

Recommended Citation

Editors, Perspectives (2013) "Biographies," Perspectives: Vol. 5, Article 8.

Available at: <https://scholars.unh.edu/perspectives/vol5/iss1/8>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Journals and Publications at University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Perspectives by an authorized editor of University of New Hampshire Scholars' Repository. For more information, please contact Scholarly.Communication@unh.edu.

Perspectives

Volume 5 Spring 2013

Article 8

5-1-2013

Biographies

Perspectives Editors

University of New Hampshire, Durham

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholars.unh.edu/perspectives>

Biographies

Undergraduate Students

Benjamin Bullock (Co-Editor) is a junior Sociology major and Women's Studies minor at the University of New Hampshire. His literature review on adolescent alcohol use was written for Sociological Analysis. He is a research assistant in the UNH Family Research Laboratory and assists on the Coös Youth Study through UNH's Carsey Institute. His hobbies include reading, baking, and participating in the social world.

Audrey Hicky is a senior at the University of New Hampshire. She is a double major in Sociology and Psychology and will graduate as a University Honors Program Presidential Scholar in May. She wrote this paper for Sexuality in Cross Cultural Perspectives. After graduation, she is plans to travel and farm until she decides on a graduate program.

Catherine Lee is a junior at the University of New Hampshire. She will graduate in Fall of 2013 with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Geography. She wrote this paper for her Research Methods course. Her academic interests include social stratification, human rights advocacy, and disaster mitigation. She is a part of the UNH Active Minds and SHARPP.

Jared Liamos is a senior at the University of New Hampshire. He is a double major in Sociology and Justice Studies. He is also a member of Alpha Kappa Delta, the International Sociology Honor Society, and Alpha Sigma Phi – the National Criminal Justice Honor Society. He wrote this paper for Urban Sociology. He plans to go into a career in law enforcement after graduation.

Whitney Mills is a senior at the University of New Hampshire. She is a dual-major in Sociology and Justice Studies and has minors in Spanish and Race, Culture, Power. She wrote this paper for Research Methods. Whitney has an interest in women's health and plans to volunteer at a birth clinic in the Philippines when she graduates.

Alexandru Panait is a junior Sociology major and History minor at the University of New Hampshire. His paper began as his final paper for Sociological Analysis. Alex is a regular participant in the UNH Undergraduate Research Colloquium. After graduating he plans to apply to graduate school to study the sociology of contemporary culture with a particular focus on media and technology in the United States and Japan.

Sharon Tarleton (Co-Editor) is a junior at UNH. She double majors in Sociology and Psychology with a minor in Classics. Her other academic interests include Family Studies, Social Work, and Political Science – which she hopes to pursue during her senior year as a possible second minor. After traveling extensively, especially around the Mediterranean, she intends to further her education through graduate studies most likely in the field of social work with an emphasis on policy. Her hobbies include reading, writing poetry, singing, and talking comics.

Graduate Students & Faculty

Melissa Day (mdz45@unh.edu) and Matthew Cutler (mjculter@unh.edu) are the graduate student editors and mentors for Perspectives. Melissa and Matthew are both Sociology Ph.D. students at the University of New Hampshire.

Rebecca Glauber Ph.D. (Rebecca.Glauber@unh.edu) is an Assistant Professor in the Sociology Department at UNH. Dr. Glauber is the chair of the Undergraduate Committee and the faculty advisor/mentor for Perspectives (2009-2013).