FIRE DEPARTMENT REPORT

The Pittsburg Fire Department held regular monthly meetings in 1977, as well as training sessions and schools. Nine men attended 12 days of fire schools for a total of 258 hours of classes. An inspection of the school and town hall was made with the Fire Marshal's office, and all fire safety standards were up to date.

This year the men of the Department have donated to the Town a total of 803 hours of labor, 411 hours on trucks and around the station, 199 hours on the new town garage, and 193 hours on the new water line.

The Fire Department is grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robie for the generous donation of a spring-fed pond on Dalton Road that has provided a source of water for fire in an otherwise dry area. A line has been run 1200 feet down to the road and an excellent water supply is now available to us.

We would like to take this opportunity to remind people to be sure to have a smoke detector and fire extinguisher in their home. Also, we would like to thank everyone who helped us on our annual equipment raffle.

Following is a comparison of alarms answered in 1976 and 1977:

Purpose of Call	1976	1977
Vehicle Fire .....	2	2
Structural Fire .....	2	1
Chimney Fire .....	8	7
Other .....	3	1
Total Calls .....	15	11

I would like to thank every man in the department for a job well done; you are each a credit to the community.

Pittsburg Fire Department
Carl T. Carlson, Chief

POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT

During the year 1977 the Pittsburg Police Department received 214 calls through the Colebrook Communications Center, 171 radio calls from State Police Troop F, and 228 telephone calls at home, making a total of 613 communications from the public and other law enforcement agencies. There were 51 automobile accidents, 7 breaking-and-enterings, and 5 thefts in Pittsburg. The Department prosecuted 21 motor vehicle cases during the year and gave out 111 warnings.

We were asked to assist the N.H. Fish and Game, State Police, U.S. Border and Customs Patrol, and police calls in the towns of Colebrook, Stewartstown, and Clarksville.

At this time I would like to thank everyone in the Town of Pittsburg for their help and cooperation in 1977, and hope that we can all work together in the coming year.

Pittsburg Ambulance Service

ANNUAL REPORT

During the calendar year of 1977, the Pittsburg Ambulance Service improved their Corps by adding seven new members.

The Pittsburg Ambulance was called out on 73 runs during 1977, 43 of them being emergency runs and 30 were transfers to other medical facilities.

At the present time there is an EMT-A Course being given in Colebrook, in which members of our Corps are enrolled. This is a 110-hour course. The attendants that are currently EMT-A's will be enrolling in a refresher course in May.

Each year everyone has to take the CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation) 9-hr. course, which is held each May. During 1977 the course was extended to members of the Ethan Allen Factory.

In cooperation with the Northern Coos County Health Services, and Community Action Program we are sponsoring a Blood Pressure, Blood Sugar, and Hemoglobin Screening Clinic. The Blood Pressure is held monthly, the others are periodically. We're very pleased with the response we have had.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone for your support and remember we are at your service.

Respectfully submitted,
Madelene Judd, President

Report of District Fire Chief and Town Forest Fire Warden

Forest fire control in New Hampshire is a joint state and town/city responsibility (RSA 224).

The Director, Division of Forest and Lands (State Forester) appoints a forest fire warden and several deputy forest fire wardens in each town/city upon the recommendation of local authorities.

The local forest fire warden is responsible for forest fire prevention and suppression activities in his town. He regulates the kindling of outside fires when the ground is not covered with snow by the issuance of written permits only when conditions are safe. He is responsible for suppression with the town/city and state sharing the cost. Suppression costs in excess of ¼ of 1% of the assessed valuation of the town are assumed by the state.

The state provides training for the local fire organization and helps coordinate activities between towns/cities. The state also supports local forces with backup personnel, equipment, and supplies for suppression and prevention.

This combination of state and local cooperation, started in 1893, works well, for New Hampshire has enjoyed one of the smallest acreage losses due to forest fires in the United States for the past 25 years.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Much has been said over the years on the slow but steady erosion of local control in government and education and the increased financial burden placed on taxpayers as a result of that process. Unfortunately, the trend appears to be continuing under the auspices of federal agencies.

Originally introduced to assist local school districts and state education agencies in stimulating and improving their educational programs, federal guidelines, recommendations, and the monies attached thereto were received to a point where reliance on such monies is now almost commonplace. Alarming, however, federal guidelines and recommendations are now rapidly changing to mandates and regulations imposed on state and local agencies with an ever increasing demand on local tax dollars. In addition, compliance is now, and will be, demanded in areas both in and outside the classroom. Mandates in areas such as athletics, school lunch programs, buildings, unemployment benefits, career education, youth unemployment, student rights, vocational education programs, elimination of racial, sexual and physical discrimination practices, bilingual programs, and handicapped programs will, and must be, implemented by law with the major financial responsibility being placed on local governments. Failure to comply with any or all such mandates and regulations can well result in loss of all federal funds by state and local agencies as well as costly lawsuits. Recent education legislation passed by the New Hampshire General Court was done so as not to jeopardize federal funding.

Should the trend continue, of uppermost concern is the availability of local funds to carry out such mandates and regulations without becoming totally reliant on federal monies. Yet the controversy continues and pressure to prevent an additional financial burden is exerted on local and state agencies. Perhaps the most compelling example which will directly affect local school districts is the current controversy of unemployment benefits for all public employees.

Since 1975 state and local public employees have been provided unemployment coverage under a special federal program which expired in 1977. Now, under the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1976, states are required to enact a federally approved plan for financing jobless benefits. The costs of such a plan will be borne by local governmental agencies. "If states do not enact legislation to conform with the law, federal funds to assist the administration of state unemployment programs will be cut off. In addition, the federal government will no longer pick up its share of extended jobless benefits during periods of extremely high unemployment." The implications are indeed far reaching for all school districts in a time of declining school enrollments and uncontrollable rising costs for providing a public education and maintaining public school facilities.

Should the trend of government mandates and regulations continue, at stake is the ultimate issue of who will control the public education process, what will be taught, how and where it will be taught, who will participate, and by whom it will be taught. Local and state educational agencies may well have the issue decided for them by "1984."

My appreciation and compliments are extended to the School Board members in Supervisory Union No. 7 who, in serving in this public office, must wrestle with these issues from a personal, public and moral point of view. Their dedication to this duty is to be commended and they are indeed deserving and in need of your support.

My thanks are also extended to the citizens of the local school communities and to all the local school staffs who have contributed their own personal efforts to maintaining a high standard of education. I am pleased to state that in spite of the many additional burdens placed on classroom teachers as a result of federal mandates, the ultimate process of education—teaching and learning—is still taking place in the classroom. For this, all teachers are to be commended.

Following is a summation of some current federal issues and mandates that presently or will shortly affect local school districts. It is presented as general information for local citizens.

Title IX:

The commission requires that local school districts submit information on the number of sports they offer, their budgets allocated to each sport, equipment and facilities provided, and practice time and travel allowances available for each sex in order for the commission to determine if a discriminatory practice exists or compliance has been met.

Public Law 94-482:

Requires an investigation by an education commission into all vocational education programs offered by a school district to determine the extent to which sex discrimination and stereotyping exist in those programs and in the occupations for which such programs prepare students. The investigation will include textbooks, admission strategies, guidance and instructional techniques, and placement of students in vocational or related programs. (The Colebrook School District will undergo such an investigation in March, 1978.)

Public Law 95-116: "School Lunch Programs"

Extends and revises commodity distribution and non-food assistance under the national school lunch program. Major provisions include a required child nutrition education program in school districts based on 50¢ per child, a reduction of the present milk program, and allowance for the Department of Agriculture to regulate the sale of competitive (snack) foods during the school lunch period.

Public Law 95-40:

Allows state educational agencies and local school districts to spend federal money for administration of vocational education programs if matched 50 percent.

Public Law 95-93:

Creates a variety of job and training programs including work-experience programs for in-school youth and experimental work programs during the school year and summer for low-income youths agreeing to stay in or return to school.

Proposed HR95-74:

Provides federal financial assistance to states and local school districts for establishment of basic education proficiency standards in accordance with national guidelines.

Public Law 94-142:

State and local education agencies will provide a free and appropriate public education for all handicapped youngsters age birth through age 21 (modified by the N.H. Legislature to age 3 through 21). Included are emotional, physical and mental handicaps.

Public Law 580:

States that all existing public buildings not conforming to new physical handicap regulations will be modified no later than 1980 to accomodate any physically handicapped person.

Respectfully submitted,
Stephen E. Dehl
Superintendent of Schools

Guidance Counselor's Report

There appears to have been four areas of major concern to the Guidance Department this past year. They were Career or Vocational Education; Special or Education for the Handicapped; Sexual Discrimination; and Regional Problems: Their Solutions Through Cooperative Efforts.

Having begun Career Education programs in the eighth grades in all schools, plans are now underway to expand the program into the middle and primary grades. The teaching of Career Educations has been to some degree mandated by both the State and Federal Governments. Because of this, the Guidance Counselor finds one of his new functions is the coordination of career information and supplies between the various schools within the district. This year, following a request by the Stewartstown School Board, exposure to the world of work through the medium of film was begun in both elementary schools for grades five through eight. The major problem appears to be one of limited films available in the northern part of the State dealing with careers or vocations. It is hoped that through a Federal Grant applied for under Title IV the District might begin to develop a video film library of its own which would contain in its files video tapes of those occupations both familiar and foreign to the area.

Special Education has fast become a concern, mandated by State law, to which the local District will have to address itself. Here again the Guidance Counselor finds himself heavily involved in the functions of identification coding, entering into the school system, and planning of individual programs for all those students having handicaps.

The State also has instructed all personnel dealing with enrollment of students and school programs to make sure that all sex bias or reference to sex stereotypes be removed. The school must make sure that all students have equal access and information to all programs offered or vocations described.

Finally, the Principals and Guidance Personnel from North Stratford, Canaan, and Supervisory Union No. 7 have begun to have regularly scheduled area meetings to discuss problems common to all schools and to share with each other their information and possible solutions. Currently under discussion are the problems of drop-outs, alcohol and drugs, the student and the courts, and curriculum revision.

Respectfully submitted,

Oliver B. Martins
Guidance Counselor
Supervisory Union No. 7

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT

The school health program had the same objective as in the past: namely, to strengthen the educational process of students by promoting and maintaining good health. A child who is not physically fit may be deprived full benefit of the many opportunities offered. The success of this year's program was possible only through the combined efforts of school, home and community.

The usual yearly services were performed with the exception of:

1. This year the Matching Dental Program sponsored by the State of N.H. was not available to students due to lack of funding at the local level.
2. T.B. skin testing was done for new students and grade 11 only, thereby eliminating grades 4-8 as recommended by the N.H. Division of Public Health Services.

New services provided were as follows:

1. An extensive program of dental education and care including fluoride rinsing was started this year for grades 1-6 in Pittsburg and grades 1-8 in Stewartstown provided by the N.H. Dental Bureau.
2. The N.H. Division of Public Health Services is requiring all school nurses to submit an inclusive list of immunizations on each individual student enrolled in school. This has been an extensive project requiring full cooperation from parents.

It is mandatory that each pupil meet the following standards set by the State of N.H. in order to attend school:

1. Complete diphtheria, pertussis, and tetanus vaccine series.
2. Complete oral polio vaccine series.
3. Rubella vaccine (measles) or verification of having had the disease.
4. Rubella vaccine (German measles).

The same standards as above apply for pre-schoolers with the following additions:

1. T.B. test prior to school entrance.
2. Pre-school physical.
3. Mumps vaccine.

All parents are urged to take advantage of the pre-school clinics available in this area to prepare their youngsters for entering school.

Each year we strive to improve the health program. Thank you for your cooperation in helping us meet our goal.

Respectfully submitted,

Constance J. Pierce, R.N.
School Nurse

Title I ESEA

The Pittsburg-Clarksville Title I program is a federally funded project designed to provide special help for children in the following areas: (1) remedial reading in grades one through three; (2) a pre-school program that provides (a) reading readiness, (b) pre-school math skills, and (c) early development of social skills.

Eligibility for the program is determined by test results. These tests are given in the fall and spring. A national standardized test is used.

The Title I teacher-aide meets with designated children in grades one through three for special help in reading for an hour with each grade group each school day. At that time the lesson, previously taught by the classroom teacher, is reinforced. Stress is put on phonics, comprehension and vocabulary. Correct usage of the English language is emphasized in all learning situations.

The teacher-aide spends each afternoon of the school day in individual homes with pre-school children, where the pre-school skills are taught. Activities are designed to help pre-schoolers develop confidence, social skills and self-discipline. The children learn to correctly use school materials. They are encouraged to become interested in books. Stories are read to them. There are group meetings for pre-schoolers twice each week in the Title I room at the Pittsburg Town Hall. Enrichment activities using tapes, film strips, records and dramatizations are presented. Field trips are planned for the spring. Parents are urged to become involved in the project. Their cooperation to date has been much appreciated. The Parent Council has been very active and extremely helpful.

It is hoped and believed that the extra help provided by Title I will ensure that those children who qualify will benefit from reinforcement of those skills necessary to become a successful reader.

I wish to thank the Parent Council, all Title I parents, the principal, the elementary teachers of grades one through three, and our teacher-aide, Miss Elaine Kinney, for helping make the program a success.

Respectfully submitted,

Kate Lord, Project Manager
Title I E.S.E.A. Program

Reading Is Fundamental Program

Reading Is Fundamental, or RIF, is a program that has been started for Pittsburg and Clarksville by a few interested people, among them our Superintendent, Mr. Dehl; one School Board member, Mr. Schanz; and especially the school Librarian, Miss Wing.

What is Reading Is Fundamental? Basically, it is a program about books - getting books into the hands of children; and giving children the chance to have them for their own. RIF distributes books to kids 3 through 18 years of age; 3 times a year a kid gets to pick a book, and keep it for his own.

RIF believes this freedom of choice, and the pride of ownership that goes along with it, are two keys to making reading an enjoyable and worthwhile habit, the keys that may motivate a young boy or girl to keep on reading throughout their lives.

For with those keys, a child can unlock many doors, doors to understanding the world around him, doors to learning a lot of what there is to know, doors to the realm of imagination, wonder, and joy.

Reading Is Fundamental is raising funds right now to help the children to reach out to and open those doors. The Clarksville Civic Club has already contributed $50 toward this year's $300 goal. The remainder will have to come from the help, interest, and participation of you, the townspeople, the parents, and the youngsters of Pittsburg-Clarksville.

REPORT OF

VER-SHIRE SCHOOLS AND SHOPS

The calendar year of 1977 was a busy and beneficial one for the Ver-Shire Schools and Shops clients and staff.

A comprehensive program of vocational, academic, social and cultural activity continues to be the curriculum for the Ver-Shire Schools and Shops' clients. The learning process continues every day.

The Ver-Shire Schools and Shops' client population rose to a high of 23. The usual student population is around 18. The staff/client ratio is 1 staff member per 6 students.

The Supervisory Union #7 has worked closely with the Ver-Shire Schools and Shops for the betterment of the students. Suzanne Verneris, the Supervisory Union #7 Special Education teacher, gave consultive advice to the Colebrook Ver-Shire Schools and Shops' staff.

A summer CETA Youth Program was conducted by Denise Desrosiers Young. A total of 8 youths participated in the summer program. The CETA youths received $2.30 per hour and received 20 training hours per week.

The youths were involved in furniture refinishing, caning, cooking, rug making, needlework, and daily living skills.

The Colebrook Ver-Shire Schools and Shops took an extended field trip to Berlin, New Hampshire, and viewed the Converse Rubber Plant. This was a very fruitful experience for the students as they had a chance to view first-hand how workers turn out a consumer's product at the factory level.

The highlight of the trip was touring the animal zoo at Rumford, Maine. Many a conversation hinged around the animals seen at the zoo several days following the trip.

One of the students is now in the National Guard and serving 6 months at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Another found employment at the Beecher Falls Ethan Allen furniture factory. Job development and job placement are ongoing processes. Vocational counseling is available and being used by those ready to enter the employment world.

The Colebrook Ver-Shire Schools and Shops staff are looking for another successful year with the handicapped students who are trying so hard to improve their educational vocational and social skills. We appreciate the cooperation that the community and schools have given as we strive to help each individual reach his or her full potential.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

Vern Lauman
