IONE M. NORCOTT, Librarian.

Annual Report of Lincoln Library Trustees 1937

184 new books have been placed in the library during 1937. Of these 90 are fiction; 56 are non-fiction and 38 are Juveniles. In the choice of fiction we have tried to maintain a balance between light fiction and novels of a more serious nature, including historical novels.

The 56 books of non-fiction include works based on History, Travel, Economics, Sociology, Science and Biography. A few plays and books of poems have been ordered.

The Juveniles have been chosen for boys and girls of all ages.

Subscriptions to the following magazines have been made: Time, Commentator, National Geographic, Readers' Digest, Consumer's Digest, Popular Mechanics, Good Housekeeping, Better Homes and Gardens, Woman's Home Companion, Child Life, American Boy, American Girl.

TOWN OF LINCOLN

In addition to the purchase of the above books, the librarian's salary has been paid, membership in the Junior Literary Guild has been maintained and heat and light have been provided for the library.

The total number of books and magazines circulated for the year was 8,990.

As usual people have been most generous with their donations of books and magazines for which the trustees wish to express their thanks and appreciation. Books were presented by Mrs. Martin Brown and Mrs. Katherine S. Henry. Magazines for the Reading Table were presented by Mrs. Katherine Henry, Miss Blanche Haley, Mrs. Roland Lane and Mrs. William Herrick.

From the librarian's fund obtained from fines, necessary library supplies have been purchased, a new rack for periodicals has been installed and a magazine index system has been introduced enabling the librarian to give better service in locating articles from back numbers in our magazines.

The floor has been refinished and this month we expect to have all the furniture varnished.

The trustees welcome any helpful suggestions, both as to the selection of new books and the conduct of the library.
