ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Campton School Board:

To you and, through you to the people of Campton, my first annual report as your Superintendent of Schools is now submitted. The report discusses those plans and policies which are of interest to parents and presents those principles of school procedure which are the basic of sound training for the children of this town. Only a few important statistics are here given.

My work in your schools has been most pleasant. The interest in and generous provision for public education prove that the people of your community recognize the importance of proper training for the duties and responsibilities of adult life. They are determined that their children shall have every possible advantage within the public means. Your teachers and your Superintendent are likewise pledged to the best effort of which we are capable because we are well aware that our success can be no greater than the achievement accomplished by those whom you place in our care.

Since the first day of school an effort has been made to improve attendance both as to punctuality and regularity. Teachers report to me at the end of each four-week period the amount of absence and tardiness recorded in the school register. Reports from all schools in Union 48 are arranged from highest to lowest per cent of attendance and a copy of the tabulation is handed to each teacher who keeps a register. These reports have been of considerable interest to pupils who are given a real incentive to improve their previous record and to earn a place at the head of the list. The reasons for this emphasis on attendance will next be stated.

Since the business of education is the most important single undertaking of any unit of government, it is highly desirable that pupils get the most out of the public investment in their future. Loss of school time causes corresponding loss to the individual because absentee or make-up work is seldom as valuable as work done in class and in the regular course of events. We ought not to allow unnecessary absence to rob any child of his full educational opportunity. Furthermore, both absence and tardiness strongly shape the attitude of a pupil towards his school. They also are a powerful influence in forming habits that will be carried into adult life when school days are over. The person who is frequently late or absent will very likely attempt the same thing when he goes to work, but it cannot be continued without injury to him. Your schools will fail to do their full duty if they permit the formation of habits and practices which will hinder your children in the years ahead.

Proper and ample teaching materials are needed if our teachers are to produce the results you have a right to expect. Uniform textbook equipment is an indispensable tool of instruction. Accordingly, we are standardizing reading not only in this town, but throughout the Union by extending the basal reading system introduced by my predecessor in some schools. That system will be carried upward, grade by grade, as need dictates and finances permit. All pupils will then have the advantage of the best findings of educational research and attractive textbook construction. They will also find it easier when they transfer from one school to another within any town or in the Union. Reading is chosen because that is the foundation on which our educational process is built. Textbooks will be made uniform in other subjects as we are able to do so with due regard for the expense involved. In authorizing such expenditures it is both my duty and my policy to exercise the same prudent care as though my own money were being spent.

The next logical step is to determine whether we are really getting the results we should get. That can most accurately be done by using standard tests to measure our accomplishment. Such a testing program is now under way to help us know more definitely what our children are actually doing and the ability they have to meet the standard set. The results of those tests, if wisely used, can be of great assistance as we attempt to meet the needs of every child.

Eventually, we hope to have a reading table in every school room to which pupils may go for recreational reading. These will have to be built up slowly as we see our way clear to make the necessary purchases. Gifts from interested friends and parents will always be welcome. A reading table furnishes an incentive to early completion of work which may be recognized by granting reading privileges. Besides present pleasure and growth children will also benefit by forming the reading habit so necessary when their education is continued in high school and beyond.

It is my belief, based on long experience, that the future good of every child can best be served by withholding promotion in those cases where there is a reasonable doubt as to the readiness of an individual to do work in the next grade. The educational process is so carefully planned and carried out that any gaps in foundational training are bound to plague a child in his later progress. Any pupil is happier and more successful when the work assigned to him is within the range of his ability and preparation. We do not deal justly with a child when he is pushed into work for which a proper foundation is lacking. Temporary disappointment of either parent or child should never tempt us to lose sight of the child's total school success. Every decision will be made with a single purpose in mind—to do the best we know how for each child.

In the lives of many children there comes a time when further school attendance is of questionable value. Whatever may be the cause of that condition important decisions affecting the future of all school pupils must be made. I am convinced that certain pupils have now achieved the limit of their public school accomplishment and that their further school attendance is unnecessary. It is my recommendation that they be excused from further school attendance.

In conclusion, your Superintendent voices his deep appreciation of the friendly cooperation and courtesy extended by pupils, teachers and the Campton School Board.

Respectfully submitted,

ARTHUR S. ROLLINS,

Superintendent of Schools,

Plymouth, New Hampshire.
