I herewith submit to you my annual report of the Sullivan County Almshouse and House of Correction for the year ending December 31, 1922.

In closing our sixteenth annual report of Sullivan County Farm, we wish to thank all residents of the county who have taken time to visit the farm, and see for themselves how it is managed, also given them a better idea of what is needed, and know what is being done with the money furnished. Seeing is believing.

Allow us to extend our appreciations to the Commissioners, Physician, Chaplain and all who have in any way assisted us in the care of those we have in charge. We take this way to thank you one and all.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT

No. Charlestown, N. H., Jan. 5, 1923.

To the Board of Sullivan County Commissioners:
Gentlemen:

Enclosed is my report as Chaplain for the year ending December 31, 1922.

As usual the fulfilling of the religious needs of the Almshouse has been a pleasurable duty.

The services have been held regularly. They are well attended by the inmates who seem to enjoy them. Contact with the outside world gives variety of experience to them—and all those coming, with motive of service can do much to cheer, comfort, and uplift; in His name who is our Redeemer.

One funeral has been held at the Almshouse this year, other deceased being cared for by relatives or friends.

I wish to express my thanks to the Honorable Board of Commissioners for the favors granted me during my connection with them and this institution.

Allow me to voice my appreciation for the hospitality, good-will, sympathy and unstinted co-operation extended to me by Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Putnam; and for the faithful help of their able assistants, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cole; on all occasions in the religious program of this home.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD M. FRYE, Chaplain.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT

Claremont, N. H., January, 1, 1923

To the Commissioners of Sullivan County:

Your solicitor has nothing to report which carries any new or distinctive feature. It will be useless to catalog the criminal prosecutions as these can be learned about by anyone sufficiently interested to consult the Clerk of the Court. There has been very little felony or serious crime. The greater part of the law breaking has consisted of petty offenses of the misdemeanor class, notably violations of the liquor laws.

As this is my last official communication which will be published, I take this occasion to thank the county officials and the police officers of the various towns for their generous aid on many occasions.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY N. HURD, Solicitor.

Next Mr. Sanders read the estimated financial needs for the next two years. He also stated the advantages to the county property if we would recommend the purchase of the Judkins farm situated about one and one half miles West, which contained a house, granary, two barns, about 300 acres of land and an estimated 1,000 cords of wood and quite a quantity of oak and chestnut lumber.

Questions and a discussion followed.

It was moved that the Commissioners be instructed to buy the Judkins farm for $2,100, and it was unanimously so voted.

It was moved by Mr. Davidson and seconded, and voted that the county raise and appropriate the sum of $45,200 for each of the years 1921 and 1922, the same amount as has been expended in each of the past two years. The estimated amounts for each department were as follows:

For County Officers	$1,500.00

He moved that the sum of $800 be raised and appropriated each year for the next two years, to continue and complete the indexing of those records. This was voted without opposition.

Mr. Hunter presented the interests of the Sullivan County Farm Bureau. He estimated that the expenses of the same would be some $700 in excess of the past two years, but thought the extra could be taken care of so that they would only ask for $4,000 each year, the same as previously raised. Mr. Wells gave the estimates on the various items of the budget asked for.

Mr. Nelson favored the appropriations. Mr. Putnam moved it and it was seconded that we raise and appropriate the sum of $4,000 for each of the years 1921 and 1922 for the County Farm Bureau, and it was so voted.

It was moved and unanimously voted, by a rising vote, that we express our thanks and appreciation, to both the County Commissioners, and the Superintendent of the Farm and his assistants, for their faithful services, and the good condition of the property and stock.

Mr. Wells suggested that we consider the subject of getting a valuable bull and then keep him as long as serviceable, unless we could cooperate to exchange him with one of another county, after a time, to the mutual benefit of both counties.
