REPORT OF HIGHWAY AGENT

The year of 1950 was a very busy one for the highway department. The open winter of '49 and '50 caused considerable damage by frost heaving, such as: breaking up of the surface mat on the tarred roads, heaving of culverts to the extent that some had to be relaid, creating extreme muddy conditions on the gravel roads. This required many tons of cold patch, yards of gravel, grading and shaping before we could begin the regular summer maintenance.

We also assisted citizens and other departments with our equipment.

The heavy winds and rains of November caused flood conditions. Although work was carried on late in December, we hadn't the time to completely repair the damage.

The following is a summary of our activities.

Unit	Summer Maintenance	Wind and Flood	Total Expenditures

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF CEMETERY—1950

This year the trees at the far east part of the cemetery were trimmed and the decayed trees cut down, the walls straightened up and head stones and curbins were straightened up, there are a few more of the burial lots to be filled the coming year. With the high winds that we have had during the season, blew down a lot of dead limbs from the maple trees, some are quite old and decayed, and before many years will have to be removed in different parts of the cemetery. Quite a few new lots have been laid out during the season.

There were 186 memorials straightened up during the season, a lot of the memorials have no solid foundation and move around during the winter freezing of the ground. The entrance wall path at the present tomb is in bad shape, the wall and granite slabs are in poor condition. The cemetery would look much neater if the town would remove the tomb and relay the wall around the curve, as the tomb has not been in use for years.

NED M. PIERCE,
Superintendent.

This is to certify that we have examined the books, vouchers, bank statements and other financial records of the Town of Dublin, N. H., of which the above is a true summary for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1950 and find them to be correctly cast and properly vouched.

Town Auditors.

REPORT OF THE BI-CENTENNIAL COMMITTEE

Last summer your Committee purchased seven Markers from the Sewah Studio's, Marietta, Ohio, for deserving historical spots in Dublin.

Their material is of cast aluminum, with dark green background, upon which is a 30 to 35 word inscription in raised aluminum letters upon both sides. Placed at the top is the Seal of the State of New Hampshire, made especially for the town of Dublin. Cement standards with aluminum jacketing support the sign.

Two and three hundred year Centennials are being held throughout New England in towns and cities. In Massachusetts, celebrations lasting two or three weeks have been observed. New Ipswich and Salem, New Hampshire, held Bi-Centennials last summer.

Dublin's first and only Centennial took place on Tuesday, June 17th, 1852. At its conclusion the meeting voted to adjourn for one hundred years. Those hundred years will have elapsed on Tuesday, June 17th, of next year.

Comparatively few residents have the opportunity of attending such an occasion in their own home town, due to the fact, of course, that these events occur only at hundred year intervals.

Next year, 1952, will be the last and only opportunity the present generation ever have had or ever will have to attend a Dublin hundred year Centennial. We shall hope to announce a definite program in next year's annual town report.

Charles R. Keady	Prin. Gr. 7-8	$2,850 00	18

A. T. Coogan, Sr.	Music, all grades	417 00
Robert L. Filbin	Art, all grades	342 00
	Total enrollment		81

No changes in the teaching staff occurred during the school year, but two of the regular teachers did not return for the current year: Mr. Casey and Mrs. Doyle. Mr. Clyde J. Lavine of Keene, and a graduate of Keene Teachers College in 1950 took Mr. Casey's place as teacher in the fifth and sixth grade room. Mrs. Doyle's place was taken by Mrs. Eleanor H. Nelson of Gilmanton Iron Works who graduated from Plymouth Teachers College in 1937. She had previously taught in her home town.

Mr. Keady and Mrs. Blomgren sought professional improvement by attending summer schools during the past summer: Mr. Keady at Boston University and Mrs. Blomgren at the Keene Teachers College Extension Course in Peterborough.

B. Program and Methods

Again this year all teachers and school nurses in the Supervisory Union spent a full week (November 6-10) of hard work at a workshop planned jointly by the teachers and superintendent. This year two subjects were studied: (a) the unit method of instruction in the elementary school and (b) guidance in the secondary school. Again the workshop was staffed by the Harvard-Boston University extension service. These workshops are proving to be exceedingly helpful to all participants in their search for better understanding of children and better ways of guiding them toward happy, integrated wholesome living.

PART III. SCHOOL PLANT

Again it is exceedingly gratifying to be able to report further improvement in the school facilities. During the past year three major items have received attention: (1) fluorescent lighting in the three classrooms needing it; (2) automatic time and signal system throughout the building and (3) restaurant type gas range for the school lunch program.

Matters that need to be considered as soon as possible are:

- (1) Improved sewage disposal system.
- (2) Replacement of unhygienic pupils seats and desks.
- (3) Replacement of workout window shades.
- (4) Redecoration of three classrooms and the corridors.

In any plan for continued improvement of the school plant, the following items should receive attention :

(1) Covering of the cafeteria floor with some suitable floor covering material such as asphalt or rubber tile.

(2) As the present folding tables in the cafeteria wear out, gradual replacement with more durable type tables.

IV D. REPORT OF DISTRICT CLERK

The first school meeting since the adoption of the non-partisan system of voting was held March 14, 1950 at the Town Hall. Before the polls opened at 9 a. m., Winnie Leonard, Harvey Hayes, Jr., Bernice Hyman, and Elliott Allison were sworn in as ballot clerks.

Moderator Arne H. Olsen read the warrant at 9:10 a. m. Articles 1 through 4 were taken care of by the official ballots.

The meeting was called to order by the moderator at 2 p. m.

Under Article 5, it was unanimously voted that the salaries of the school district officers for the ensuing year be as follows:

Chairman of the school board	$100 00
Each other member of school board	75 00
Treasurer	50 00
Moderator	10 00

Under Article 6, it was voted that the reports on Pages 58 and 59, 66 through 69, 70 and 71, and 76 through 78 of the Annual Report be accepted and adopted as printed.

Article 7 was passed over.

Article 8 brought much discussion of the school hot lunch program, after which an informal vote was taken, which showed that the majority favored the retention of the Federal School Lunch Program. A motion was withdrawn which sought to amend the budget by increasing the amount appropriated for the school lunches, in case the Federal School Lunch Program is abandoned.

It was voted that the school district raise and appropriate $32,669.00 and to authorize and direct the school board to apply against such appropriation such income as is estimated by the school board exclusive of state aid, and upon the determination of the amount of state aid to be received by the school district during the next fiscal year, to authorize and direct the school board to apply such appropriation the sum to be received from state aid and with the school district clerk certify to the selectmen the balance as an assessment to be raised by the town for school purposes.

At 3:20 it was voted to dispense with all other business, except balloting.

PART VI. SPECIAL ACTIVITIESA. Nurse's Report

The following is the report of the routine Health work carried on by the Medical Inspectors, Dr. Donald Clark, 1949-1950, and Dr. Mahlon Mason, 1950-1951, assisted by the school nurse. The program consists of physical examination, weighing and measuring, vision and hearing tests and general inspections for all students. The registration of pre-schoolers takes place in the spring. Parents or representatives are present at that time. A Health record is on file for each student.

Students having symptoms of communicable diseases are excluded from school in compliance with the regulations of the State Board of Health. Home visits by the school nurse are made when necessary. The First Aid cabinet is checked frequently. Visits are made to schools at regular intervals to the Dublin Consolidated school.

Corrections of defects are made through Dental Clinics, conducted by Dr. C. Temple Laurence at his office, dental corrections and treatments by own dentists, tonsillectomies by own surgeons, eye clinics by Dr. Leroy Ford of Keene, N. H., and vision corrections by own specialists. Arrangements for the Tuberculin Patch test and Chest X-rays for 1951 have been made with Mrs. Mildred Aiken, R. N., of the County Tuberculosis Association.

This department would like to call to your attention an article in the N. H. Educator by Dr. Mary Atchison of the State Board of Health, recommending further facilities—which would enable children to be helped with speech difficulties, visual and hearing defects and a vital and dynamic program for dental care in rural communities.

The Medical Inspection Department wishes to express its appreciation to the local American Red Cross for sponsoring the Dental Clinics and the Sight Conservation Consultant of the Department of Public Welfare for assisting with necessary eye corrections, the N. H. Tuberculosis Association, Co. The nurse and Chest X-ray technician for their part of the program and to thank the parents for their cooperation, the Superintendent of Schools, Board of Education, Principal and teachers, Dentists and Doctors and all who assisted in any way in conserving the health of the children of the Dublin Consolidated school.

B.

The school board and superintendent are appreciative of what Mr. and Mrs. William Barry have done and are doing for the children of Dublin in developing and carrying on an out-of-school program of basketball and other related activities.

C. Report of the Cooperative School Study Committee

At their annual school district meeting in March, 1950, several towns in the Monadnock Region authorized committees to study the cooperative school situation in conjunction with representatives of other towns. A few towns did not take an official vote but left the appointment of their committees to their school boards. Some towns have had committees of several years standing to study this question.

The first joint meeting of these committees was held at the Jaffrey High School on May 23, 1950. Twenty-six citizens were present representing the towns of Jaffrey, Troy, Marlboro, Dublin, Fitzwilliam, Harrisville and Rindge. A smaller, more workable committee, designated as the Monadnock Regional Cooperative School Study Committee, was subsequently formed, representing all the above towns. Supplementing this citizens committee, Superintendents of Schools Lester B. Badger and Charles L. Bowlby, and Jaffrey Headmaster Robert Lewis have given freely of their time and counsel, which is much appreciated by the committee. Representatives of the State Department of Education have been present at many of our meetings to provide needed guidance and clarification of state policy.

Philip M. Darling of Jaffrey was originally elected chairman of the study committee, being obliged to resign this position on January 1, 1951, due to personal reasons which made it impossible to attend regular meetings. Dr. Samuel E. Paul of Troy was elected to succeed him.

First, let us review briefly the educational problems that face the three towns involved now maintaining separate high schools.

Jaffrey—is confronted with a substantial increase in enrollment and a building that is obsolete, undersized and in need of major repairs.

Troy—has had a 35% increase in school enrollment in the past five years and is expecting an additional 20% increase in the next five years. In September, 1951, two sessions will be necessary to take care of the pupils. An independent building program is under consideration.

Marlboro—has a fundamental problem in its obsolete building for its high school.

Common to all three of the above towns is the problem of operating high schools too small in enrollment. These schools are not big enough to offer a well-rounded program of study. The programs they do offer generally cost more per pupil than comparable programs in larger schools. They have too few teachers to offer the type of curriculum demanded by the complex society faced by today's youth. Their teachers are doing a fine piece of work but are seriously handicapped by the diversity of subjects they must offer. They have to be "Jacks-of-all-trades." Teachers in a larger educational unit would specialize in their chosen subjects and reach maximum effectiveness in instructing our youth. The curriculum in the small high school is generally designed for that small percentage of students who go on to college. The large majority of the students would benefit from the larger school because it would offer a program that better meets its needs.

Included in this program would be such additions as the following which are not now offered in our existing schools:

PHYSICAL EDUCATION—Both men and women teachers would develop a well-rounded physical education program for boys and girls. New equipment would encourage more participation and scholastic and interscholastic teams of high caliber can be developed. Emphasis will be placed upon the proper physical education for girls by qualified women instructors.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS—Metal working, electricity, auto mechanics could be added to our present woodworking courses.

MECHANICAL DRAWING.

SEPARATE LABORATORIES FOR SCIENCE COURSES.

FIELD TRIPS IN ALL COURSES.

BROADER LANGUAGE PROGRAM—to include Spanish and possibly German.

PHYSIOLOGY AND FIRST AID.

BUSINESS LAW.

AERONAUTICS.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND SPEECH.

AGRICULTURE — An approved course in agriculture would be offered. Services of the instructor would be available for home projects, field trips and Future Farmer work. A well-equipped agricultural shop is planned.

GUIDANCE—Because modern schools seriously study the adjustment and aptitudes of pupils with the intention of developing their abilities to the utmost, there will be ample work for the guidance counselors. They will help the pupils to decide what courses fit their abilities and needs and the opportunities open in the field of their chosen endeavor.

The larger unit made possible by the cooperative would provide a greater incentive to work due to the competition among a larger student body. Also the opportunities for wider companionships and “learning to get along with the other fellow” are valuable assets.

In addition to the regular curriculum of study, the large gymnasium-auditorium would give every student a chance to participate in a physical education program which would include basketball, football, baseball, track and gymnastics.

Every student could belong to some sort of club or activity such as camera, singing, orchestra, band, or dramatics.

Even the adults would benefit from the gymnasium-auditorium and other facilities as the school should be considered as a huge community assembly hall and its full value will be realized when it is used as such. Not to be overlooked are the opportunities for extension courses to be offered adults in helping them improve their station in life and open up new horizons of interest in arts, crafts, and hobbies.

In order to get this school we find an absolute minimum necessary. This minimum means the towns of Jaffrey, Troy and Marlboro. If these three towns agree to cooperate, the school is possible both from a financial point of view and from the creation of a sizeable student body. The other towns in this area, if added to this minimum, will offer a still broader financial base to support building costs, and will find, to their advantage, that they have an active voting interest, ownership, and control in a most desirable educational plant that will provide the best training and education for their children.

The towns of Fitzwilliam, Rindge, Harrisville, and Dublin presently send their high school students outside their towns on a tuition basis. The curriculum offered in the proposed cooperative will be at least the equal of other large schools in the area. In addition, the pupils will have full participation in extra-curricular activities. The towns will have a voice in the policy-making and operation of the cooperative, thus making for better supervision of their own children. The pupils will have the feeling of belonging to this organization rather than being "outsiders."

The cooperative plan needs much thought as your committee has been amazed at the many factors involved in a cooperation of the sort, it being entirely new to New Hampshire. However, the advantages of cooperative effort are very great and we feel they are well worth the time we have put into this study in order to bring you this report.

Fundamentally, the youth in our several towns should have an opportunity for an education that is equal to other more populated areas in this state and nation, so that in the years ahead they may be able to compete with others on an equal basis. This objective cannot be reached by the small town by itself, but it can be attained by these towns if they pool their resources for their mutual advantage.

Many of the details of this cooperative are yet to be worked out. For example, whether the towns should cooperate on the secondary level only, or should consolidate their entire school systems, maintaining their separate elementary units but bringing them all under one administrative unit. There are also certain legislative changes that could materially affect the situation.

Your committee feels so strongly about the educational advantages that could derive to the towns involved that it is preparing to ask for funds at your annual school district meetings in March of this year to insure the continuation of this cooperative school study committee and enable it to enlist outside professional assistance, make necessary detailed building studies, make land surveys, etc., and publish the pertinent facts and figures so that each town will have the proper background information to reach a wise decision.

Are the citizens in these towns farsighted enough to see this study through to the best conclusion? The answer is up to you.

BUILDING COSTS

The estimated cost as of January, 1951, of a 600 student school has been placed at $600,000.00 which would serve Jaffrey, Troy and Marlboro; a 900 student school has been placed at $800,000.00 which would serve the seven towns listed.

By state legislation, building costs of a cooperative school are shared by the participating districts according to equalized valuation.

The committee feels that there is public interest in a so-called Monadnock Region High School sufficient to make it a definite possibility that public spirited citizens and industries would contribute perhaps up to $200,000.00 to bring into being a superior educational plant for the youth of the region. Therefore, two columns of costs figures are shown below, one for a $600,000.00 capital investment by the towns and one for $800,000.00.

Town Clerk.

THE DUBLIN "FURNACE" CASE

The overworked, inadequate hot water system which has been used to heat the fire engine room and Selectmen's rooms in the Town Hall ceased to function last September. It was apparent that unless a new and larger boiler was installed, costly repair bills would not only continue, but the service would remain unsatisfactory.

At about this time the Selectmen received word from the New Hampshire Civil Defense Administration stating that a well heated, large hall in Dublin for a Civil Defense Center was a "must" in order to fully cooperate in National Civil Defense plans.

With the National Defense Act in effect and restrictions on the purchase of plumbing and heating items appearing daily, with consequent shortages and rising prices, some sort of immediate action seemed imperative.

The old hot air furnace which heated the upstairs hall had never been satisfactory and during the previous March meeting it did not heat the hall until afternoon. There is a state law which requires the Selectmen to furnish a warm meeting place for Town Meetings.

It seemed prudent and wise for the best interests of the town, and it was the unanimous opinion of the Board of Selectmen, that instead of spending more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for the repair of the old hot water burner, that a new central heating system be installed which would provide adequate heat for the fire engine room, the Selectmen's Rooms, the Town Clerk's office, the Civil Defense Center, and the upstairs Meeting Hall. We received an estimate of less than three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) for this work, the contract was let, and the work had been two-thirds finished by November 7th, Biennial Election Day, at which time an article was placed in the warrant authorizing the Selectmen to borrow the money to pay for this work. Before letting the contract, the Selectmen talked with more than thirty townspeople with regard to the advisability of proceeding immediately, and no one raised any objections.

On November 7th, the article was carried, "Yes" 47, "No" 11.

On November 13th, the Selectmen were served with a Superior Court restraining order which forbade completion of the installation. This order was issued as a result of legal proceedings brought by "46" Dublin residents. On November 22nd, two more Dublin residents joined these petitioners. The "46" based most of their allegations on the contention that the November 7th meeting had been called as a "Special Meeting" by the Selectmen, and that since the legal requirements of a "Special Meeting" had not been complied with, the action taken was illegal. The "2" further contended that the wording of the November 7th warrant was such that someone might have understood that balloting on the furnace article would go on from 9 to 5 rather than between 10:00 and 10:30 a. m. when it actually took place. As these two petitions were not argued separately before the Master, it was perhaps a little difficult for some to understand what evidence introduced was irrelevant and what was not.

In any event, the Master upheld the good faith of the Selectmen. He stated in effect that this had not been called as a "Special Meeting," that opportunity for discussion was given, and that no one had objected to anything at the time of the meeting. The Master stated that no evidence was introduced which indicated that anyone had actually complained of having been deprived of a vote. Nevertheless, the Master agreed with the "2" petitioners, that somebody might have been disenfranchised, and continued the restraining order. Superior Court Justice Wescott on February 3, 1951, issued a decree which upheld the Master's findings although it modified the report to allow certain fire safeguards required by the State Fire Marshall. This decree rendered the vote taken on the furnace article in the November 7th Warrant null and void. For this reason a new article appears in the Warrant for the March 13th Annual Meeting, and this article will be discussed and voted upon at a time set by the Moderator when the Annual Meeting opens at 9 o'clock in the morning.

No provision has been made in this restraining order for heating the upstairs hall on Town Meeting Day beyond one blower already installed. Due to this restraining order, the Selectmen's rooms and the Town Clerk's office, remain without heat, as they have since November 13th. Owing to the unbalanced conditions of the furnace installation, fuel consumption has cost the town many hundreds of dollars over and above the amount it would have cost had the installation been completed. On January 26, 1951, by order of the Fire Chief, the burner was shut off because both Theodore Gunn of the New Hampshire Fire Underwriters Association and the Fire Marshal for the State of New Hampshire stated that without further protective safeguards, the heating system in its incompleated state created a dangerous fire hazard. This dangerous fire hazard had been brought to the attention of Judge Wescott by letter dated December 4, 1950, but the Attorney for the "46" petitioners had foiled the attempts of the Attorneys for the town in having these protective safeguards installed and finally on January 26, 1951, the Fire Marshal for the State of New Hampshire ordered these protective safeguards installed and the burner shut off until they were so installed.

The efficiency of all town officials in carrying out their official duties have been impeded by this action, and considerable legal expense has been incurred by the town. In all probability, due to the increased cost of materials, the completed job, if the voters approve the article at the town meeting, will cost more than the original estimate.

The Master's Report was filed on December 14, 1950, but the Attorneys for the petitioners requested Additional Findings of Fact and it was not until February 3rd that any decree was handed down. The Selectmen were advised by their counsel that any special meeting called within sixty days of the Annual Meeting would be of questioned legality, and for that reason no special meeting was called after February 3, 1951, and no special meeting could have been called before February 3, 1951, because until that date the Selectmen did not know what decree would be handed down by Judge Wescott.

Your Selectmen have had no easy task these past few years keeping down the expenses of the town. The inflationary spiral has affected town expenses as it has everyone's personal expenses. We are not proud of the fact that town wages are less than in most neighboring towns. We are proud of the fact that the Dublin tax rate and valuation is one of the lowest in the state. Your Board of Selectmen regrets very much that a small minority of Dublin voters have caused this needless expense to the Town, and the inconvenience and hardship to the Selectmen in carrying out their official duties.

Your Board of Selectmen in no way countenances or approves the possible disenfranchisement of any voter. On the contrary, they regret that inadvertently the warrant in the Biennial Election was open to any possible misconstruction. If the method taken by the petitioners, and the ensuing expense and hardship caused to the town and its elected officials, was the only way in which this possible disenfranchisement could have been cured, the Selectmen would be the first to agree that no one could have any cause for regret for the action taken. But your Selectmen state that there has been no disposition on the part of the "46" or the "2" petitioners to modify the terms of the restraining order except when so ordered by the State Fire Marshal and that for the welfare of the town, if for no other reason, the "46" and "2" petitioners should have been willing to see that the town had the proper fire protection to which it was entitled.

Owing to this restraining order and decree, an innocent third party, Vernon E. Walker, who took on the contract for the installation of the burner in good faith, has not been paid for materials ordered and at hand for completion of the job.
