CIRCULATION :

- Number of volumes loaned, 10,040.
- Number of volumes fiction loaned, 7,556.
- Number of volumes biography loaned, 229.
- Number of volumes history loaned, 334.
- Number of volumes geog. and travels loaned, 174.
- Number of volumes literature loaned, 139.
- Number of volumes poetry and drama loaned, 121.
- Number of volumes nature books loaned, 91.
- Number of volumes other classes loaned, 338.
- Number of magazines loaned, 1,068.

Ninety-four books have been rebound and 72 new cards have been issued.

Again the circulation has reached the ten thousand mark.

A bulletin board has been placed in the library, whereon the numerous food and war bulletins furnished by the Government and State have been displayed.

Several posters have also been displayed to urge in raising funds for patriotic purposes.

The Government Official Bulletin has been a daily visitor. Many other valuable bulletins relating to food products, etc., have been received from time to time and placed on the reading table for the use of the patrons.

Our quota for the War Library Fund was $123, but through the efforts of the trustees the sum of $141.65 was raised.

Folders have been printed containing each new lot of books, together with the notes on them.

Readers' Guide is proving more valuable to the students in the selection of magazine articles.

Few libraries of this size subscribe to so many magazines as this one. We sometimes wonder if the citizens realize how easily these magazines can be used. Just borrow them on your non-fiction card.

We are glad to voice our appreciation of the better care taken of the books by the children.

Respectfully,

NETTIE LOUISE KELSEA.

On the whole it has been a very uneventful year at the library.

The Y. M. C. A. drive was not very successful on our part, but I have packed two large barrels of books and magazines and sent to Camp Devens and the Remount Station at Ayer.

Let us all try and read at least one book a month that is not fiction and bring the record of non-fiction up to a higher mark next year.

Respectfully submitted,

JERUSHA ELIZABETH PARKER, Librarian.
