AUDITOR'S REPORT

I have examined the books and accounts of the Selectmen, Town Treasurer, Tax Collector, Road Agents, State Road Foreman, Cemetery Commissioners, Library Trustees, and Trustees of Trust Funds, have compared their accounts, and seen vouchers and believe these reports to be an essentially true account of the conduct of the town business.

TRACY MEMORIAL BUILDING

Librarian's Report

The third full year's work has been brought to a close, and a brief account of the various activities connected with the library and community house is herewith submitted for perusal.

As heretofore, several parties and celebrations have been enjoyed throughout the months, chief of which were a Washington's Birthday Party, Anniversary Night with its program of pictures and songs vividly recalling the production of the beautiful pageant "Hills Against the Sky", a Christmas program preceding the holiday, and the customary open house on New Year's Day. Refreshments were served on nearly every occasion.

The art exhibit of the year was of unusual interest to the community owing to the fact that the paintings were both landscapes and portraits in oil, the work of Edwin B. Child of Dorset, Vt., and New York City, and formerly associated with the famous painter, John LaFarge. Mr. Child and his daughter hung the paintings and were present on two evenings to meet visitors. Small exhibits have been arranged from time to time, including a collection of one hundred pieces of soap sculpture, while at the time of the pageant cases of curios of earlier days were displayed in the Assembly Hall. Nearly one hundred striking views of the ice storm devastation have been brought in by local people, and exhibited in the Reading Room during the month of January. A small but unique group of dolls of various periods and one foreign doll made their appearance in the Good Book Week exhibition arranged in the post office window.

The work of the choral societies has prospered, a concert by the Junior Choral Society was given last spring, under the direction of Mrs. Helen R. Colburn, while the Senior Choral Society gave two concerts during the year, the fourth and fifth concerts since its organization two years ago. Alfred E. Plumpton of Manchester continues as the efficient and appreciated choral instructor. He has also organized a small orchestra of New London musicians. Several members of the societies attended the Biennial Convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs in Boston last June.

A series of talks on art appreciation has been arranged, and Miss Dorothy Holmes pleased her audience with a talk on the subject "These Moderns", illustrated with slides from the Boston Museum. Other subjects are already scheduled. During Good Book Week Miss Grace M. Blanchard, librarian of the Concord Public Library spoke entertainingly upon "Some Authors—their looks and their books", and music was provided by talent from Colby School.

Use is continually made of different rooms in the buildings, and among those meeting regularly and occasionally are the following: the Woman's Club, Hospital Aid, Bridge Club, Choral Society, Junior Choir, 4-H Club, King's Daughters, Garden Club, Farm Bureau, Selectmen, Junior Christian Endeavor, Woman's Missionary Society, aside from numerous committee meetings. During one week sixteen meetings not connected with regular library work were held within the building. In October the Concord District Conference of the N. H. Federation of Women's Clubs met in the Assembly Hall for forenoon and afternoon sessions.

The librarians and trustees have been much pleased to secure an attractive and appropriate bookplate for use in the years to come. Miss Georgia Todd of New York City designed a plate showing the open door of Tracy Memorial Building, while beneath are these words:

WELCOME

*The door is open wide—
The beacon burning bright—Ah, look!
Man's greatest gift to man inside—
A Book.*

The work with the children has continued with a variety of handicraft work, stories, and a reading contest in which forty-one girls and boys took part—twenty-nine reading six or more required books, six of whom were members of the graduating class, while two members of the class, Mildred Messer and Clyde Smith, won the prizes offered for the best answers in the Book Character Contest. The Anniversary Night program was repeated for the children on the following Saturday afternoon. In connection with the observance of Good Book Week a Mother Goose Costume Party was given and enjoyed by about eighty children, sixty of whom came in costume, which added much pleasure to the afternoon. The manual training work with the boys was suspended in June, owing to the extensive alterations in the basement of the building.

Reference work for the town schools and Colby School for Girls, also for the Junior College girls is much increased this year. Each year's addition of books makes the library more useful to the community and the schools.

After two years of waiting since application our library is indeed fortunate and proud to become the recipient of the International Mind Alcove books, sent out by the Carnegie Endowment to certain small libraries of the country. Four newly published books on the life and customs of other countries—often the best travel books of the year—are received every three months. This valuable gift will continue until we receive the maximum of one hundred volumes, which make up an Alcove collection.

Mrs. Augusta W. Manrique, whose summer home is Hiefield, on Burpee Hill, kindly loaned for the winter months an interesting group of recent books of biography, letters, history and travel, which are being enjoyed by borrowers.

The weekly exchange of books for the residents of Elkins has been made through the courtesy of Mrs. Allie J. Sargent at the library, Arthur J. Gould, Merle C. Gay and Allen O. Crane as transporters, and Mrs. George Thurston, who has faithfully attended to the exchange of books in Elkins. Arrangements are nearly completed for sending a case of books into the Otterville section of the town each week. Mrs. Merton Rollins is to have charge of the exchange of these books.

The grounds about the building have been constantly improved during the past season. Arbors and a well-sweep have been erected, and a street curb made possible the much admired border flower bed, which provided a pleasing and colorful welcome to all visitors.

Extensive alterations have been made in the basement, hollow tile walls, a tiled floor, new toilet rooms, a coat and storage room, and a new heating system for the Assembly Hall comprise the improvements. The location of the library desk has been transferred to the entrance hall, where more room and daylight are available for desk and office work. The installation of a drinking fountain in the Reading Room provides much needed and welcome convenience.

The Sesqui-Centennial Committee has presented the library with an enlarged picture of the pageant cast. Mrs. Nancy Pingree has given several Civil War souvenirs in memory of her late husband, Walter E. Pingree. In view of the Sesqui-Centennial year Mrs. Ada W. Philbrick of Springfield presented a copy of "The textbook of the Washington Benevolent Society", printed in Concord in 1812. Miss Hattie T. Burpee was the maker of the decorative wreaths used about the building during the holiday season. Unusual gifts were those of two motion picture reels, one of pageant scenes taken and presented by Lindsay H. Wallace and A. I. Merigold, the other recording the dedicatory exercises at Scytheville Park was the gift of the donors of the park, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Swift. Frank P. Call has given a piece of the bolting cloth from the Hominy Pot mill. Such gifts will become more valued as the years pass.

Mrs. Tracy has remembered the library with gifts of books, including volumes of biography, history, fiction, poetry and juvenile books. A set of stereopticon slides of the pageant preserve the scenes for review at any desired time. Aside from the extensive remodeling done during the summer and fall months, Mrs. Tracy has generously provided the building with additional equipment for the serving of refreshments—table cloths, trays, silver, plates and tumblers.

The library staff and caretaker of the building and grounds have been the same as for the past two years. The library has been open daily, except on major holidays. During the months of July and August there were no evening hours. Sunday hours were as usual. Annual vacations were enjoyed by those employed at Tracy Memorial Building, and vacation assistants were Mrs. Allie J. Sargent, Miss Julia E. Todd, and Bernard Pedersen. Trustees have been willing and generous with assistance throughout the year.

In May the librarian attended a Neighborhood Library meeting at Boscawen as one of the speakers, in June attended her tenth reunion at Pratt Institute School of Library Science, and in September, in the company of Mrs. Macomber, trustee, attended three sessions of the New Hampshire Library Association annual meeting at Concord. At the time of the Scholarship Awards, the New London Library received honorable mention for its work of the year.

Thirty-two safety deposit boxes have been rented, and storage space is also rented in the vault.

As an accommodation to the purchasers, the library has ordered seventy books for individuals.

Appreciation of the benefits of the library and community building is evidenced by the continued gifts of friends and visitors. Gifts not already mentioned, and including books, cards, pictures, scrap book, magazines, newspapers, pamphlets, flowers, curios, posters, holiday decorations and materials for use in the Children's Room have been presented by the following persons: Mrs. Mary Macomber, M. Roy London, N. H. Baptist Convention, Mrs. W. E. Burpee, Mrs. Calvin Sargent, Mary Poole, New London Grange, Fred G. Williams, Henry A. Barker, Alice T. Greenwood, Howe Library (Hanover), Peter Van Winkle, Mrs. Joseph Cutting, Mrs. George E. Lewis, Franklin Public Library, Willis G. Buxton, Mrs. John B. Koehne, Glenna Fritts, Mary Baker Eddy Fund, Nora Gay, E. H. H. Simmons, Margaret Shearman, Anna and Ira Littlefield, Melville Robbins, Mrs. Dura Crockett, Mrs. Patrick

Barrett, Mrs. Mabel Burpee, Grace D. Litchfield, Mrs. Fred Gay, Katherine E. M. Dumbell, Mr. Cole, A. E. Day, Mrs. Wendell T. Bush, Mrs. Charlotte Hanscom, Mrs. Harlem, Alice B. Foster, Mrs. Lindsay H. Wallace, Mrs. Augusta Manrique, Helen Kidder, Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. M. Holbrook, Ralph H. Keil, Mrs. Violet Wyman, Mary Colgate, Mrs. George H. Adams, Robert E. Kerr, Henry Garbe, and Alston G. Messer.

Loans of scrap book, old maps and documents, magazines, pictures, curios, newspapers and decorative materials have been made by Wilbur Estey, Mrs. John Edmunds, Mrs. Melville Robbins, Stanley A. Spiller, Anna Littlefield, Mrs. Mary Macomber, Oren D. Crockett, Ervin P. Edmunds, Mary Barrett, Dorris Smith, Lester Taylor, Benjamin F. Sargent, Mrs. Fannie Adams, Mrs. Charles Messer, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lawler.

The increase of one hundred dollars made in the town appropriation for the library was most welcome and makes possible the purchase of more new books and magazines, the rebinding of more books, also the much needed replacement of worn and missing classics. The larger appropriation last year was a forward step in the right direction, as the Library Commission of the state and the American Library Association consider that one dollar per capita is the minimum amount that should be appropriated for library purposes. It is to be hoped that the town may be willing to increase the library appropriation one hundred dollars each year for two succeeding years, which would bring the appropriation to the amount considered fair according to our regular population, as given by the U. S. census. The out-of-town property owners, residents of the town during the summer months, share largely in the taxes and are constant visitors at the library and will enjoy the additional books made possible by increased appropriation.

Again the librarian wishes to express her appreciation of the friendly attitude of townspeople and the genuine interest shown by everyone in the various activities at Tracy Memorial Building.

HOSPITAL REPORT

For the year ending September 23, 1929

The work done at the Hospital is shown by the following statistics: Patients admitted, 154; out patients, 114; children for weighing, etc., 24; clinics, 2, with 9 patients treated; births, 27; deaths, 5; major operations, 23; minor operations, 30; highest average number of patients per day per month, 9, in August. Lowest average per day, 2, in October. While there has been a decrease in some of the records from those of the previous year, there has been an increase in many. Organizations have contributed liberally as in former years; gifts from individuals have been many. We also wish to make mention of what our town, as a whole, does. For all of these generousities we are most grateful. Mrs. Nellie G. Crozier succeeded Miss Della V. Carr who was in charge nearly the entire year, resigning in September.

The Hospital is again indebted to the Hospital Aid Society for invaluable service in providing hospital supplies and many other things. Donation Day under their auspices brought many household supplies also gifts of money.

New equipment includes Basin Sterilizer, Mouth Thermometers and rack, pitchers for drinking water for each room, and several other things much needed. These were given through Dr. E. P. Stickney who has always been a staunch friend of the Hospital.

For all the aid we have received from everyone, we extend our thanks, and trust we may have your continued co-operation.

NEW LONDON HOSPITAL AID ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL REPORT

There have been eight regular meetings and one special meeting of the New London Hospital Aid Association held this past year. Two of these were all day meetings which were thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

As most of the mending for the hospital has been done outside of the meetings this time has been used in sewing for the fancy table for Hospital Day.

Several ladies from George's Mills came over for one day's sewing on the Quilt which was sold this summer by chances taken.

The Rummage Sale and Donation Day were two of the successful features of the year's work. Also under this heading might be added the Masquerade Ball given in March.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board and Citizens of New London:

It has been a real pleasure to take up the duties as your School Superintendent with the beginning of this school year. Your schools were in such good condition and so well organized that it has not been necessary to spend much money on them in order to get good results. With the high class of citizenship in your town, together with the splendid boys and girls in the schoolrooms, it is my belief that we are in a position to prepare our boys and girls to become very real factors in helping shape the destinies of the State and the Nation. Every man or woman must compete with the man or woman of his own generation. I believe there is a spirit in New London which prompts everyone not to do less than the worthy boys and girls demand. The best is none too good for them. There is not a citizen in town but would willingly vote the total annual school tax assessment to restore one of these young people if some unfortunate circumstance should remove one of them from our midst. So it must naturally follow that anything but our best efforts in supplying educational welfare for our young citizens would be an error to be regretted—neglect that might have been avoided, if we should fail to supply the full measure of educational opportunities.

Through the length and breadth of our land in thousands and thousands of cities, towns, and villages are full-fledged public school systems which present opportunities to its young citizens in preparing them for the several vocations that are just ahead. Several factors enter into the work of these young people affecting them for good or bad, and in turn interfere with the full measure of efficient training.

First, is the environment of the child. As aforesaid we lack nothing in the quality of citizenship. In this the children are fortunate. Opportunities to think in a community unspoiled by false standards of an over-in dulgent civilization do not hamper us much, which results in a good atmosphere for study. That much is in our favor for supplying a good environment for our young people.

Second, the School Board through the citizenship has worked out a good program with arrangements for an efficient teaching staff within its limitations. These limitations are those which have caused us to present eight grades only.

I do not believe the limited opportunities presented for the pupils of New London are deliberate on the part of its citizens. I believe they have been the outgrowth of having a Private School in your midst which has in the past made it unnecessary to provide education in the upper grades of the curriculum above the eighth grade. Conditions are now changed and it has fast become increasingly important to provide a full measure of elementary and secondary education in our own publicly supported schools.

Pupils sent away from home daily to seek education elsewhere than in their own community are unnecessarily dissipating energies which should be directly applied in establishing scholastic standards which should give them increasing confidence by successful accomplishment. Instead, some are acquiring the bad habit of accepting themselves as failures in greater or less degree, as they do less than they are capable of doing. This is what is being done at the present time with too great a number of New London pupils above the eighth grade who go away to school each day.

The following pupils are taking work this year at Proctor Academy:

Name	Grade
1. Evelyn Marshall	Senior
2. Wayne Wheeler	Senior
3. Lester Taylor	Senior
4. Richard Parker	Junior
5. James Knowlton	Junior
6. Ernest Towne	Junior
7. Leland Welch	Sophomore

|-----|-----------------------|----------|
| 8. | Philip Parker | Freshman |
| 9. | Charles Davis | Freshman |
| 10. | William Stanley | Freshman |
| 11. | Bernard Chase | Freshman |
- Tuition $101 per year or $1111.00.

Pupils attending Colby Academy:

	Name	Grade
1.	Mary Bartlett	Senior
2.	Alfreda Goings	Senior
3.	Dorothy Goings	Senior
4.	Dorothy Knowlton	Senior
5.	Donna Mastin	Senior
6.	Evelyn Rollins	Senior
7.	Marion Sharp	Senior
8.	Barbara Sholes	Senior
9.	Alice Todd	Senior
10.	William Ash	Sophomore
11.	Nicholes Cricenti	Freshman
12.	Eleanor Mastin	Freshman
13.	Mildred Messer	Freshman
14.	Richard Messer	Freshman
15.	Gilbert Roberts	Freshman
16.	Clyde Smith	Freshman
17.	Eleanor Todd	Freshman
18.	Roberta West	Freshman

Tuition $110 or $1980 per year.

Pupils from New London attending schools elsewhere for whom the town pays no tuition:

	Place	Name	Class
1.	Saxton's River	Sherman Morey	Senior
2.	Taber Academy	William Clough	Senior
3.	Phillips Andover	William Kidder	Senior
4.	Proctor Academy	Richard Kidder

From the above it will be seen that if these pupils were in a public High School at home we would have the following enrollment:

Seniors	15
Juniors	3
Sophomores	2
Freshmen	13
	<hr/>
Total	33

This would be the present potential High School in New London if provisions were made for it.

For purposes of illustrating by a concrete case, permit me to say that during the school year of 1928-29 there were in Sunapee High School 44 pupils and 38 the previous year. During these years there were enrolled:

Eight as juniors,

Nine as sophomores, and

Thirteen as freshmen, up to the time the new building was completed.

As soon as the new building was available, twenty-six enrolled as freshmen in the fall of 1929, showing that when better facilities are provided, the holding power of your schools to keep boys and girls in school increases. This year there are enrolled in the High School at Sunapee 56 pupils, the largest enrollment in the history of the town. In 1926 there was only one graduate, whereas there will be eight this year. It is the history of educational progress in communities that when better school facilities are furnished, pupils profit by them by remaining in school and accepting them.

If suitable arrangements were to be had at New London for next year what would be the enrollment?

Seniors	XII Grade.....	3
Juniors	XI Grade.....	2
Sophomores	X Grade.....	13
Freshmen	IX Grade.....	15

33

As provision could probably not be made for the two upper classes for next fall, we could probably provide for one room of the two lower classes with an enrollment of 28.

Add to this in the next year, twelve who are in the seventh grade and you would have a school of 40 pupils; and in the next year you would have 44 pupils. Sunapee has run a High School for many years on a smaller registration than this last figure. I believe it is safe to say that you could not get many votes in that town to get them to give up their High School and it would be an easy matter to transport all their High School pupils to Newport. They feel that to have an efficient High School in their midst is one of the best things the town can do. It is the social and cultural center of the town and everyone takes great pride in it.

A Proposed Plan

I have seen many communities in Eastern United States where they have deliberately planned an ideal School situation. Such a plan involves housing facilities conveniently placed to accommodate the surrounding educational interests. We have in New London, a beginning on such a scheme which serves its purpose well as far as it goes—namely for the first eight grades. To accommodate the other requisites of a school plant we should do something similar to what has been done in Sunapee.

In order to provide these facilities we should add to the present school plant a unit to serve as a gymnasium-auditorium which could serve as a Community Center. This could serve the town as an auditorium for graduations and social activities within and without the schools. As a gymnasium it could serve the whole student body for indoor games as well as any development of a school health program. In the basement of this unit could be placed a central heating plant as well as locker rooms and baths. This would give over the basement of the present building to be used for properly arranged toilet facilities for the first eight grades. Such a unit should be placed on the lot with the present building and adjoining it on the East. A building similar to the present one could be built adjoining this new unit still farther to the East, to serve as the High School unit.

This would accommodate all the High School pupils and give plenty of room in front of each building for playground space. Provision could probably be made for outdoor athletic purposes in a place similar to the field back of Colby Hall.

I believe that any make-shift plan that might be substituted elsewhere for the above plan would fall short of what would be satisfactory. It would also be a waste of money should the citizens decide later to start anew with a plan similar to the one above. I believe that such a plan could be carried to a successful completion with moderate expense, determined largely upon what kind of construction is used.

Such a plan if carefully carried out would add to the attractiveness of the center of your village. It would be an imposing array of modern school buildings reflecting the progressive spirit of the town.

We are now paying about $3200 per year for high school tuition. This would be about double the amount necessary to pay the interest on the cost of such a school plant. I am proposing that you locate the whole school plant in one place. It has been discovered at Newport that had the present High School building been located on the lot with the Junior High School, $5,000 per year might have been saved on teachers, janitors and fuel. Carefully co-ordinated recesses and school activities need present no more handicap from having large and small pupils on the same lot, that it does at Sunapee or in hundreds of other places where such a plan has been adopted.

How to Begin

After studying the situation, I am prepared to recommend that you take steps to provide accommodations for the present eighth grade next fall as a ninth grade.

Employ a man teacher for this group and retain those who would be Sophomores (X Grade) next year making the enrollment as follows:

Freshmen	(IX Grade)	15
Sophomores	(X Grade)	13

Enrollment for the new room,	28

Our present program for education stops just short of what it should be, for it should have a man as a teacher at the head of this proposed school as director of its activities, to whom the boys can look for guidance in their sports as well as in their problems. Such a plan is proposed above. In succeeding years as the classes are retained it would be necessary to add one or more teachers to care for this High School group.

This first group could be accommodated next fall in a room provided at the back of the stage in the auditorium building which would be the first unit of the new group of buildings. That would give until the next fall to complete the entire group of proposed buildings. The last building would be similar in appearance to the present building, only it would be arranged for high school purposes.

I have tried to present in the above the most urgent educational need of the town. I feel its completion is imperative to the educational, physical, moral, and spiritual welfare of the boys and girls of New London, and I very earnestly urge that you give it your serious consideration at the next school meeting, making whatever provision may be necessary in the school and town warrants to take action upon the proposition.

Respectfully submitted,

TRUE C. MORRILL,

Superintendent of Schools.
