine tuition pupils as compared with thirty-seven last year, were enrolled in secondary schools last fall as follows:

Alton High School: Fred Pitman, Calvin Weeks, Grade Nine; Mary Boyd, Doris Pitman, Gordon Prescott, Grade Ten; and Shirley Prescott, Grade Twelve.

Pittsfield High School: Laura Gray, Mary Gray, Richard Gray, Robert Gray, Alma Heywood, Howard Lank, Barbara Sirrell, Arnold Stock, Vera Wheat, Alta A. Whittier, Lucille Davis, Grade Nine; Charles Brown, James Eastman, Raymond Jenisch, Edith Jenkins, Arlene MacPherson, Maynard Perkins, Leonard Smith, Richard Stock, Emery Tasker, Margaret Wheat, Grade Ten; Marjorie Atwell, Marguerite Davis, Robert French, Reinhold Knirsch, Shirley MacPherson, Phyllie Wheat, Grade Eleven; Ernest Davis, Lorraine Hanson, Charles Higgins, Virginia Kidder, Ralph Kristoferson, and Merle Wheat, Grade Twelve.

Of these thirty-nine pupils, two have moved to Pittsfield and are still attending Pittsfield High School and two have transferred from Alton High School to Farmington High School.

All six students are seniors and as it is likely that eight will be entering high school next fall, about $2,750.00 will be needed for tuition.

c. Roll of Honor for Attendance

The following sixteen pupils, as compared with twelve in 1939-40, were neither absent nor tardy during the school year ending June 30, 1941; (4) J. Henry Cotton, Nancy Cotton, (2) Roberta Cotton, (3) Lucille Davis, Audrey Evans, Donald Golden, (2) Richard Gray, (2) Walter Gray, Nancy Heywood, Edward Kelley, Roger Kidder, Wilbur Kidder, Donald Melvin, and Earlene Merrill.

A figure before a pupil's name indicates the number of consecutive years he has had perfect attendance.

D. Statistics for the Year Ending June 30, 1941

Number of pupils registered .....	131
Average number of half-days schools were in session .....	350
Average membership .....	118.89
Average attendance .....	112.66
Aggregate number half-days all pupils were in school .....	39,431
Per cent of attendance .....	94.76
Average number of half-days each pupil was in school .....	331.74
Pupils not absent nor tardy .....	16
Per cent of all pupils not absent nor tardy.....	13.45
Cases of tardiness .....	138
Average number of tardinesses per pupil.....	1.16
Non-resident pupils .....	6
Pupils transported at district expense .....	20
Visits by superintendent .....	90
Average number of visits by superintendent per teacher .....	13
Visits by citizens .....	152
Visits by school board members .....	6
Meetings of school board .....	12
Number of pupils promoted .....	116
Number not promoted .....	4
Per cent not promoted .....	3.45

The above figures show that (1) there were six more children in Barnstead schools in 1940-41 than in the previous year; (2) there was a great reduction in the number of tardinesses, and (3) the number of pupils not promoted was unusually low.

E. Census, September 30, 1941

Number of resident children 5 to 16 in local schools .....	119
Number 5 to 16 in high schools outside the district .....	25

Number 5 to 16 in elementary schools outside district .....	6
		<hr/>
Total number 5 to 16 in some school....		150
Number 5 to 8 not in school .....	4
Number 8 to 14 not in school .....	0
Number 14 to 16 not in school .....	1
		<hr/>
Total number of children 5 to 16 not in school .....		5
Total number of resident children 5 to 16		155

This total is four greater than the 1940 total, and one less than for 1939. It seems that the tendency of the past few years for the Barnstead school population to steadily decrease has at last stopped and started to swing in the other direction.

PART VI. AUXILIARY ACTIVITIES AND SPECIAL REPORTS

A. Report of School Nurse

Ruth S. Langille

Barnstead was unusually free from contagious diseases last year. Five cases of chicken pox and seven of whooping cough were the only diseases reported. The general health of the pupils was very good.

In the matter of physical defects and their corrections the Barnstead schools hold an enviable record in New Hampshire. Perhaps the citizens would be interested in seeing the report of this good record:

Pupils examined .....	125
Defects found .....	215—1.7 per pupil
Defects corrected .....	137—63% of defects
Without defect .....	50—40% of pupils

	Defects	Corrections
Underweight (10%) .....	28	20
Defective vision .....	14	6
Defective hearing .....	5	..
Cardiac disease .....	4	2
Defective teeth .....	121	105
Defective tonsils. ....	40	2
Adenoids .....	3	2
Glasses already worn .....	..	5

The largest and most important project undertaken in the Barnstead schools each year is the school dental clinic sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary. Last year an allowance of $2.00 per pupil was made which made it possible for 93 pupils to have dental care in the clinic. This, with the money the parents paid to complete the work, enabled 67 pupils (72%) to have all necessary work done so as to receive dental certificates. Parents of 12 other pupils had their work done privately, so that there were left only 16 pupils in the Barnstead schools not interested in having anything done for their teeth.

When thinking over these figures, it is interesting to note how disturbed the army recruiting officers and the national health authorities are about the large percentage of defects they find among men wishing to be inducted into service. They point out that if a little more interest had been taken in correcting these defects while the men were still in school, many of these defects would have been eliminated, and a better record would have been found among army men. The large percentage of Barnstead boys entering the armed services well illustrates the fine record our schools have shown in correcting some of these defects.

Aside from correcting physical defects, most health authorities agree that a better balanced diet will prevent many of them. This is especially true of dental decay and of some vision defects. Most people refuse many foods good for them in preference for things they happen to like better, resulting in a poorly balanced diet. Children establish eating habits very early and are prone to copy adult preferences as well as prejudices. It is possible to train young children to like a variety of vegetables, both raw and cooked, whole grain cereals, fruits, dark breads, and especially enough milk in some form. Let us set them the example of living by the motto adopted by the Nutrition for Defense Committee "Eat What You Want After You Have Eaten What You Should."

Barnstead was one of the fortunate towns which had an interested School Board and Superintendent to plan hot lunch projects using surplus commodities as a foundation and supplying additional funds to make it possible to serve balanced and nutritious hot lunches to many pupils.

We regret to report that several cases of defective vision recorded in our schools are not yet corrected and are of a serious nature. Plans have been made to get a few of these corrected, but ways have not yet been found to get enough money for all needed glasses.

Report of visits and time spent in the Barnstead schools:

Visits to schools .....	115
Visits to homes .....	178
Total visits .....	293
Days spent .....	22.2
Days due .....	22

I wish to take this occasion to thank all parents, teachers, citizens, and school authorities for their interest in the school health work. In sponsoring the dental clinic, the American Legion and Auxiliary have helped with the greatest of our problems. It would be a real calamity to the Barnstead children if this service ever had to be dropped. It is a real defense measure as the U. S. Army and Navy can well testify. I want to say that I am ready to help or advise in any matter pertaining to the health problems or defense problems arising in Barnstead.

SAVE

Mutual savings banks were founded upon the principle of thrift. That principle is as sound today as it has always been. It is a cardinal principle of life. We strongly urge that you lay aside on each pay day all that you can afford, and with part of your savings thus accumulated, purchase Defense Savings Bonds, and, with the balance, open a savings account or add to one you already may have. You owe it to yourself and to your dependents to accumulate a reserve to meet the emergencies of life.
