It is our pleasure to return thanks for gifts of books or periodicals to the following: Mrs. Merrill, 3 volumes; Mrs. Anna Keyes, 12 volumes; A. T. Hodgkiss, 4 volumes; Mrs. Myrtie Smith, 14 volumes; J. E. Eaton, several volumes; and Mrs. Goodspeed, 1 volume.

The library is becoming more and more used by both the residents and non-residents. At the present time more than 200 books a month are being loaned. The library deserves a larger appropriation than is required by law. It is the one department of the town that a check-up will show where and how every cent is expended.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of Stoddard:

I herein submit my eighth annual report as superintendent of schools.

Herbert Spencer told us many years ago that "To prepare for complete living is the function which education has to discharge; and the only rational mode of judging of any educational course is to judge in what degree it discharges such functions."

Today this definition implies not only a knowledge of the "Three R's," a reasonable accuracy in the fundamentals, a workable habit in the mechanics and skills of knowledge but also an adjustment to conditions which prevailing isms and a machine age have brought upon us. The propaganda in the form of various isms which are attacking our institutions can be successfully met only through education. The rising generation must have its intellectual activities aroused and strengthened through the habits of cogent reasoning. They must be taught to think. Teachers must not be content with the when, where and what but more emphasis and attention must be placed on the why. That is, factual questions alone will not accomplish our ends but we must rely more on reasoning projects rightly directed. The walking encyclopedia of facts is not the educated man of today. For often the facts of the Past become the untruths of the Present, especially in science.

Again, the need of training for leisure has been forced upon us during the last year more strongly than ever before. The unemployment situation is provocative of our most serious consideration. Labor, today, is calling for the eight hour day and the five day week. Machines are doing the work that was formerly done by human brain and muscle. What will the rising generation do with their leisure time? How can we train the young so that they can utilize their leisure in beneficial rather than in detrimental ways? How can our pupils be taught to be appreciative and to gain enjoyment from reflection, meditation and thought instead of eternally seeking nervous excitation, so-called thrills? How can we cultivate in our leisure time an appreciation of the culture that we have inherited from former ages and is available for all of us in literature, in art, in music, in architecture and in the beauty and mystery of nature? These are questions which challenge our best intelligence and thought.

PROMOTIONS

The following numbers of promotions per grade were made in June:

Grades	I	II	III	IV	V	VI	VII	VIII
	0	1	0	3	1	4	1	1

These promotions were made on the five point basis, viz.: Term rank, regularity of attendance, standard tests, judgment of teacher and judgment of superintendent. The Stanford Achievement Tests were given. Test V was given at mid-year and Test W in June. In both tests the pupils maintained creditable standing in their respective grades.

Miss Eleanor Blanche Jennings completed her Eighth Grade in June.

TEACHER FOR YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1930

At the beginning of the year, it seemed advisable to* the school board to change from the cadet system of teachers to a regular teacher for the year.

Miss Marion E. Russell, a graduate of Keene Normal, was engaged for the year. Miss Russell kept the school well organized, was alert to the best interests of her pupils and enjoyed the co-operation of parents and citizens. Good progress was made by her pupils and a successful year was completed in June.

The statistical table shows that the average attendance exceeded that of the district and of the state. This fact and the small number of tardy marks are the earmarks of a good school.

The new State Course of Study was installed in the school in September. This course is an improvement on the old, more extensive, more teachable, and will give a more unified and standardized course throughout the state.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the school board, teacher, parents and citizens for their co-operation and support.

Respectfully submitted,

FREDERICK T. JOHNSON,

Superintendent of Schools.
