REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Amherst:

I herewith submit my fourteenth report which is the twenty-fourth in the series of such reports.

Supervisory Union No. 40

This Union comprises the school districts of Amherst, Brookline, Milford and Mont Vernon, and is the same as arranged in 1919 by the State Board of Education acting under the school law of 1919 by which the entire state, exclusive of cities, was divided into unions for supervisory purposes. By this law the School Boards of the districts comprising a union form a joint board which meets annually and nominates a Superintendent of Schools who is elected by the State Board. The joint board also determines the amount of the superintendent's salary above the $2000 minimum which is paid by the state from income received from the $2 per pupil tax. Of the excess voted for 1932-1933 and 1933-1934, ($1900), Amherst pays 25 per cent, Brookline 10 per cent, Milford 60 per cent, and Mont Vernon 5 per cent. The Superintendent pays all of his travelling expenses in the Union.

Teachers

Mr. Ralph G. Reed completed three years as Headmaster of the High School in June, 1932. His place has been filled by Mr. Harold A. Truell of Newport, New Hampshire. Mr. Truell is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire in 1930, after which he taught at Whitinsville, Massachusetts. There have been no other changes in teachers from last year except that the School Board decided not to continue with a music supervisor and so Miss Josephine MacKinnon who had served as such for two years past was not retained.

Enrollment

The tables below show the present situation in all schools. By advancing each grade one year the probable situation for next year can be easily found. At present the grouping in the village is Grades I-II with 40 pupils; III-IV with 35 pupils; V-VI with 24 pupils; VII-VIII with high school upstairs. It will be readily seen that the sixth grade being smallest, the combination for the next few years for Grades V-VI will be larger.

High School

The enrollment in Grades IX-X-XI-XIII shows a total of 19 different pupils registered during 1922-1923 and a total of 67 for 1931-1932. This increase has, of course, increased the size of classes somewhat and, in a few cases where two grades are combined for subjects alternating year by year, has made such classes almost too large for best work to be accomplished. For next year and probably for several years there will be no appreciable decrease. The result of this is that teachers will have heavier teaching loads; in fact, the combination of Juniors and Seniors (36 in all) for next school year will require two sections in certain subjects, particularly chemistry which calls for seven periods per week in each section on account of laboratory work. This will necessitate a seven teaching-period school day instead of six as now and this in turn may require a slight increase in the length of the school day.

The old laboratory has been used this year as a classroom for Grades V-VI so that for another year laboratory space must be provided by restoring the old laboratory or by fitting up a new room which it may be feasible to do in the basement. The old laboratory was never quite large enough but now that all science classes are likely to be increased in size, it is important to provide adequate laboratory facilities.

At the present time Grades IX-X are combined for the subjects of bookkeeping one year, and commercial geography and history the next or alternating year. Bookkeeping is due to be taught in 1933-1934. Since we do not have a full commercial curriculum it would seem better to offer a year of general business training instead of bookkeeping. Many suitable and excellent texts are available for just this kind of course. Furthermore, a course in biology instead of commercial geography and history is also recommended. This would be taught for the first time in 1934-1935. By this plan a laboratory science would be taught each year, that is, chemistry next year and biology two years from now, and so on. There would be no particular loss in dropping the commercial geography and history as much of this can be taught in the geography of Grades VII and VIII.

For further discussion of high school affairs you are referred to the Headmaster's report.

Rearrangement of Grades

Soon after the annual meeting of 1932 it was decided to rearrange grades at the village building. The primary room with Grades I-II-III was very much crowded and required an assistant teacher—Miss Boutelle. The intermediate room also had a large enrollment with Grades IV-V-VI. This situation had existed for several years, especially in the primary room. Part of the extra enrollment was caused by closing of rural schools but not enough relief could be secured by reopening these schools. It was, therefore, decided to secure an extra room which was done by hiring the old G. A. R. Hall in the church building adjoining the school property. This upstairs room was fitted up with movable furniture, temporary blackboards, etc., at a cost of about $35.00 (see financial report for details).

Grade III was taken from the primary room and Grade IV from the intermediate room. The combination made a total of twenty-seven pupils. Miss Boutelle, who had been assistant in the primary room with Miss Jenkins, took full charge of this room. By this plans we became entitled to additional state aid amounting to approximately $1000.00. But more than that was the advantage to teachers and children, namely, fewer grades and fewer pupils per teacher. This arrangement continued to the end of the year at a rental of $45. In September it was not deemed best to lease the church property again and so the high school laboratory was rearranged to take care of the twenty-three pupils in Grades V-VI for this present school year. The loss of this room to the high school was compensated for by dividing a large room on the second floor into two smaller class rooms which have proved entirely adequate; in fact, very much better for high school purposes than the old arrangement. The new room for Grades V-VI, however, has not been very satisfactory due to its small size and inadequate lighting. It was foreseen last summer that this arrangement could not be permanent due to the conditions stated above and to a larger enrollment for 1933-1934 and succeeding years. A definite solution of this problem must be made before the opening of the next school year.

There are various possibilities for providing this extra room and the School Board have asked to have these presented in this report.

(a) Remodelling of village building: There is space enough on the first floor of the building for three good rooms, but to secure such rooms with adequate floor space, lighting, and so on, to meet the state requirements for a standard elementary room and thus to be eligible for state aid, quite extensive remodelling would have to be done. This, of course, would give good results in the end for all three rooms but may not justify the cost, providing some other arrangement can be found.

(b) Reopening of rural schools: The opening of any one rural school would bring but slight relief to any one grade or room at the village building, because pupils from any one section of the district are distributed through all grades. Several rural schools would have to be opened to decrease the enrollment at the village enough so that the extra room would not be needed, and then there would have to be more classes per teacher which is not to the advantage of the pupils. Of course, if several rurals were opened the cost would probably be more than any other arrangement.

(c) Enlargement: Another room can be secured by building an addition to the village building, but this would be quite expensive and hardly justifiable at the present time.

(d) Another building: Such a solution might be secured by purchasing or renting property in the village or by moving an outside schoolhouse to the village.

Repairs

During 1932 the following things were done:

1. Usual thorough summer cleaning.
2. Replacement of a few windows in high school.
3. Installation of an extra window in stairway at high school.
4. Minor interior painting.
5. Partitioning of north room on second floor at high school.

Needs for the future are:

1. Ventilation at the Village building—still an important need.

2. New desks for high school main room.
3. New floor in high school main room.
4. Laboratory for high school.
5. Another elementary room that will meet approved standards. (See section above.)

Finances

The budget as presented by the School Board in their report shows an increase for teachers' salaries over the amount voted in March 1932. This is accounted for by the fact that a full time teacher is planned for the extra elementary room instead of an assistant in the primary room. The expenditure of a small extra amount secured approval of the additional room this present year and an increase in state aid of about $1000. This will presumably continue another year if the additional elementary room is brought up to standard. Many other items in the budget show decreases. "Other expense of instruction" is slightly increased due to a large graduating class expected in 1934; and payment of tuition is increased due to a larger number of pupils to attend Milford from Border Street; in fact, the amount to be spent for tuition this year will be about $730 instead of the estimated figure of $540 as voted in March 1932. The Superintendent's salary account shows more than last year because the Supervisory Union has arranged for a two year contract and apportioned Amherst's share at the figure noted. However, a portion of this will be refunded. The total amount of money required to meet the School Board's budget is about 14 per cent reduction over last year's total. This, of course, is exclusive of any money that may be voted under special articles in the warrant for special purposes.

Certain comparative figures may be of interest as follows:

- (a) The average cost per pupil in Amherst elementary schools for 1931-1932 was $92.45 against a state median of $82.11.

(b) The average cost per pupil in Amherst high school for 1931-1932 was $87.02 against a state median of $118.51 (all costs). The average cost per pupil for high school instruction only was $69.27 against the state average of $89.79. There were but five high schools in the state with a lower cost for instruction.

(c) Cost of textbooks per pupil: Amherst $2.11, state $1.56. Increased size of classes with alternating subjects in high school has caused unusual demand for textbooks.

(d) Cost of scholars' supplies per pupil: Amherst $1.47; state $1.84.

(e) Cost of medical inspection per pupil: Amherst $1.06; state $1.38.

(f) Current cost of public education per $1000 of equalized valuation (1930-1931) in Amherst was $11.14. This placed Amherst No. 141 out of a total of 244 districts in the state, Monroe being the lowest with $3.04 and Mason the highest at $23.48.

(g) Out of a total appropriation of $46,030.07 for 1931-1932 (see page 8 of 1932 report), schools had $15,947.43 or 34.16%. The Tax Commission's recent report shows that the average for schools throughout the state was 27.8%.

Conclusion

At the Citizens' Conference on the Crisis In Education called by the President last month in Washington, Mr. Hoover said in his opening address:

"Our nation faces the acute responsibility of providing a right-of-way for the American child. In spite of our economic, social and governmental difficulties, our future citizens must be built up now. We may delay other problems, but we cannot delay the day-to-day care and instruction of our children.

"Our governmental forces have grown unevenly along with our astounding national development. We are now forced to make decisions on the merits of the various expenditures. But in the rigid governmental economics that are requisite everywhere we must not encroach upon the schools or reduce the opportunity of the child through the school to develop adequate citizenship. There is no safety for our republic without the education of our youth. That is the first charge upon all citizens and local governments.

"I have confidence that with adequate reduction of expenditures there can be ample amounts obtained from reasonable taxation to keep our school system intact and functioning satisfactorily. . . The proper care and training of our children is more important than any other process that is carried on by our Government. If we are to continue to educate our children, we must keep and sustain our teachers and our schools."

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD C. BALES,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF SCHOOL NURSE

To Harold C. Bales, Superintendent of Schools,
Amherst, N. H.:

The following is my first report of the health work in the Amherst schools, it being the thirteenth year of this work.

The annual medical inspection was made in September by Dr. Burns, the nurse assisting. A tabulated account of this inspection is given on another page.

A toxoide clinic was put on by the State Department of Health during April and May, 1932, at which forty-five children received toxoide, to become immunized against diphtheria.

Fifteen children have been successfully vaccinated by the school physician since the fall examinations and all other cases are now taken care of by proper excuses.

Three children were taken to the hospital for tonsil operations during the summer.

Much time has been spent in doing social service work for the school children during the past year. Aid was received from the county, Amherst Red Cross, and local committees.

We have been very fortunate in having only a few cases of contagious diseases this year. Several children were found to have pediculosis. They were treated at home after instructions had been given by the nurse.

Forty-three visits have been made to the schools in the past year which consisted of class room inspection, short talks on personal health, and special attention for individual children.

The eye examinations have been completed. The results show eighteen pupils have defective vision. Five have now received glasses. I am hoping that more can be corrected in the future, perhaps through a clinic.

The ear examinations will be made in April when the audiometer may be obtained from the State Department of Health. With this instrument a very accurate examination may be made.

The number of dental defects has increased this year quite a lot over the last examination.

The following is a report of the State Board of Health, Division Maternity, Infancy and Child Hygiene, in Amherst during the year.

As to the toxoid clinic held in cooperation with the School Department there were 87 children treated. From 6 months to 1 year, 4; 1 years to 8 years, 58; 8 years to 12 years, 25; total 87.

Home visits to mothers, infants and pre-school children were made during the year by the State Nurse, Mary H. Cunningham, in Hillsboro County.

Respectfully submitted,

VENITA H. CARTER, R. N.,
School Nurse.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER

To the Members of the School Board, Superintendent of Schools, and Citizens of Amherst, N. H.:

I hereby submit my first annual report.

School commenced on September 6, 1932, with a total enrollment of fifty-three pupils in the high school. Since then two pupils have left and six have been admitted. Therefore, at the present time, we have a total membership in the high school of fifty-seven pupils; eight of these being seniors.

We had a membership of twenty-nine pupils in the seventh and eighth grades at the beginning of the school year but since then we have added seven and lost two, making a total of thirty-four pupils at the present time. Seventeen of these are in the seventh grade and seventeen are in the eighth grade.

The attendance has been very good in many cases. There has been a great deal of sickness this year which accounts for most of our absences. We have an attendance contest on with other high schools in this vicinity which is an incentive to our pupils. Our tardiness is far greater than it should be.

We have had four interesting special events at the school so far during the school year 1932-1933. The first of these was the Washington Bicentennial which was given at the town hall on October 12 by all of the school children of Amherst. There was an afternoon and evening program. Judging from the attendance, I believe that the parents and friends enjoyed these events. The second was the Teachers' Institute on October 24, conducted by the State Board of Education. Nearby teachers attended this institute at the Amherst Village School. We were exceedingly pleased to have so many of the teachers visit the Cricket Corner School. All except three of the teachers present went down and they remarked how much they enjoyed this visitation. Miss Boudreau is certainly keeping the children interested in their school work. Our high school teachers attended this institute. The third event dealt with the teachers more than with the pupils. This was a party given to all of the teachers in this union by the Amherst teachers. There were about forty teachers present and all had a very enjoyable evening. The last was the celebration of Education Week. We had the life of George Washington shown on the screen to all of the pupils. Two pupils spoke at Cricket Corner School; two at Milford High School; two in Miss Virtue's room; two in Miss Boudelle's room; and two to the seventh and eighth grades concerning the value of Education Week and stressing the importance of acquiring an education. In return we had two representatives of the Milford High School speak at one of our assemblies.

The teachers are very cooperative this year. As we all know, little can be accomplished without cooperation. It is a joy to work with such an efficient group of teachers. This past fall the high school teachers have combined with the Milford High School teachers in studying McKown's book on High School Clubs. These meetings have been very interesting and much professional benefit has been derived from them. Teachers' meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of every month.

The idea of clubs is something new in the Amherst High School. Here is something which the pupils conduct themselves and in which they all have an interest. It allows them to get contact with one another other than in the classroom. Of course some of the pupils still have not participated to any great extent but as time goes on I believe that the ideals of leadership and cooperation will be achieved. We have eight clubs in the school, four meeting on alternate weeks. They are for the pupils and are conducted by them.

The sewing club is one of the interesting clubs in the school. Pupils are taught how to do different types of dressmaking, crocheting, knitting, etc. They have also brought old clothes from home, which otherwise would have been thrown away, to school and mended them. These articles are then passed on to the members of poor families of Amherst.

The literary club is composed of seventh and eighth grade pupils. They pick up information around the school, assemble it in the club, and then publish a small school paper bi-monthly.

The nature club deals with the study of plants, animals, game laws, etc. Great interest was manifested when discussions arose over some of the game laws.

The live wire club is another club whose membership is composed mostly of boys. This club is similar to the live wire club of last year. Here they discuss topics such as sculpturing. At the present time they are carving figures out of soap. The members take a keen interest in this project.

The dramatics club deals with stage acting, make-up, stage decorating, etc. At present they are learning how to reproduce a play. This play will be presented to the whole student body at some assembly.

The first aid club is essential to all pupils. Those who are members think it is very beneficial. They take up the proper way to bandage broken legs, arms, fingers, etc. First aid plays are written by the members and then they are presented to the club. Some of these have been so unique and helpful that they have been presented to the whole student body.

The sports club deals with various types of sports. We have discussed basketball and hockey. Other sports are being considered by the pupils. In this club the pupils have the opportunity to find out how any game is played. We hope it will create a greater interest in the members of the school in regard to all sports.

The last club is the vocational guidance club. This is not by any means the least important. The object of this body is to study the different vocations in life and in so doing a pupil will not leave school at the time of graduation knowing little or nothing of life's problems which will confront him. We send to Washington, D. C. for helpful bulletins on all of the vocations which we discuss. I believe this is one of the greatest benefits which a pupil can receive before graduation. When they are young, they little realize what faces them on the other side of life, the side after leaving school. We try in this club to give them a chance to understand some of the major problems of an independent citizen.

All of these above mentioned clubs are for the benefit of the pupils. These clubs try to develop leadership, initiative, understanding, cooperation, and high ideals among the pupils; these principles to be applied in later life.

For the past year or two, the seventh and eighth grades have not been included in the Triple Entente Association. This year we have combined them to help bridge the gap between the grades and the high school. Some of the pupils of the grades think that the high school pupils do not want them. This does not seem to be true for if one notices the pupils outside of the classroom, they mix regardless of class.

It is our earnest desire to cooperate with the parents whenever possible. Some of the parents have visited school so far this year but we would like to have others. We are always glad to welcome visitors even though they cannot stay more than a few minutes. In view of this fact, I am presenting the school timetable for your convenience.

Science VII, Thursday, seventh period.

For next year, 1933-1934, Chemistry will be given for Juniors and Seniors in place of Sociology and Economics; a course in elementary business procedure in place of Commercial Geography and History. It is hoped that Biology may eventually alternate with this business course and Commercial Geography and History may be dropped entirely, as much of the subject matter of this course is covered in the Geography work in Grades VII and VIII.

The assembly periods (1:00-1:40) for the week are filled as follows:

Monday: Fundamentals (either spelling, arithmetic or geography)

Tuesday: Clubs.

Wednesday: Music (this is held for those interested in music).

Thursday: Triple Entente meeting (a short program is given at the close of each meeting if time permits).

Friday: Fundamentals (either spelling, arithmetic or geography).

At various times we have outside talent come in to either talk or play to the pupils.

We should like at this time to thank our janitor, Mr. Hubley, for his whole-hearted cooperation and attention to our daily needs. We appreciate being warm on the coldest days of the year.

In closing I wish to express my appreciation to the school officials, teachers, parents, and friends for their hearty cooperation in making the Amherst High School a success.

Respectfully submitted,

HAROLD A. TRUELL,
Headmaster.
