REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Librarian and Trustees invite you to loyally support your library in 1946. We regret the continued decline in book circulation during 1945.

Several new books have been purchased and more will be available soon.

Our summer people show much interest in the Library and have made generous donations of books.

We observed "Book Week" in November with around 50 present to enjoy a program of stories, music and games.

"Let us hope that '46 will be a Year of "Reading" for you and me."

PREVENT FOREST FIRES — IT PAYS

An average of 7,300 acres of woodland are burned over by forest fires in New Hampshire each year destroying many thousand dollars worth of property of all description. It costs many additional thousands of dollars and requires valuable man hours, taken from other essential work, to extinguish them. These losses affect the personal fortunes of the owners, and town and state economies. Everyone loses because of them.

Analysis of fire causes reveals the fact that more than 98 percent of all forest fires are, consistently, the result of human carelessness and are preventable!

We have been extremely fortunate during the past few years. Favorable fire weather and war time restrictions on travel which kept people off the highways and out of the woods have aided materially in reducing fire risks, keeping fires fewer and fire losses low.

We now face changed conditions. People can travel freely. Their love for travel and the freedom of the woods will bring them out in ever increasing numbers. This will step up the fire risks materially. The accelerated cutting of the war years has resulted in additional thousands of slash acres. These factors, combined with a possible dry season and human carelessness could easily produce a catastrophe. Everyone must, consequently, be on his guard. He should

1. Be careful with fire or when smoking in or near woodlands.
2. Cooperate with the local forest fire warden and his deputies by
 - a. Abiding cheerfully with whatever restrictions it may be necessary to impose. They are intended only to be helpful.
 - b. Securing permits to burn debris when the ground is not covered with snow.
 - c. Seeing that others comply with the requirements.
 - d. Promptly coming to the warden's assistance when needed.

If these few fundamental practices are followed it will be possible to PREVENT a large proportion of FOREST FIRES from starting — that PAYS!

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS TO THE SCHOOL BOARD AND CITIZENS OF SANDOWN:

February 1, 1946

I herewith present my fourth annual report as superintendent of schools. As we work for the continued improvement of our schools, we have an opportunity for a much more optimistic outlook than we have had for several years due to war time conditions. Although those conditions are in many respects still with us, people feel much decrease in the mental strain since the fighting ceased. There has been little actual let-up to date on the teacher situation, acquisition of books and supplies and other material things.

The present world and national situation from an educational sense involves an attempt at the creation of an "Educational and Cultural Organization of the United Nations." The present conference convened November 1, 1945 in London to "Formulate the final constitution of the proposed Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

In our own country probably no subject stirs as much emotion as Peacetime Compulsory Military Training; the discussion (Mentioned in the superintendent's report last year) continues to be an important subject in Congress. One of the strong arguments in favor of Peacetime Compulsory Military Training is the prevention and improvement of physical defects in our young people. Many of those who are opposed to this national legislation feel that more public money should be spent locally to prevent and remedy physical defects during the earlier years of a child's life and thereby eliminate the necessity of greater expense at a more advanced age.

A trend in educational objectives throughout the country today is definitely toward more vocational offerings in high schools — with no lessening of the importance of cultural subjects. It would seem that the programs of studies in our high schools should include one or more vocational courses for boys to compare with home economics and commercial so commonly offered for girls. A course in agriculture or mechanic-arts might cause the percentage of drop-outs between grades eight and twelve to become considerably lower. To substantiate an opinion that school units should increase in size and in curriculum offerings, I quote Dr. John Studebaker, U. S. Commissioner of Education, who has recently said, "In many communities, and particularly in rural communities, the curriculum of the schools has changed but little with the years, remaining bookish, abstract, with little immediate relationship to youth's need to develop technical and vocational competence for today's complicated and specialized occupational world." Calling attention to the fact that the majority of the 26,000 high schools in the United States had fewer than one hundred students each, Dr. Studebaker recommended that further steps be taken to modernize our "archaic organization of school districts and school support. As matters stand today, further progress in developing the productive skills of the great rank and file of our youth waits upon improvements in school organization."

To more precisely present the present situation in which the schools throughout the nation find themselves, I will quote from an address presented recently by E. N. Scheiberling, National Commander, American Legion. "Education in America is one of the most critical casualties of the war.—Two hundred thousand teachers have left the class rooms since Pearl Harbor. Thousands have entered the armed services.

The rising cost of living has caused thousands to accept higher wages of war industry!! Although the schools within N. H. Supervisory Union No. 14 may not have been affected as much as some in more industrial areas, we have certainly felt the impact. No organization could more constructively declare itself than did the Legion when the national Commander recently said, "We have rededicated ourselves to service of education. We will fight to attract teachers to the classrooms with adequate salaries. We will fight to strengthen the curricular of our schools, and marching shoulder to shoulder with constructive programs of the National Education Association and all other forces of education we shall succeed in this great responsibility."

We are fortunate to have the continued services of Mrs. Lora Sinskie at the Clark School. The present shortage of teachers has had a detrimental effect on the work of the children at the Pine Grove School. That school has been in operation since last September only by the whole-hearted efforts of the six different people who have taught there this year. It has been impossible to locate a regular teacher to date.

It might be advisable to close one school in Sandown and transport all of the children to the other school or educate all children of the first six grades in one school and transport the seventh and eighth grade pupils and pay their tuition to some other town. If the cost of elementary tuition was $70 each per year, the total tuition expenses for 1946-47 might be $210; transportation of seventh and eighth grade pupils might be $500. If the additional expense of transporting children of the first six grades to one school were increased $200 per year, there would then be a possible total increase of $910. By operating one school instead of two, savings might be made as follows: salary of one teacher, $1200; decrease in Sandown's share of superintendents, nurses music supervisors' salary $125 or a possible total of $1325 in addition to savings on fuel, janitor, and textbooks (grades 7 & 8). If the above estimates are reasonable, Sandown might educate its seventh and eighth grade pupils in some other town, operate one school in Sandown with 6 instead of 8 grades at a lower cost per pupil than is now the case. If it were not desirable to educate the seventh and eighth grade pupils out of Sandown there would probably still be a saving if only one school were operated and if the present teacher returned next year, the children would not be handicapped by having so many substitutes.

Textbooks:

Textbooks are being kept up to date and an effort is being made to provide a better and larger selection of supplemental books for the reading table. The greatest need at the present time is for new encyclopedias. The present sets are about twenty-five years old; new sets of encyclopedias suitable for elementary grades cost about $50 each.

In reference to the comment made in the superintendent's report last year, a new teacher's desk for the Pine Grove School was purchased with funds donated by Mr. Edwin Pressy of Washington, D. C. Mr. Pressey has recently signified a desire to donate some other more minor item for the school.

Your School Board has continued to keep the buildings in good general repair.

Pupils who completed the work of the 8th grade in June, 1945 were:

Betty Huckins	Donald Bassett

Marjorie Drowne (Special promotion during the year).

War Savings, a recent bulletin from the U. S. Treasury Department informs us that, "In 1941 only two and one-half million pupils in 8400 schools were saving through a regular school or class room savings plan. In 1945 more than twenty-five million pupils in more than 200,000 schools were saving regularly and had made a two billion dollar contribution to the nation's war financing needs.. "These foregoing facts indicate that the school children in our area have continued to take an active part in this worthy enterprise and as a by-product of their effort to help win the war, they have learned how to save and how they as citizens may contribute to the economic well-being of their country.

The following article appears in a recent issue* of the Nations Schools Magazine:

"YEARS BEFORE SIX"

Children grow before they are 6, perhaps even faster than they do after 6, according to the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association, which has completed a policy statement on "Extending School Service Downward." The war has shown, more than peacetime experience has ever demonstrated, that children profit from prekindergarten education. The foundations for health, emotional and social development are laid during these early years.

Some children have home advantages which give them a fair start in life. Others do not. It is the responsibility of the nursery school and the kindergarten, supported as public schools for all the children of all the people, to minister to the needs of this latter group.

In conclusion, you are referred to the following reports of the music supervisor, Miss Marion Foster and the School Nurse, Mrs. Constance Cooper.

Again, I wish to thank all of those connected with and interested in the work of the school for their continued cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan A. Osgood

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

To the Superintendent of Schools and Board of Education of Sandown, N. H.:

I hereby submit the annual report of the music department.

In rural schools, classes are organized by grouping the children from the first two grades, the others being in a single music class. In this way, the pupils in the upper grades may help those in the lower grades to acquire new things in the knowledge of music.

The aim of the music classes is to develop a desire to sing, to teach children how to sing correctly and to develop appreciation of good music.

A piano in each school would be most helpful; also a Victrola.

Respectfully submitted

Marion W. Foster
