"Extracts from will of John Doe Taylor relating to expenditure of income of trust funds bequeathed the town of Sanbornton."

Item. I give and bequeath out of said money or property to the town of Sanbornton, New Hampshire, the sum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars upon the trust condition and limitation however to invest the same and keep the same invested upon good and safe securities, and to divide and set apart the annual income derived therefrom into three separate and distinct funds.

One of the said funds (being a third of said income) or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be applied annually to keeping the burying ground in the eastern part of said town in which my grandfather John Doe is buried together with its fences, gates, the graves, gravestones, and monuments of the Doe family in good repair and preservation. Any balance or surplus remaining after the proper care of said burying ground, shall be applied annually either to the purchase of books of reference, text books, maps or apparatus for the use of the public schools in said town or for prizes to the scholar making the greatest progress and proficiency in each of the several District Schools of said town as the Selectman and Superintendent of Schools may determine.

One of said funds (being a third of said income) shall be annually applied and used either to assist two of the most needy and deserving of the scholars attending or graduating from the Public Schools of said Town in obtaining a good academical education, or to fit and prepare them for taking the course of studies at the State Agricultural College.

One of the said funds (being the remaining third of said income) shall be annually applied and used for the education of two of the most needy and deserving boys graduating from the public schools of said Town, who will attend the two-year course in the New Hampshire Agricultural College and who will likewise pledge themselves to practice or teach agriculture or horticulture in the town of Sanbornton for at least five years next succeeding their graduation from said college.

The selection of said two scholars in case in any year there should be more than two applicants, is to be determined by competitive examinations; otherwise they shall be nominated and selected by the Selectman and Superintendent of Schools of said town.

SCHOOL REPORT.

For the Year Ending August 31, 1919.

Our schools, six in number, were in session thirty weeks with the exception of the New State school, which had twenty-nine, and it was thought best to reopen the Meadow school in the spring, which kept sixteen weeks.

During the fall of 1918 we were obliged to close our schools for three weeks, and in the case of New State it was four, on account of influenza, but we held our teachers on half pay which added to our expense, but seemed only fair.

The school year was divided into three terms, two in the fall, with a one-week vacation between, and one in the spring.

Owing to the small number of scholars on Calef Hill and at Gaza, and considering the scarcity of teachers, it was thought wise to convey the scholars to the Square and Chapel schools, respectively, which has worked satisfactorily to all concerned. The same was done in the case of Meadow, the pupils being conveyed to the Bay school during the fall terms. In several cases where the scholars lived beyond reasonable walking distance from the school, they have been carried.

It has been our aim during the past year to give, as far as possible, equal advantages to all scholars in town.

We have been very fortunate in securing the services of experienced teachers in every case, and some with a record of long successful service. In the attempt to keep the same in town we have felt justified in paying them more than previously.
The following teachers have been employed for the past year ending August 31, 1919:

Square—Clara E. Stanton, Claris H. Bodwell.
Hunkins—M. Pearl Colby.
Bay—Blanch Clark, Adelaide Griffin.
Chapel—Gertrude G. Bartlett.
New State—Ruth Clark, Flora B. Hodge.
North Sanbornton—Stella M. Thomas.
Meadow—Blanch Clark.

There were twelve students from our town attending high schools and academies.

We call attention to the following report, and urge each parent to take a more active interest in the welfare of our schools by visiting and by heartily co-operating with our teachers in their work with the coming citizens of our town.

Roll of Perfect Attendance.

Bay—Ella Woodman, Earle Wescome, Roy Wescome.
Hunkins—First term: Vera Louise Harvey. Second term: Vera Louise Harvey. Third term: Vera Louise Harvey.
