During the year my work has been practically a repetition of preceding years. My duties not only include the librarian's part but the care and overseeing of the grounds outside.

The granite boulder has been put in place on the lawn ready for the bronze tablet to the World War veterans, and I trust the work will soon be completed.

Two new rugs have been purchased to replace the oriental one that has been hung on the wall to preserve it for association's sake.

Mrs. Richardson has presented us with Mr. Richardson's great-grandfather's chair.

The building has become more of a community center than ever before, even with our fast decreasing population.

It was my great pleasure to attend the 35th annual meeting of the N. H. Library Association at Manchester, my first meeting of the kind in 18 years as librarian of the Sugar Hill branch.

I am looking forward with pleasure to this year's work and trust I shall be able to measure up to a standard worthy of one who receives an impetus of work such as is furnished under such generous treatment offered by the board of trustees of the Richardson Memorial library.

Respectfully,

JERUSHA ELIZABETH PARKER, Librarian.
