Beginning January 1 until April 15, the Chamber is offering a reward to any Chamber member that refers another business that joins at the Chamber Associate Level ($350) or higher. Tickets to the event are $100 per person or $900 for a group of ten. As always, the Chamber anticipates this will be the networking event of the year with more than 1,000 people in attendance! So don't miss your chance for you and a friend to attend for free! For more information contact Membership Director Shawnda Misina at 792-4105 or via email at: membership@manchester-chamber.org.

CREWS TO CHAIR CHAMBER BOARD

With more than 20 years of experience in the automotive industry, Crews, who is originally from Georgia, moved to New Hampshire to join AutoFair in 2006. He sits on the board of several non-profit groups: CareGivers, Easter Seals Veteran's Count Club, and Manchester Dealers Charitable Foundation.

In addition to his charitable work, Andy serves on several business associated boards including the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce and the New Hampshire Automotive Dealers Association and is the Chairman of the New Hampshire Dealer Election Action Committee. Andy was honored as one of the Union Leader's 2009 "40 Under Forty."

Crews will serve a one year term as Board Chairman.

PECHAKUCHA BREAKFASTS CONTINUE IN 2012

"CHIT-CHAT" FORMAT A HIT WITH CHAMBER MEMBERS

In 2011 the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce adopted a new format for its breakfast forums called PechaKucha. The response from our members, event attendees and presenters has been overwhelmingly positive and the Chamber plans to continue with the PechaKucha format in 2012.

If you haven't yet attended one of these events, you might be wondering what is PechaKucha? PechaKucha (pronounced: pe-cha-ku-cha) is the Japanese term for the sound of "chit chat." PechaKucha was devised in Tokyo in February 2003 as an event for young designers to meet, network, and show their work in public.

PechaKucha rests on a presentation format that is based on a simple idea: 20 images x 20 seconds. It's a PowerPoint format that makes presentations concise and keeps things moving at a rapid pace. Also, the slides move on their own, so the person presenting must keep up with their slides and stay extremely focused. The presentations are also focused primarily on images, not text, so for the audience it is like listening to a story. Each presenter has only six minutes and 40 seconds to tell their story and then they are done. At the end the audience has a chance to interact and ask questions.

PechaKucha panelists at the arts, culture, tourism breakfast forum.

PechaKucha has turned into a massive celebration, with events happening in hundreds of cities around the globe, inspiring creatives worldwide. There are already events being held in Portsmouth, Boston, Portland, ME and Providence, RI. The Chamber had to apply for the licensing from Tokyo to host PechaKucha events in Manchester.

The way the Chamber uses this format is somewhat adapted from traditional PechaKucha Nights. The Chamber picks an overarching topic or theme and then selects presenters that can each present an aspect or piece of the chosen theme. Typically the events begin at 7:30 a.m. with breakfast and networking. There are six presenters who begin at 8 a.m. and go until 8:45 and then there is 15 minutes left at the end for questions and interaction with the audience.

In 2012, the Chamber will hold six of these events. Topics will include higher education, social media, healthcare, non-profits, small business tool-kit, and green issues. We hope to see you at the first PechaKucha in March. If you are interested in presenting at a PechaKucha event please contact programs@manchester-chamber.org.

ADVOCATING FOR YOUR BUSINESS

New year, new goals...

Happy New Year! As we begin the new year, we are in the final phase of developing our 2012 strategic plan that will outline our internal and external goals for the year. Writing the plan is the last piece of an extensive process that enables us to understand the members' and community's priorities. You have already been a critical piece of that process. More than 150 Chamber members completed a survey and responded thoughtfully to the questions. I've combed over the surveys many times, and am thankful to have such an engaged membership. The survey results were taken to the Board of Directors in November for a half-day retreat. The conversation at the retreat was animated and dynamic and consistent with members opinions and reflections. Our retreat session was facilitated by Deb Titus of Human Capitol Solutions. She did a remarkable job keeping an energized group of business leaders on track. Deb successfully captured our thoughts, hopes, visions, obstacles, challenges and opportunities.

The overwhelming opinion of those with whom I have had a conversation is that the Chamber should point itself in more substantive ways to the overall area of economic development. Many have suggested our work in the area of government affairs should be more focused at the local level. The opinions of many is that the Chamber should use our legislative work at a state level to first and foremost advance the local and regional agenda. All have agreed that the success of our Metro Center regional economic development is critical, and should be advanced in calculated and prudent ways that serve the region and therefore Manchester and the state too. I'd also like you to know that all goals that are established in the final draft of our strategic plan are from a revised awareness that this planning process highlighted, that the Chamber must be a strong advocate for a favorable business environment and climate so business can be sustained and grow to provide competitive jobs to build desirable communities.

The goals articulated by combining the surveys and retreat dialogs are that the Chamber should advocate for the following:

Sound Infrastructure

Aging infrastructure and dated systems need to be maintained and or new contemporary systems developed, to support business needs and interests and to ensure our communities are desirable locations to establish and sustain businesses and provide jobs.

Expanded Transportation Options

Specific transportation elements and systems will be supported by the Greater Manchester Chamber of Commerce such as (but not limited to): air, rail, bus, bike, walking paths and sidewalks.

Regional Economic Development

Through the Metro Center initiative, the Chamber will continue to develop and nurture productive and cooperative regional relationships while promoting a regional brand and identity through cooperative endeavors like regular meetings. Then development of a regional website and co-op ad campaigns, and other relevant selective, regional economic development programming including sustainable practices.

Destination Manchester

The Chamber will be a tireless advocate for a beautiful, thriving and vital downtown. Riverfront development, a convention center, art and culture, and other relevant and related tourism initiatives will be the focus. We will embark on endeavors that promote Manchester and its people as a desirable place to live, work, and play.

Improved Workforce Development

A skilled and well-prepared workforce is critical to a successful business environment and vital community. The Chamber will advocate for excellence in education and education systems.

In closing, with this article I am giving a glimpse of a draft and a strategic direction versus the end result. I hope you will reach out to me if you have thoughts you would like to share, and please let me know if you do or do not believe the direction I have outlined above is consistent with your priorities and expectations for YOUR Chamber of Commerce. I'll keep in touch with you as we move into fine-tuning the final document. Thank you so much for your support; 2012 will be a great year!

Citizens Bank and WMUR-TV/9 Enhance Champions In Action Program in Response to Economic Challenges Facing Local Nonprofits

Recognizing the specific difficulties that nonprofit organizations face in the current economic climate, Citizens Bank and WMUR-TV announced several enhancements to their signature Champions in Action® program. The initiative rewards nonprofit organizations championing change and providing essential programs and services in local communities. Citizens Bank is accepting nominations for the enhanced 2012 Champions in Action program, which will focus on two areas of social concern: youth initiatives and neighborhood development. Enhancements to the program include: an increase in financial support from the Citizens Charitable Foundation, from $25,000 to $35,000, an extension of the time period in which each Champion is honored from three months to six months, and the opportunity for the organization's executive director to participate in a president-to-president mentorship with Citizens Bank of New Hampshire President Joe Carelli. The ability for previously-honored organizations to re-apply after five years has lapsed.
