

This is a reproduction of the original and typed transcription of the second page of a letter from Ivorey Cobb to his wife Elsie Maragret Stanton Cobb. Accompanying pages are missing. Exact date is unknown, the year recorded is an estimate.

2) or nearby) next Sunday-week. So you know what gripes are being made by those who want to bring their wives here but cannot because of restrictions.

We continue to compile info and statistics regarding the return of Dependents but those are routine planning studies.

About one week ago, our TC section was quite enthusiastic over the possibility of Dep'ts returning. Today the TC section's morale hit a new low in this regard even though we continue to study it. Various factors known to us that affect the return were highly favorable at one time, but have been getting increasingly gloomy this week.

So don't get too enthusiastic about coming here. It's not yet out of the uncertain stage.

I guess I may as well set my plans for Germany or elsewhere and quit hoping for Trieste. However, it is difficult to quit hoping. So therefore I am forcing myself to be optimistic about it all.

2)

or nearby) next Sunday – week. So you know what gripes are being made by those who want to bring their wives here but cannot because of restrictions.

We continue to compile info and statistics regarding the return of Dependents but those are routine planning studies.

About one week ago, our TC section was quite enthusiastic over the possibility of Dept's returning. Today the TC section's morale hit a new low in this regard even though we continue to study it. Various factors known to us that affect the return were highly favorable at one time, but have been getting increasingly gloomy this week.

So don't get too enthusiastic about coming here. It's not yet out of the uncertain stage.

I guess I may as well set my plans for Germany or elsewhere and quit hoping for Trieste. However, it is difficult to quit hoping. So therefore I am forcing myself to be optimistic about it all.