PROMOTIONS

The following numbers of promotions in respective grades were made in June:

Grades	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Totals	19	16	19	17	22	23	21	23	13	8	13	13

Promotions in the elementary grades were made on the following points: regularity of attendance, term rank, standard tests, and regular tests given by the teachers.

Metropolitan Achievement Tests were given: one at midyear and one in June.

The Standard Graduation examination for elementary schools by Otis was given to the eighth grade.

These tests are very helpful in the gradation and placement of our pupils. By their use, much of the personal equation of the teacher is eliminated. They show not only the strong features but also the weak of our educational system.

REPORT OF HEADMASTER OF TROY HIGH SCHOOL

To the Superintendent of Schools:

I herewith submit my report as Headmaster of Troy High School.

ACTIVITIES

The High School paper, "The Trojan," sponsored by Miss Katherine Gage and a very capable student staff published an Easter and a Graduation issue, during the school year 1937-38, both of which proved to be editorial as well as financial successes. Much favorable comment was received from administrators and school paper sponsors of other schools in the state for the splendid work exemplified in these two copies. The editorial staff consisted of Olive Haskins, Editor-in-Chief; Beverly Parker, Assistant Editor; and Elizabeth Rogers, Business Manager. The "Thanksgiving number," published this year under an editorial staff headed by Beverly Parker as Editor-in-Chief, was equally as successful. Another graduation issue, which is to contain the pictures of all of the graduates, is planned for the end of the year.

Music, under Mrs. Mildred Whitcomb, has taken on added interest as is evidenced by the willing cooperation of the pupils in the formation of a mixed glee club and school orchestra. The orchestra, but recently organized, is badly in need of more recruits and Mrs. Whitcomb is trying to interest pupils in the grades as well as in the High School. Mr. Hendrickson and an assistant are teaching the rudiments of string and wind instruments during school hours to all pupils interested. The orchestra is being organized with this group as a nucleus. I hope that the pupils will receive much encouragement from their parents to participate in this way.

Considerable interest has been displayed by the pupils in the carrying on of manipulative projects in a Home Economics club, sponsored by Miss Gage, and a Woodworking Club, conducted by the headmaster. These two clubs meet on each Tuesday and Thursday during the last period of the day, which is activity period. On Mondays, during this same activity period, drill in the fundamental processes is given to all pupils of the High School, and on Wednesdays the period is used for chorus singing and Glee Club. Assemblies are being held once each week under the direction of the Student Council. Every other week assembly programs are given by various school classes. To date some very fine programs have been presented.

On December 17th the Senior Class presented the play, "One in a Million," under the direction of Miss Katherine Gage. The play was a striking success both dramatically and financially. Rudolph Valonen, Prescott Robbins, Irene Tahtinen, Beverly Parker, Bernadette Duprey, Evelyn Gove, Harvey Trombly, and Paul Girouard gave excellent performances.

In addition to his regular class work and his duties as general treasurer of the High School Activity Funds (a report of which appears in this booklet), Mr. Hackler is carrying on a fine program of youth guidance for the younger boys of the school in his capacity as leader of the Y. M. C. A. sponsored "Pioneers."

One hundred and twenty dollars was again allotted to Troy High School for the year 1938-39 by the National Youth Administration to assist worthy and needy pupils to continue their high school education. This year two of our pupils are taking advantage of this opportunity.

ATHLETICS

I feel that athletics have a proper place in the school and that here in Troy they are not being over-emphasized. Under the very able coaching of Mr. James Noucas, who replaced Miss Helen Rice as sixth grade teacher, the boys have had a very successful year at basket ball, and are looking forward to an equally successful baseball season. The defeat, by our boys, of such teams as Marlboro, Walpole, Alstead, and Hancock, has done much to prove the desirability of good coaching, not only as it relates to the development of the team as a whole, but also to the development of the individual in teaching him how to coordinate his muscular and thinking processes. It is needless to add any mention of the greatly increased school spirit which has resulted from a winning team. Mr. Noucas has also aided materially in rebuilding the girl's team, which was necessary due to the graduation of so many of its members last June. In addition to his work with the athletic teams, Mr. Noucas, who is a trained physical education director, is devoting two periods per week to the teaching of physical education to all pupils in grades four through twelve. This work is carried on in the Town Hall and on the school playground. In speaking of athletics I cannot refrain from mentioning the need and the desirability of a more adequate gymnasium provided with the proper facilities necessary for healthful play.

SCHOLARSHIP

In an effort to prove or disprove a popular local issue concerning the relative value of a two year versus a four year high school in Troy, I have carried on as extensive a survey as possible, with such available records as are contained in the school together with information gathered from past pupils, to determine to some degree the merits of the two procedures as measured by relative attendance and by the performance of the graduates. I have attempted to picture the relationship between the two systems by a comparison of the graduates' performances and the attendance facts of the four years of our present four year high school with the performance of the graduates and the attendance facts of the previous four years during which our high school pupils completed their eleventh and twelfth years at Keene High School. As I see it, this is the only possible method of making a fair and accurate comparison of the two systems—a comparison which is not effected, to a very substantial degree, by any of a variety of personal factors which might readily enter into a comparison of this type. Made, as it is, on the basis of but four years for the two groups, might appear as insufficient proof of the relative values. Some salient points stand out, however, that are both interesting and worthy of mention later. All available facts are pictured in the following table:

Class	No. Pupils Entered Grade 9.	No. Pupils Completed Grade 10.	No. Pupils Entered Grade 11.	No. Pupils Graduated From High School.	No. of Graduates That Attended Post-Sec. Schools.
1931	23	18	14	14	6	Grades 11 & 12 at Keene High School
1932	18	15	6	5	2
1933	22	13	10	9	4
1934	16	12	8	6	3
Totals	79	58	38	34	15
						73% of those that entered grade 9.
						65% went on to grade 11.
						42% of those that entered grade 9.
						44% of graduates entered post-sec. school.
1935	23	16	16	12	4	Grades 9-12 at Troy High School
1936	22	17	13	11	3
1937	24	17	15	15	5
1938	25	19	14	13	7
Totals	94	69	58	51	19
						73% of those that entered grade 9.
						84% went on to grade 11.
						65% of those that entered grade 9.
						37% of graduates entered post-sec. school.

From the foregoing table the following points deserve consideration.

1. There was an 18% increase in the number of pupils entering grade nine upon the establishment of the four year high school.
2. There was a marked increase of almost 20% in the number of pupils who remained in school after the tenth grade to go on to grade eleven, after the founding of the four year school.
3. Of those that had entered grade nine, there was an increase of 23% in the number which graduated from high school in Troy over the number that graduated from Keene.
4. The number of graduates (19) of Troy High that have furthered their education at post-secondary institutions gives a slightly lower percentage than the number of graduates (15) of Keene High who took advanced training. It must be considered, however, that we are dealing with a very small group in each case, that from Troy High four have gone on to a school of college level as compared with but one from the Keene High group, and that the Troy High graduates are all four years younger than the other group and may yet overcome the slight percentage advantage by soon deciding upon further schooling.

I do not think it necessary to draw any long conclusions from the foregoing—the facts speak for themselves. One conclusion should be stressed, however, and that is that attempts to maintain such a scholarship standard, that we can have our pupils accepted at college by our certificate, have been well rewarded. It would also appear significant that at the same time we have not neglected to interest and hold in school until graduation those who have not the desire or means to continue their education in post-secondary institutions. If I were asked for recommendations concerning the school, I would say without any reservations whatsoever, that the school should continue as one of four years, that the support which has heretofore been given to Keene High be transferred to Troy, that the town of Troy and its inhabitants become more aware of the valuable asset which their high school is to them, and that if there are shortcomings in the courses or curriculums of the school to correct them without loss of time.

As a school officer, I hereby invite you, the citizens and parents of Troy, to visit your educational plant more often, that you may better be fitted to judge and constructively criticise the present administration, or to suggest improvements. You will always be made welcome on such occasions, and cannot help but be enlightened on the manner in which your children are being taught, and the use which is being made of your financial support.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the Superintendent of Schools for his administrative and supervisory aid and support, the teachers for their untiring cooperative efforts, the pupils for their admirable loyalty to the school and staff, and the citizens of Troy for their moral and financial backing; all of which has done so much toward making Troy High School stand out as a leader in its field of endeavor.

Respectfully submitted,

GERALD H. FAUNCE
Headmaster.

REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF MUSIC

---

With pleasure I submit this report of the music department of the Troy schools.

During 1937-38 a Harmonica Club was formed, composed of twenty-two members from Grades IV, V, VI, and two joint concerts were held with the Dublin Harmonica Club,—in Dublin and Troy. Two and three-part music was played under the leadership of each Club's child-director.

Three High School girls, Elizabeth Rogers, 1st Soprano, Olive Haskins, 2nd Soprano, and Claire Parker, Alto, were selected to attend the N. H. High School Music Festival in Nashua, May 12-14, 1938 and were accompanied by their Supervisor. They with five girl-and-boy Jaffrey High School Glee Club members joined once each week after school hours in a rehearsal with the Supervisor, memorizing each of the five selections. Just before the Festival the two groups, Miss Laura Kononan accompanying on the piano, sang the choral numbers in assemblies of The Junior High and High Schools of respective towns with the superintendent and school board invited. The All-State Chorus numbered 250 and the All-State Orchestra 250 for the Friday evening concert.

This year the number of Supervisor's visits were cut in half, necessitating the elimination of some phases of the music work, but the teachers have carried on faithfully, achieving much fine grade work. I wish to mention the gratifying advance of the sixth grade to three part singing.

As this report goes to press, a school orchestra of eleven members has been formed and one rehearsal held under direction of the Supervisor. It is urgent that more pupils avail themselves of the opportunity for instrumental instruction under the teaching of Mr. Hendrickson and Mr. Farr who hold classes at the school each week.

The response of boy singers in the High School has been pleasing,—their request for Glee Club making it wise to organize a Mixed Glee Club instead of Girls' Glee Club as in recent years. We are about to begin preparations for the All-State Festival to be held in Concord next May.

I wish to express appreciation for the continuous evidence of school spirit evidenced in the music classes, because of the promotion of this element by Headmaster Faunce and other teachers.

In closing I wish to express gratitude for cooperation of our Superintendent, the School Board and teachers.

Respectfully submitted,

MILDRED WHITCOMB

Supervisor of Music.
