DERRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

The following reports of the Librarian and Treasurer cover fully the work of the Library and show its continued growth. These reports are submitted herewith.

DERRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

To the Trustees of the Derry Public Library:

The 34th annual report is herewith presented:

The work of the library was carried on efficiently by Miss Hall, assistant, until September when your librarian took charge again. She had however given assistance as needed in buying books, classifying and cataloguing since May 1st when Miss Safford who had acted as assistant during the winter, left.

The circulation has made a slight increase, gains are noted in the non-fiction class and in the juvenile fiction.

A Hobby Show was held in the library in April when for one week the reading room was given over to exhibits of the hobbies of the townspeople. Both hand work and collections of various kinds were shown.

During the summer a Vacation Reading Club was formed. 25 children joined the club and in September diplomas were given to 21 pupils who had completed the course of reading prescribed. These certificates were given at the school of which the pupil was a member.

In August the annual Flower Show was held in the reading room. This was sponsored by the Derry Womans Club and the Derry Garden Club.

In September a Puppet Show was the attraction. This was given in the basement of the library building after school hours and was seen by nearly 500 children. Plays were given to seven groups. The plays were presented by the courtesy of the State Public Library Commission.

In November Book Week was observed. The library had a display of about 60 new children's books. Your librarian visited the grade schools in town and made an effort to have each child take out a library book during the week. As a result 444 juvenile books were loaned.

Classes have been held in the library for the instruction of the Junior High pupils in the use of the library. These were held during the forenoon. 12 to 14 pupils were in each class so that individual instruction could be given. The system of classification was explained and pupils were taught how to locate books and the use of the card catalog.

A new appliance by which books and magazines can be sewed, has been purchased and used to repair books which otherwise would have been discarded. Magazines have also been sewed adding to the length of their usefulness as well as to their appearance.

The installation of an electric clock has been much appreciated.

Pictures and exhibits have been used to make our rooms attractive. A new departure has been to have exhibits of school work and projects. This has interested not only those who have had their work displayed, but the scholars of other grades and parents have also been attracted by the exhibits.

Miss Edith Hall attended the sessions of the summer library school at Durham and she with your librarian.

attended the annual meeting of the New Hampshire Library Association also held at Durham.

We extend our thanks to all those who have given books or magazines to the library the past year also to the newspapers who have printed our lists and notices.

TAYLOR LIBRARY

To the Trustees of Taylor Library:

The sixty-first annual report is herewith presented:

The Library has been open regularly during the past year on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons and evenings, a total of 468 hours on 104 days. Our circulation has remained nearly the same and this has been true of the number of borrowers.

Our reference work for the school children has nearly doubled since the adoption of the modern courses of study in our public schools. The children flock in on Tuesday afternoons for help in their work and often say, "We wish this Library was open every afternoon".

It is interesting to note that while we report the total number of volumes on our shelves at present as 7,708, our Accession Book shows that since the opening of the Library in 1878 there have been 12,325 volumes listed. This does not mean that over four thousand books have been thrown away, although some of them have, but many of the best of them have been placed on the shelves of our work-room and may be borrowed by anyone wishing to read the best-sellers of a generation ago. We have given the State Library Commission over fifty of these volumes for use on the Bookmobile, which carries books to the rural sections of the State — a new venture this year.

During the year the Rev. W. Frederick Addison has given four talks on books in the Library. They have been well attended and have helped to increase the interest in books.

We extend thanks to the newspapers for freely printing our notices and lists of books, and also to the friends who have given us books and magazines and papers.

Miss Ida A. Tourtellot has served as associate librarian since June.

TEACHERS AND SCHOOLS

There have been no changes in the staff since the last school year. All teachers under appointment have cooperated during the school year and are doing satisfactory work.

Music continues to be enjoyed and appreciated by pupils and teachers under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle. We hope to do more with this form of endeavor in the coming months, especially on the junior high school level.

It was decided to close the Number 3 and Number 7 Schools and to transfer the pupils to the town schools. By so doing it was possible to separate the combined second and third grade rooms in each of the Floyd and Oak Street Schools. Each of these combined rooms had contained far too many pupils for a teacher to manage efficiently. As a result Mrs. Lillian Brown has been transferred from Number 3 school to Grade 2 in the Floyd School with Miss Grace Hunt in charge of Grade 3 in the same building; while Miss Priscilla Low was transferred from Number 7 School to Grade 2 in the Oak Street School with Miss Katherine Lyons in charge of Grade 3. Under the present set-up each of these grades are well balanced as regards enrollment.

It was possible to transport the necessary seats and desks from the outlying schools in order to equip an additional room in the Floyd and Oak Street Schools for the above purposes.

Repairs and Replacements

Summer 1938

During the past summer an extensive renovating job, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Senter, was completed at the Floyd School with a very economical use of money. Included in the improvements to the building are:

1. Roof repairs.
2. Correction of dangerous over-hanging cornices and brick work.
3. Painting of walls of classrooms and corridors.
4. Varnishing of desks, floors, and woodwork.
5. Re-plastering in classrooms and corridors.
6. Correction of a faulty sewerage system.
7. Repairing of warped floors.

The above work was done in spite of the fact that no special appropriation had been asked for but it was done with the regular school money.

Among other repairs may be noted:

1. Rebuilding the side entrance at the Oak Street School.
2. New cess pool covers at the Oak and West Side Schools.
3. Repair of gutter and rain spout at West Side School.

A new and much needed water heater and tank has been made a part of the equipment of the domestic arts department at the Oak Street School. It is now possible to have hot water at any time by the installation of such equipment.

Transportation

The state law requires that all pupils in grades 1 - 8 inclusive who live more than two miles from the school to which assigned are to be transported.

In former years the pupils were transported to school in relays which meant much waiting around before school began and a late arrival home, in many cases, when schools were dismissed.

A more adequate set up has been in operation since September whereby the pupils are brought to school at the same time and returned from school together.

The following routes are now in effect:

1. The Checker Cab Company operates three routes; one beginning at the Hampstead-Derry line and into Derry with 40 pupils; a second covering the Chester Road to the English Range and back along the Manchester State Road with 25 pupils; and a third taking in the Island Pond and Kilrea sections of the town with 33 pupils.

2. Mr. Fred Fairchild, who lives on the Windham Road, brings in 2 pupils.

3. Mrs. Eva Gamache brings in one child from the Kendall Pond section of the town.

Changes in the School Day

A change is to be noted in the hours of school for the current year. The morning session begins at 8:30 and ends at 11:55. The afternoon session commences at 1:05 for grades 7-8 and at 1:15 for other grades, all being dismissed at 3:15. These new hours not only make possible a more efficient program for the junior high school grades but the pupils who are transported arrive home at an earlier hour.

Changes in the Program.

Among the adjustments made in the program of the junior high grades may be noted:

a. fewer and longer class periods, leading to a more efficient use of teacher and pupil time.

b. the inclusion of such courses as general science, health and physical education, guidance for grade 8, and machine shop for all grade 8 boys.

c. an activity period which has the purpose of allowing for desirable participation on the part of the pupils in such activities as glee club, dramatics, physical education, and club work.

Instruction.

In order that beginning pupils may have a good foundation in reading habits and abilities, an attempt has been made in the first grades to provide certain materials for a basic reading system. This modern system of reading is widely adopted and has proved highly effective in other school systems. It is our earnest desire to carry on this work not only in the first grade but also to extend the teaching of a modern system of reading upward through the grades. Such a system would be most helpful in leading children to find pleasure and profit in the printed page.

Although some text books have been provided in grades where the need seemed most acute particular attention must be focused on this item. In the seventh and eighth grades arithmetic, science, and health text books has been provided as very little material was on hand to use. Some readers in the intermediate grades have been purchased. However, the supply in every case is still inadequate.

Given the necessary equipment less of the teacher's time will be required in reproducing subject matter on the blackboard and on paper and proportionately more of her time can be used in actual teaching. The hours spent by a teacher in copying material onto a blackboard or by dictating it and the hours spent by pupils in writing it on paper either by copying or dictation are largely lost as far as instruction is concerned. A teacher's time spent in leading groups of pupils or individual pupils in proper methods of reasoning is much more profitably spent.

For these reasons, in looking forward to the instructional needs next year we should realize that Derry pupils are still without any text books or without suitable text books in health and spelling in grades one to eight, literature in grades seven and eight, language all grades, dictionaries, and readers in most grades, histories in grades three, four and five, certain necessary reference books in the upper grades, and geographies in grades three, four, and six.

Although we cannot hope to fulfill the above textbook wants in a single year, much good will result if particular attention is given this item over a period of a few years.

In calculating per pupil costs for Derry we find that during the past five years it has cost an average of 59c for books and 46c for supplies for each year. In a comparison with other towns of similar size to Derry we find a five year average per pupil cost for books to amount to $1.12 and $1.58 for scholars supplies for each year. The state average for 1938 on books was $1.21 and $1.48 for scholars' supplies. The per pupil cost as asked for in next year's budget is approximately $1.25 for books and 87½c for supplies.

The total per pupil cost for the Derry elementary schools for 1937-8 was $60.88 as compared to a state median of $79.98.

This year work in machine shop is being offered to all grade eight boys whereas in former years this course was restricted to a few boys selected from the grade. The instruction in this class covers work in machine shop operation, forging, electricity, drawing and some wood-working.

In the seventh grade wood-working class the boys are engaged in the construction of individual projects, as a general procedure, whereas in former years the boys worked on group projects. Besides adding to the interest and effort of each pupil this procedure is carried on at little added expense from the standpoint of the school district.

It goes without saying that shop work is invaluable to the junior high school level when the boy is taught the fundamentals of the use of tools. However, it is imperative that a definite appropriation be made to take care of necessary tools and equipment if this type of instruction is to be continued in our schools.

New Report Cards.

The report card as issued this year is in direct contrast to the card of the last several years. It is our intention to transmit a clear and concise message to the pupil's home which will enable the parents to be familiar with the progress of the child throughout the year. By the use of the symbols, A-B-C-D-F, we believe this will be accomplished. The sections devoted to Citizenship and Attendance are also important to a child's correct development.

We welcome any suggestions which will make this report card form a better one.

Standard Tests.

A standard mental test has been given to each of the pupils of grades two through eight. A similar test will be given the first grade pupils before the close of the school year. These test results are invaluable to a teacher in treating a youngster educationally.

Eight Week System.

Another change which should be noted has to do with the calendar for the current year and the tentative calendar for the next school year. We are operating under the so-called eight week system which allows for a February and April vacation. From the standpoint of pupil and teacher fatigue we believe the arrangement is a very desirable one.

New Office Record System.

A new and up-to-date office record system has been installed this year. This system is in a compact form and it may be efficiently administered. From now on a permanent school history of each pupil will be an important feature of our office records.

Health and Physical Education.

The importance of Health is realized when it is noted that health is listed as the first objective of education. According to Bulletin No. 35—"To discharge the duties of life, and to benefit from leisure, one must have good health. The health of the individual is essential to the vitality of the race and to the defence of the Nation. Health education is, therefore, fundamental."

Health needs cannot be neglected in our schools without serious danger to the individual and the race. Through the organization of a program of physical activities, the school, the home, and the community can well cooperate in safeguarding and promoting health interests.

We have attempted certain forms of health education during the past several months, both through the medium of class instruction and supervised play, in school and after hours. More attention should be given this form of education during the next several years. Not only do we need text books for class room use but more adequate facilities and materials are quite necessary.

Education should not be confined to the book knowledge of a subject. Children should be taught to play together and to be made happy.

CONCLUSION

May I say in conclusion that we wish our schools to be for parents as well as for pupils. Our doors are always open to those who may visit us for conference or any purpose. Schools exist for the benefit of society. Their work cannot be done without the cooperation, understanding, and good will of the public.

“The schools of a democracy are organized to provide an opportunity for individual growth and development to the end that each may live a happy and productive life. They must concern themselves as well, with the development of ideals and purposes which will enable the individual to find his greatest good in service for the group.”

We are all eager to work with you so we may give the youth of our town the best educational opportunities possible.

I wish, at this time, to thank the school board, parents, teachers, and pupils for their cooperation and assistance to me during the past several months.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward I. Erickson

We have been fortunate in retaining the same teaching staff as in former years. Both Miss Thelma Hoyt and Miss Alice Watts are doing capable work. The atmosphere of the class rooms is conducive to good work on the part of the pupils.

Music, under the direction of Mrs. Hinkle, continues to be enjoyed and appreciated by pupils and teachers.

Changes which have been made during the present year include the new hours of school, the eight week system, the report card, and an efficient and complete office record system. All seem to be operating satisfactorily.

Each pupil in grades two through six has been given a standard mental test. Before the close of the school year the first grade pupils will be given a similar test. These test results serve a very useful purpose to the teacher in guiding the progress of a child.

During the summer months some minor repairs and improvements were accomplished as regards the painting of outside window sashes and door frames. An unused and dangerous chimney was repaired, thus eliminating a hazard around the building.

The one outstanding repair job which should be given attention has to do with repairing and re-shingling the roof of the school house. A slight damage to the roof, due to the hurricane, was repaired during the year.

During the current year we have introduced a modern system of reading in the first grade. This system is designed to teach reading gradually and it is promoted through careful planning and guidance on the part of the teacher. It is most essential that children are taught to read correctly; keen interest in learning to read results from activities in which children discover that reading will contribute to their pleasure and satisfaction. During the next few years this up-to-date and widely approved system of reading should be extended upward through the grades.

New geographies have been purchased for grades three and four. The text books so adopted follow the State Program of Studies and are better suited to the grade level than the geographies which had been used during the previous years.

The needs as regards books which should receive some attention, in the near future, besides reading, center around language, health, nature, and dictionaries for all grades.

In studying the records of the pupils of Derry Village who are attending Grades Seven and Eight in Derry we find the pupils have been well prepared in the elementary grades. Those pupils who have entered high school are also doing satisfactory work.

It shall be our purpose to strive earnestly for the educational welfare of the pupils of your town. We wish our school to be for the parent as well as the pupil. Only by the home and school working together can we hope to continue to have our school the type in which the boys and girls of Derry Village are happy and benefited. The fine cooperation of the school board, teachers, pupils, and parents during the past several months is appreciated by your superintendent.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward I. Erickson
Superintendent of Schools.
