EXTRACTS FROM STATE REPORT OF WHITE PINE BLISTER RUST FUND IN NEWBURY.

In accordance with the terms of an agreement entered into with the Town of Newbury, we are handing you herewith a report of the work done by the Forestry Commission, in coöperation with the United States Department of Agriculture, on the control of the White Pine Blister Rust for the season of 1921.

In addition to the large outbreak of Blister Rust at Blodgett's Landing, a second infection of considerable size was discovered on the Hay Estate, and some scattering outbreaks near Messer's Hill. Mention is made of these infections to indicate that Blister Rust is fairly general on pines in Newbury, and to emphasize the necessity of continuing control measures until all pine areas have received the proper protection.

The following statement indicates the expenditure of available funds:

JOHN D. PEASLEE,
Auditor.

Report of Superintendent of Schools

To the Members of the School Board:

This report covers the year ending June 30, 1921, and includes teachers and salary schedules, attendance, instruction, health, and comparative finances.

TEACHERS AND SALARY SCHEDULES.

This year probably marked the apex of large increases in the salaries of teachers who were not Normal school graduates. While in several other districts these increases varied from one hundred to three hundred dollars and were proportionately larger among graduate teachers of experience, Newbury—with salary increases ranging from seventy-two to one hundred and eighty-eight dollars—retained with one exception the efficient corps of teachers of the previous year. Mrs. Nellie E. Fellows was unanimously re-elected, but accepted a position in the graded schools of Nottingham.

The ultimate solution of the teacher problem in a town situated like Newbury depends largely on its ability to send to Normal school each year at least two girls whose home and community interests are in Newbury and who can be expected to teach in their home town for one or more years after completing their Normal school training.

ATTENDANCE.

Favorable weather conditions and weekly attendance reports from all schools in the five towns comprising the Supervisory Union served to promote and sustain in all the towns a gain in the percent of attendance; while in Newbury there was a reduction of over fifty percent in the number of tardinesses per pupil. Compared with the other towns in the union Newbury stands first in the record of non-tardiness, and third in the percent of attendance.

INSTRUCTION.

Few changes have been made since last year in the details of instruction. The Thompson Minimum Essentials in Arithmetic, consisting of oral drills and written tests in the four fundamentals, were used to advantage in all grades to encourage greater speed and accuracy among pupils who were not fully qualifying for promotion.

Precaution was taken in reading to secure more thought and content reproduction, and to avoid as far as possible with beginners rhyme and memory recital so often mistaken for reading ability. More systematic drill in phonetic spelling has been used to advantage in both spelling and reading ability.

Considerable improvement was noticeable in penmanship in all written exercises, and particularly in the spelling blanks where the pupil's attention was not focused on penmanship and hence his true habits of penmanship were in evidence.

HEALTH.

The interest taken in all of the Newbury schools and particularly by the Modern Health Crusaders at the South in the study and practical application of personal hygiene and the formation of good health habits was of advantage in securing results in other lines of school work. The chief gains resulted from the regular brushing of teeth and abstinence from coffee drinking.

The completion of the medical inspection made by Dr. H. R. Green was delayed by the closing of the South school for nearly six weeks on account of scarlet fever.

REPORT OF MEDICAL INSPECTION.

	1919-20	1920-21
Number pupils examined	48	53
Number teachers examined	4	4
Defects.
Anaemia	1
Defective vision	1	4
Defective hearing	2	1
Pediculosis		1
Pulmonary disease	2
Defective teeth	35	26
Hypertrophied tonsils	16	15
Unvaccinated	18	12
Unvaccinated (without proper excuse)		9
Scarlet fever		2
Number corrections secured since last examination		12

The table above enables comparison of the conditions found during two consecutive years. The number receiving corrective treatments represents nearly twenty-five percent of the pupils. There remain about fifty percent of the children with defective teeth. I find it to be the consensus of opinion among both dental and medical physicians who make the school inspections, that poor dental conditions are largely responsible for many health defects, including diseased tonsils, which appear year after year.

A healthy body is essential to the normal development of a growing mind.

After the improvement of sanitary equipment including adequate lighting and ventilating of the school rooms, along which lines the Town of Newbury is making worthy progress, I would recommend the maintenance of a dental clinic at a school house or other center in the town for a period of three or more days during the fall term of each year. A free clinic I would not advise; however, there should be a sufficient appropriation so that the dental fees could be placed within the means of all the children.

COMPARATIVE FINANCES.

Among the 256 school districts in the state in 1920-21 arranged according to current local expenditures for public education,—including the cost of both high and elementary schools and excluding the purchase of land, the cost of new buildings and equipment and the payment of debt on such lands and buildings,—Bartlett Special District stands at the head of the list with an expense for schools of $21.39 per thousand dollars of equalized valuation. Newbury is 237th from the head of the list with a current local expenditure of $4.49 per thousand dollars of equalized valuation. The cost in 148 districts in the state was more than $8.00 per thousand of their equalized valuation. A definite comparison of this type indicates that Newbury's increase in educational expenditure has not been extravagant.

CONCLUSION.

The superintendent wishes to express his appreciation to the parents, citizens, teachers, and members of the School Board for their interest and co-operation in making successful the work of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. H. HARMON,
Superintendent of Schools.
