Annual Report of Lincoln Library Trustees
February 1, 1940

During 1939 approximately 150 books have been added to the library. The Trustees have tried to maintain a happy medium in selecting books which will meet the needs and interests of the greatest number of people. They are always glad to receive suggestions in regard to worthwhile books.

The magazine subscriptions have been maintained and the insurance has been paid in advance for a three year period.

TOWN OF LINCOLN

Through the co-operation of the N. Y. A. several improvements to the library have been made. The building has been stained and the lawn graded.

Mrs. C. W. Stewart has been appointed as trustee to fill the vacancy due to Mr. Austin McCaffrey's resignation.
