1. To choose all necessary Town Officers for the year ensuing.

3. To see if the town will vote to amend the zoning ordinance Article 15 by adding at the beginning: "Industrial uses of land shall be defined as the manufacturing or processing of a product."

- H4. Permitted Uses - Such use is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling unit for residential purposes, and that provisions are made for off-street parking as required herein.
- H5. Persons proposing a home occupation under the above conditions shall appear before the planning board at a regular meeting for approval of their plans.

5. To see if the town will vote to amend the zoning ordinance to extend by one year the following article which was passed in March 1977 and is due to expire:

Article 28. To guide the growth of the town in such a manner not to exceed its capacity for providing expanded services to support such growth, the following restrictions are set:

- (a) Building permits for new dwellings will be limited in each calendar year to two building lots or lots occupying 15 percent of the parcel, whichever is greater. A building permit for a new dwelling will expire one year from the date of issue if above-ground construction has not begun.
- (b) All parcels are defined as those contiguous areas under a single ownership as shown on the Kensington tax map of April 1, 1976 regardless of subsequent division or combination.
- (c) Subdivision plats will be processed and approved as a whole and shall be marked with the appropriate limitations each year, and marked with the locations of the records of the building inspector.

Juvenile Fiction-----	4,155
Juvenile Non-Fiction-----	1,765

The library circulation increased by 706 over the 1977 total. We have been pleased to see so many of the town's new residents coming to register as borrowers almost before they got settled. The telephone at the library is an extension of the town hall telephone so we get many calls on town business. This year we decided to keep a record of phone calls and found that we answered the telephone 221 times from people seeking information or wanting to speak to a specific town official. If it was general information the caller sought and we knew the answer, we gave the information and saved a town official from one more call. Otherwise we gave the name and telephone number they sought. We are happy to give this service to the town. This past year for the first time, we kept track of times we gave reference assistance and included it in the total circulation if it involved searching out the necessary books and then replacing them on the stacks. We all enjoy doing reference work but it is time consuming and takes more time than simply checking books in and out.

564 books were added to our book collection in 1978. 210 were purchased from the town library budget, the rest were either gifts, Memorial books or from special funds. At their May meeting, The Friends Group voted to purchase the 4 volume set of Books in Print for 1978. This is very useful to us when we need to reorder lost or worn out books as well as ordering new books. Besides that they purchased a set of books on music for the children's room and gave us $500.00 to help update our reference collection. Another $500.00 was given us at the fall meeting so that we could continue the project. This generous donation has enabled us to add some very expensive but useful books to the collection. We have also started receiving what will eventually be 19 complete sets of Time/Life Books. So far we have received the 28 volume Time/Life Library of Art and the 19 volume Time/Life Library of Photography. A gift from a generous citizen of the town. We wish to thank all of those who have donated books to the library during the year but to name them individually would take up too much space, so a sincere thanks goes to each of you.

Memorial books have been placed in the library in memory of Charles Bickford, S. F. Boysen, Lillian Miller, Grace Trafton, Horace Buxton and Lois Hall. Other Memorial Books are on order but have not as yet been received. The remainder of the Arthur Finnegan Memorial Fund has been spent.

The library went through a thorough weeding process during the first six months of the year with the help of Rachel Sanborn, consultant in the Southeast District of the State Library system. From her recommendations, many of our new reference books were chosen.

William Thorndike conducted an adult reading group on the Modern American Novel during the spring months.

The Friends have continued to provide us with volunteer to help in the children's room when the school children are there. The regular volunteers are Joanne Cole, Leslie Frank, Mari Welch and Sue Dillenbeck. Those who have acted as substitutes during 1978 were Kay Webster, Jean Felch and Mary Avery. Ann Smith and Claudia Welch help out in the children's room one afternoon a week after school hours and Ann Smith takes charge of book mending for us. In fact the Friends always come through with special help whenever we ask for it. Mari Welch is always willing to help in the adult section when things get too busy. We do appreciate having such dedicated and generous group of Friends.

A very successful and enthusiastic Summer Reading Program was held in the children's room this past summer. Of those who signed up for the program, 25 qualified to attend the party at the end of the summer. Laurie Ann Lane received the prize as the one who tried the hardest.

A financially successful used book sale was held during the summer. The Friends helped with the sale and we had several children who came to help, making signs, carrying books and any other tasks to help.

We wish to thank all of those who have shared their talents, hobbies, and collections with us to provide such an interesting and varied exhibits in the library. Many people ask "What's next?" So far, all of our exhibits have been from the town and I'm sure there is much talent we have not discovered. If you have something of interest and have not been asked, please contact June Armstrong. Don't be shy. We were all sorry to see Kay Webster leave town, she would have served as a Public Library Trustee for 24 years in March.

A recent count of our borrowers file shows we have 486 registered borrowers. My personal thanks go to the faithful library staff, June Armstrong, Assistant Librarian, Sally Head, Children's Librarian who last summer got her certificate from UNH for completing the Public Library Techniques course and Priscilla Prescott who fills in whenever and wherever needed and acts as substitute.

Thank you also go to the Brownie Troop under the leadership of Kathie Felch and Linda Buxton who helped plant some of the spring bulbs donated by Stanley Underhill and also gave to the Children's room a beautifully decorated Christmas tree. The decorations all made by the Brownies.

Thank you to both boards of trustees for their help and concern for the quality of library service in the town. If I've forgotten to thank any who helped us in any way this year, I'm sorry. Please be assured that we are grateful and consider yourself thanked.

REPORT OF THE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

During the year 1978 the Commission has held regular meetings. We have investigated the ownership of the Town's scenic roads and looked at scenic and natural areas such as Muddy Pond and Mill Brook in regards to their current and future use. The Commission has been concerned with any actions in town that might be harmful in the long run to such areas as wetlands and aquifers. The Commission offers the following conservation policies for town consideration:

- Open space represents land at its best use.
- Wetlands and aquifers should be protected for normal flow and quality.
- Forests should be used so as not to degrade them ecologically or asthetically.

During the year Robert Sargent resigned and was replaced by Charles Hodges, in December.

REPORT OF KENSINGTON MOSQUITO CONTROL COMMISSION 1978

Once again mosquito populations were somewhat lower than average -probably due, at least in part, to dry weather. We received no reports of mosquito-borne disease and very few nuisance complaints.

More and more southern New Hampshire and Maine towns are doing away with drainage and spraying programs and are switching to biological control - namely, buying and stocking predacious dragon fly larvae. Public satisfaction with the dragon fly stocking programs has been surprisingly high. Residents with mosquito problems that would be interested in trying dragon flys should contact the Commission.

One resident with a serious green head fly problem was given a box trap to use as a model so he was able to make several more.

Information on nesting boxes for insectiverous birds such as tree swallows, purple martins and many others is available on request.

PLANNING BOARD REPORT

January 23, 1979

Kensington's population has grown rapidly in the last ten years, and unavoidably as it grows its problems become more complex. Good building lots grow scarcer and more expensive. The water supply is limited and is not increasing. The problem of what to do with encroaching industry grows ever more insistent if not alarming. The growing complexity of state and federal laws tax the limited time and energy of our three selectmen, and the schools which are responsible for most of the tax burden grow ever more expensive.

Looking ahead one can only imagine a continuation of these trends, leading finally to a suburban-type community with little or no open space, ugly commercial and industrial sprawl, and a crushing tax burden. We see it happening around us, and we are poorly prepared to prevent its happening here.

To anticipate change and to plan for it in such a way as to protect the quality of life - and the tax rate - as far as possible it seems appropriate to prepare a town master plan which will guide the writing of growth-directing ordinances for the next decade or so. To be acceptable to voters it must be the work of as large a number of townspeople as possible - ideally everyone. The Planning Board has therefore proposed six study groups and appointed a chairman for each one as follows:

Industry and economic development	Paul Avery
Schools	Paula Singer
Municipal organization and buildings	Thomas Welch
Open space and recreation	George Gavutis
Future character and growth	Charles Matthews
Water supply, quality, and control	Sandra Gavutis

Each chairman is charged with assembling a study group of convenient size, consulting with all available talent in and out of town, coordinating their recommendations with the other five groups, and producing a report that summarizes their best thinking on how the town should direct its growth in the years ahead. Citizens interested in any of these six groups should feel free to make their interests known. The study groups are an effort to place the future of the town directly in the hands of as many citizens as possible.

BUILDING INSPECTORS REPORT

The amount of building decreased drastically during the past year, especially in residential home building which was undoubtedly due to excessive interest rates, ridiculously high cost of building materials and shortage of suitable building sites at a fair price.

Most builders have been cooperative, especially the developers and tradesmen to which I wish to publicly extend my thanks.

I find that some of the language pertaining to the local building regulations need some clarification in order to make them more enforceable and to that end in view I will endeavour to work with the Planning Board during the year ahead.

I hereby submit the list of Building Permits issued during 1978:

10 Houses
3 House and Garages (combination)
11 Repair or Remodel Houses
7 Storage Buildings
1 Trailer (mobile home)
4 Barns
7 Additions to Houses
3 Garages
7 Permit Revisions
11 Miscellaneous

64 Total Permits

Total estimated cost of construction $884,428.00

		TOTAL	58

During the year the department had training courses given by State Instructors in various Firemanship courses plus the usual monthly drills. Also many members attended the fire school this past fall at the County Drill yard in Brentwood.

REPORT OF DISTRICT FOREST FIRE CHIEF AND YOUR FOREST FIRE WARDEN

For more than 80 years, a cooperative effort between the State of New Hampshire and local forest fire authorities has created a forest fire prevention and suppression program that is recognized as superior throughout the United States.

Since the first forest fire laws were written in 1895, the state and local community governments have worked together to prevent and combat forest fires.

Today, 249 forest fire wardens and more than 1,800 deputy wardens are appointed every three years by the State Forester to work with the members of the State Forest Fire staff in this effort. State funds are used to pay one-half the cost of forest fire suppression costs incurred by local forest fire organizations, within pay rates established by the Governor and Council. State funds matched by local funds are used to purchase hand tools to suppress forest fires, to train local forest fire crews and in forest fire prevention work.

All outside burning, when the ground is not covered with snow, is permitted only after obtaining a written fire permit from your local Forest Fire Warden. Penalty for burning without a permit when one is required is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine up to $1,000 or a jail term of up to one year or both.

REMEMBER, ONLY YOU CAN PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

EXETER AREA VISITING NURSE ASSOCIATION, INC.

The Exeter Area Visiting Nurse Association, Inc., is a community health service that provides health care to individuals and families in their home, in the office, or in clinics. The care may be to prevent disease, promote, maintain, or restore health or it may be to minimize the effects of illness or disability.

The Association is a non-profit agency governed by a Board of Directors. This Board is made up of people who are appointed by the selectmen in your town. The association is often incorrectly thought to be a department of another health provider such as a hospital, but is in fact a separate and distinct organization.

Funding for the association comes from Medicare, Medicaid, patient fees, local taxes, and donations. Town appropriations make the service available to the town, they do not buy units of service for individuals.

The services provided are as follows:

HOME HEALTH CARE. Home visits are made on referral from physicians, patients, families, or other agencies. The nurse does treatments, dressings, irrigations, injections, and gives instructions for care. She teaches nutrition, special diets, and accident prevention as well as other aspects of health care. The Physical Therapist establishes and carries out a program to rehabilitate the patient. The Health Aide provides care under the supervision of the Registered Nurse and/or the Physical Therapist.

MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH PROGRAM. Visits are made to new or expectant mothers to provide information and instruction in the care of themselves and their babies. Well Child Clinics are held twice a month and provide the following services: Physical exams by a local pediatrician, immunizations, hearing and vision screening, lead and urine testing, special counseling, family planning and referral when appropriate. The clinics are for infants and preschool children.

ADULT SCREENING PROGRAM. Clinics are held twice a month for blood pressure and weight checks, diet and medication counseling and referrals. Flu vaccine clinics are held yearly.

MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM. Visits to patients with mental and/or emotional problems. Coordination of care between patient, family, psychiatrist and community.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASE PROGRAM. Visits to patients who have or have had or are contacts of persons with Tuberculosis for testing and/or medication and general health supervision. Instruction and/or referral for other communicable diseases.

HOSPITAL REFERRAL PROGRAM. An Agency nurse is in a local hospital five mornings a week to assist in planning, coordinating, and arranging for care at home so that a patient may move from hospital to home without any interruption in care.

VISITS MADE TO THE TOWN OF KENSINGTON. 136 nursing visits and 22 physical therapy visits were made to Kensington residents in 1978.

8,748 units of service were provided to residents of the service area between January 1, 1978 and October 31, 1978.

Information may be obtained by calling the Exeter Area Visiting Nurse office, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., 772-2981 or write to 17 Prospect Avenue, Exeter, N. H. 03833.

Kensington's Representatives, Board of Directors

REPORT OF KENSINGTON RECREATION COMMITTEE

The summer program at the town park was offered again this year and was very successful. Approximately 70 town children aged 5-12 participated in the program, which was supervised by Wendy Drew. Wendy was assisted by 4 teenagers from Kensington: Gwen George, Steven Hale, Terry Cadieux, and Terry Melanson. In addition to providing a summer of fun and learning for younger children, they contributed significantly to community improvements through various work projects in town. Funds for this program are provided by a CETA TITLE 111 SPEDY grant.

The Recreation Committee also sponsored swimming lessons for town children again this year. The Red Cross Program was taught by Laurie Swift at the Paul Kimball pool and was well attended by area children.

The Committee would like to thank all those who have contributed to the success of this years activities at the park and appeal to all citizens, young and old, to take pride in their park and help to keep it a great place for townspeople to meet and have fun.

Paula Knapp, Secretary

Kensington School District Report

All children have an equal right to profit fully from a broadly based school program. In the struggle to bring together the staff, resources and the curriculum to serve all learners the hard fact faces us all - and that is that education is costing more! Like everything else the school is not immune to the ever increasing cost of living.

For a good many years I have given my time, efforts and leadership responsibilities to preparing young people for their world. I have constantly strived for the improvement of educational opportunities for the young. I feel I have tried to consider community concerns. I am aware of the burdened taxpayer but also concerned that we continue to offer a quality education. This is essential if our students are to compete in college and in the job market. I have sensitivity to the needs of the staff to do the important job of "teaching". I have realized patience is required in bringing about needed change. I try to keep aware of the decisions of the courts as they effect the schools. Indeed the role of the Superintendent has become much more complexed in recent years.

The citizens may be interested in our Vocational Center project which will effect the AREA agreement in that students may attend any vocational program offering at no additional cost other than the regular AREA High School Tuition. The site was cleared and footings and foundation are in place. Structural steel is expected to be delivered by the time you read this, and masonry work on exterior walls will start this Spring. By fall of 1979 the building should be enclosed and interior work will proceed, along with installation of equipment. The project completion date is March 1980, and courses will be in effect for September 1980. Much work is already underway on the curriculum of the schools, and it will be carefully planned by using student interest surveys as an important planning tool. Students in the programs will spend approximately 2½ hours per day in the vocational section and the balance of time in the regular academic areas of the high school.

The Principal of the school has written a brief report which I would like to quote here:

"The new year began with teachers looking forward to new challenges and an eagerness to serve the children of Kensington. Staff changes included losing Carol Graves as Reading Co-ordinator being replaced by Phylis LoConte. Marcia Hodsdon was also replaced by Mary Lower as the part time teacher in the primary unit. Paulette Gagnon, UNH intern program, completed a successful first year and was replaced by Barbara Tryson. Physical education and Art are presently experiencing the new vitality of Patricia Aichele and Nancy Taylor respectively. All of these changes have not had adverse effects on the curriculum. They have, however, given new energy and direction to the programs.

Besides staff changes, there has been the addition of the Scott, Foresman Math levels which the teachers feel is an effective, exciting program.

The support services of Pam Biggs, Title I tutor, Donna Goodspeed, Speech Therapist and Sue Kaplan, Occupational Therapist have had immense aid in benefiting the students of Kensington.

We are looking forward to renewed progress and a successful education for all the children of Kensington."

One other area I should like to mention briefly and that is on the so-called Competency Tests which have come into wide use throughout the country in recent years. Currently we are giving Achievement Tests at grade 2, 4, 6, and 8. This compares a student's scores to scores achieved by a nationwide sampling of students. Scores are given in relation to National norms.

Recently we gave a competency tests to grade five. These tests are designed especially for use in our school system and measure how well a student does on a particular skill on knowledge in a subject area which is included in our guide of items to be taught. These can be very valuable. The State is requiring we give some sort of competency test at least three times before graduation. We expect to comply with this. Used properly the results can be a powerful tool in educational planning.

In conclusion I trust we can continue to all work together to provide a quality education at a reasonable price for the youth of this community.

Superintendent of Schools

Report of the Business Administrator

A major change will occur in the coming year in the way we construct our budget and account for our funds. The coding system and the classification of revenues and expenditures that has become familiar to many of us will be dropped and a completely new chart of financial accounts and code numbers will be employed.

This change has occurred as a result of a federal effort to bring about uniformity across the country in school financial accounting and reporting. Currently there is little consistency in this area. Consequently, financial information provided at the federal and state level is often of questionable accuracy and comparability.

The National Center for Education statistics is currently engaged in re-writing the federal manual for school accounting. A consulting firm from Atlanta, Georgia, was selected to accomplish the actual re-draft. As part of the effort, a sixteen member National Review Committee was formed to study the development of the draft and make recommendations and changes. I feel most fortunate to have been selected to serve on that committee. It continues to be a very worthwhile experience.

The nature of information used to make decisions in education has undergone an important shift. In the past, the chart of accounts was designed to demonstrate responsibility for public funds in terms of resource inputs rather than outcomes or results. With an increasing demand for information about outcomes, techniques must be modified to be responsive to these new demands.

Methods of financial accounting and reporting long in use are now being altered to meet the information needs of government agencies, school officials, and the general public. These needs have grown out of a concern for the rising cost of education, the proliferation of legislation that has been enacted in recent years mandating numerous changes in program offerings and the need for clear and detailed information to assist in the planning and decision making that follows.

The three or four digit budget code in use for many years and used for the final time in the budget printed elsewhere in this book will be replaced with a new multi-digit code which, rather than being just an account number, is an identification of each financial transaction. This system will permit closer analysis of financial data and provide management with better financial information on which to base decisions.

Change is never totally comfortable especially when that change is away from something as familiar as our present account codes. But I believe that this is far from being "change for change sake." It will lead to better financial information for management and the general public.

Students Conduct Bus Regulations

1. A pupil shall enter the bus, sit down, and remain seated until the bus stops at his destination. The driver may assign definite seats to students if it is felt necessary.
2. A pupil shall enter and leave the bus by the front door, except in an emergency. Pupils may not reboard the bus if they leave. There will be no stops to procure food, mail, etc.
3. There shall be no smoking on the bus.
4. Any pupil whose conduct endangers the physical or moral safety of the others may lose his privilege of riding on the bus. This includes throwing anything on the bus or through the window, and keeping aisles free from boots, lunch boxes, and other objects. Fighting and fooling on the bus will not be tolerated.
5. Pupils who must cross the road after leaving the bus should cross in front of the bus and on signal of the driver.
6. Pupils at home must be ready to take the bus when it arrives. Drivers will not ordinarily wait for pupils who are not ready.
7. The bus driver should report the names of students who violate bus regulations to the Principal concerned. Bus driver, however, should disembark the student at his regular stop. A student reported for a violation is subject to suspension from the bus and/or school at the discretion of the school Principal.
  - A. Depending on the situation, the Principal and/or Assistant Principal may:
    - (1) Discuss the incident with the student and warn him of the consequences of any further offenses.
    - (2) Phone and/or write the parents of the student, informing them of the incident and possible future loss of bus privileges.
    - (3) Remove the student from the bus for a period up to five days and inform the student's parents by letter (copy to Superintendent of Schools and notification of School Board by phone). Suspension, however, shall not begin until the next school day following the day of notification of suspension is sent to the pupil's parent or legal guardian.
    - (4) The parent or guardian of a pupil who has been denied the right to ride a school bus for disciplinary reasons may appeal within ten days of suspension to the authority that suspended the pupil's right.
    - (5) Until the appeal is heard or, if the suspension of the student's right to ride the school bus is upheld, it shall be the parent's or guardian's responsibility to provide transportation to and from school for that pupil for the period of suspension.
  - B. If a student becomes involved in another bus offense after having been once removed from the bus, the Principal and/or Assistant Principal may remove the student for a period up to twenty school days. Any suspension which lasts beyond twenty school days must be approved by the School Board.

C. Any subsequent offenses by a student will result in his prompt removal from the bus and referral of the matter to the Superintendent of Schools and/or School Board with the expectation that bus privileges may be lost for the remainder of the school year.

8. Only those children eligible to ride school buses are to do so, and they are to ride only on their assigned busses.

9. There shall be no exceptions for school children ineligible for transportation unless a doctor's statement shows medical need for transportation.
