B. Thompson, Laconia, N. H., and recorded in Belknap County Registry of Deeds in Drawer E, number 174, in exchange for a quitclaim deed from him to the Town of the land over which the Town has built a road running between the cottage formerly of Howard Ballou and the cottage of Arthur Spring, now the property of Joseph L. Boutin, and of such part of Boutin land lying on the north side of the old road to Mohawk Point as may be necessary to straighten the curve on said road between the railroad and said Boutin cottage, provided that the deed from the Town to Boutin shall reserve for the public a right of way to the lake for the sole purpose of harvesting ice and drawing water from the lake;

12. To see if the Town will raise and appropriate a sum of money to be expended on the Camp Road, back of LaFlam's dance hall at Winnisquam;

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Members of the School Board, Parents, and Voters of the Belmont School District:

The schools are in the throes of adjusting themselves to trying conditions. Costs of scholars' supplies are rising, teachers are being enticed to higher paying positions elsewhere, enrollments are increasing and school needs in this "international" age are great. The conditions under which the schools have been maintained since the last annual report are recorded herein.

Building and Equipment

The composition shingles on the Gale School had disintegrated so much that they have to be replaced during the summer. The gabled roof and the steep-sided cupola are hard surfaces to shingle. A very reliable roofing concern, Charles E. Doughtinett Company, of Franklin, performed this work prior to the opening of the fall term.

The selectmen have agreed to install lights at the rear of the two school buildings, operated on the town lighting system. By illuminating the dark areas at the back of the buildings, juveniles should be less inclined to congregate there and annoy groups at school functions or to destroy school property.

A room in the cellar of the Gale school has been cleared and cleaned by the janitor and awaits redecorating. This part of the basement should prove a very satisfactory place in which to prepare hot meals for pupils.

The Federal government appropriated funds for a permanent school lunch program by giving money to partially purchase equipment and to subsidize the cost of meals. One of the great needs in Belmont has been cooking facilities which could be used and not interfere with high school economics classes. By application, Belmont has been apportioned $1,335.10 of Federal funds for equipment, provided the District pays a like sum and spends $2,670.20 or more in all for approved equipment.

In a survey conducted last year by the headmaster and teachers, it was found that about fifty boys and girls desired to purchase a hot meal at the school noon hour. Under the careful management of an efficient cook, it might be possible to pay the expenses of a school lunch program serving an average of fifty pupils daily.

The replacement cost of buildings damaged by fire has advanced materially in recent years. The present insurance coverage on the two buildings may not be as large as the district will wish to carry: High School, $22,000; Gale School, $5,000.

Teachers and Supervisors

At the High School, the services of Mr. John H. Starie as Headmaster, Miss Doris Glaude and Mrs. Velma Lucier Simpson were sought and retained, for which we are fortunate because their experience stabilized the staff.

Mrs. Grace Sargent, teacher of junior high school mathematics and science, resigned to accept a more lucrative position in a Vermont private school. We were pleased to obtain the services of Mr. Fred A. Rogler, of Manchester, an experienced teacher in Rhode Island, graduate of the University of New Hampshire, to handle the mathematics work and manual training for the younger boys.

Miss Sally A. Kott accepted a contract in Tilton, leaving the prospect of an unfilled home economics position here, because of the dearth of trained teachers in this specialized field. We were glad to learn that Mrs. Doris D. Griffin of Gilmanton, with experience in teaching young pupils, had had home economics training at the Keene Teachers' College. She accepted appointment in Belmont and, in addition, has furnished a means of transporting some children residing temporarily in the vicinity of the Swiss Chateau at Rocky Pond.

At the Gale School, S/sgt. James F. McKeon returned to the principalship on March 4, 1946, but decided to accept the benefits under the G. I. Bill and to study this year at the University of New Hampshire. His return to the head of the Gale School necessitated the temporary release of Mrs. Cecile L. Smith for a three month period.

In the fall, at the opening of school, Mrs. Editha K. Cowing became the principal of the Gale School and Mrs. Smith returned to take Mrs. Moulton's place.

Mrs. Agnes H. Moulton accepted a job at the Gilford Grade School, near her home, and Miss Alberta Nelson went to Rollinsford, within easy commuting distance of her residence in Rochester. Their places were filled by experienced teachers: Miss Wilhelmina B. Reed of Northfield and Mrs. Helen H. Rego of Tilton.

Miss Priscilla E. Marrotte continues as music supervisor.

The dearth of rooms and apartments in town has complicated the employment of teachers the last few years. At the present time only two of the nine full-time teachers live in Belmont. This removes from the community activities the support of several fine persons, a condition which we deplore, but which we cannot remedy while living accommodations are so scarce.

Health

Due to changes in the nursing service in some of the five districts comprising Supervisory Union No. 59, of which Belmont is a part, it was possible to have one school nurse instead of three attend to the health program. Mrs. Lurline H. McCook of Tilton, for eighteen years the district and school nurse in Tilton and Northfield, was selected. It is now possible to have a coordinated health program and to note steady improvement in the well-being of boys and girls.

High School Costs

Each year the State Board of Education publishes the "Costs of Instruction" for the high schools of the state. In the latest list there were over eighty high schools recorded. Belmont's place was thirteenth from the lowest ($106.59 per pupil) while the state average was $123.79. Belmont's cost was about $17 less per pupil than the average for all New Hampshire high schools listed.

High School Needs

For the next three years there may be a greater number of boys than girls enrolled in the High School. The prospective enrollment for grades IX to XII for next year approximates eighty, of which about fifty will be boys.

The large number of boys and girls attending the school calls for early consideration of school needs.

1. The shop program, general shop and cabinetmaking should be offered alternately in the first two years of high school work.

2. The need for a gymnasium connected with the high school building becomes more urgent each year. A gymnasium would permit the development of a well-rounded extra-curricular program. It would provide a place for noon-hour activities, thereby preventing damage to the building under the present crowded conditions, and it could serve community needs.

3. There may be a need for more classroom space, especially for science groups.

4. The Headmaster's teaching load should be relieved so he has a chance to do the counseling and to guide the pupils more than at present. There is an increase in the administrative load as the size of the enrollment becomes greater, involving clerical work, record keeping and administrative duties.

5. Subject offerings, now provided for in part by correspondence courses, should be discussed and teacher time secured to teach the subjects which pupils may require in these post-war years.

Correspondence Courses

Correspondence courses have been a fairly effective and quite economical way of enriching the subject offerings at Belmont High School in the last two years. No resident teacher has been provided for these. The lessons are purchased from the University of Nebraska Extension Service. The pupils are supervised in completing these lessons by one or more of the regular high school teachers, but failures occur. Possibly some pupils would not fail in these correspondence lessons if greater guidance and supervision could be given.

The cost of the lessons is small compared with the value to the pupils. The total cost is much less than the charge for employing an additional teacher. In addition, a much wider variety of courses can be obtained to suit the individual pupil's needs.

During the last two years, 1945-46 and 1946-47, twelve different correspondence courses have been purchased. They are as follows:

Name of Course	Enrolled	Passed	Failed	Incomplete
Elementary Typewriting I	16	12	3	1
Elementary Typewriting II	3	2		1
Elementary Shorthand	4	1		3
Mechanical Drawing I	3	1	1	1
Mechanical Drawing II	1			1
Farm Accounting	1	1
General Agriculture	1	1
Farm Mechanics	1	1
Automotive Mechanics	3			3
Plane Geometry	1			1
Algebra I	1			1
Beginning Radio	1			1
	36	19	4	13

In correspondence courses, pupils are "on their own" to a greater extent than in regular high school classes taught by a teacher. While a schedule for the completion of lessons is set up, pupils have to strive hard to maintain this. The accomplishments of pupils who pass the correspondence courses are good. With diligent pupils, the subject offerings in a small high school like Belmont's can be enlarged tremendously.

New Subjects

We are living in an "international age." There is a great need for global understanding by adolescents who are struggling with their own "growing" problems. Two new subjects have been introduced: World Geography in Grades IX and X, and Personal Psychology in Grades XI and XII.

In addition to these, Glee Club participation bears credit towards graduation.

Veterans

Four veterans have enrolled in the high school this year. Two of these have passed the General Education Development Tests (G. E. D.) and have been granted High School Equivalency Certificates by the State Board of Education.

These veterans have been successful in adapting to school life and have entered into many school activities. Their contributions to the classroom work are of a very positive character. Two of the veterans plan to enter post-secondary institutions, and two are taking terminal courses.

The G. E. D. tests were also administered to a non-veteran adult in order to qualify her for a hairdresser's certificate.

Diplomas to veterans have been granted by the School Board:

KENNETH HEATH

FRANK HUNKINS

Area Vocational School in Laconia

The 1945 Legislature established two State Trade Schools and several area vocational schools. The nearest Area Vocation School to Belmont is the one now being operated in conjunction with the day sessions of the Laconia High School.

Two boys from Belmont have enrolled in the Laconia Area Vocational School. Richard Shaw is taking the Agriculture course and Peter Benoit, the shop course.

It is likely that boys and girls living in Belmont but near Laconia may be attracted by the offerings in the Area Vocational School, but lack of economical transportation from Belmont Village to Laconia may prevent some pupils from taking advantage of it.

The Belmont School District pays tuition for this training to Laconia, but, in turn, it is reimbursed from State funds.

For many years, Mr. Clarence Dearbon has taken great interest in the schools and has given many hours a week to janitor and maintenance work. When he notified the School Board last spring that he would not be available for further employment, the Board considered several potential candidates for the position. Mr. Clifford Robichaud was the happy choice and he is giving an excellent account of himself.

Advancement

The theme which is guiding the teachers in their work with pupils this year is: "Our Thinking in the Future Must Be Worldwide." In advancing this theme, a teachers' meeting was held at the opening of the fall term. At this the State Director of Elementary School Services, Miss Gertrude M. Lewis, spoke on, "Geography for All Learners." The new school nurse, Mrs. Lurline H. McCock, used a colored film, "Teacher Observations of School Children."

Conclusion

In submitting this seventh annual report, it is a pleasure to express my appreciation again to the members of the School Board, the teachers, the nurse and citizens for their efforts and interest in supporting good schools.

Respectfully submitted,

DONALD P. MATOON
