Sighting occurred while Hills were traveling south on U.S. Route 3. Shortly after passing Indian Head, they encountered mysterious object at close range (X marks approximate spot). Broken line indicates possible route couple took during “abduction” sequence. X near Waterville is possible site of second encounter.