School Board Report.

ELM SCHOOL.

Both terms were taught by Lizzie G. Pulsifer. Miss Pulsifer is an experienced teacher, and the closing examinations were all that could be desired.

ROLL OF HONOR: First term, Andrew C. Corliss; Second term, Herbert Wilson, Charley Merrill.

BEEDE SCHOOL.

Summer term taught by Nellie C. Webster, who is an earnest worker in the school room. The scholars made good progress in all their studies.

Fall term was taught by Rose R. Sanborn.

GREENLEAF SCHOOL.

Summer term taught by Rose R. Sanborn; fall term by Rosie G. Worthen. This was Miss Worthen’s second term of teaching, but she ranks with older and more experienced teachers. The school was well governed and good advancement was made.

CARR SCHOOL.

Summer term taught by Jason E. Sanborn. The closing examinations showed an improvement that was complimentary to both teacher and scholars.

Fall term taught by Nellie E. Webster, who met with her usual good success. This term was only nine weeks, hence an extra week is due the school next year.

Respectfully,

ROSE R. SANBORN.
ASQUAM BRIDGE SCHOOL.

Both terms were very much broken by sickness, which seriously affected the attendance, and consequently lessened the progress.

Spring term taught by Miss Geneva Barbour, who worked hard for the advancement of her scholars. That Miss Barbour was deeply interested in her school, was manifested by awarding as a stimulant to her pupils very handsome and valuable prizes, which were won by Misses Lela Cox, Minnie Sanborn, and Mary Evans.

Fall term very successfully taught by Mrs. Delia E. Kelley, an efficient teacher of long experience. The progress for the year was very satisfactory considering the irregularity of attendance.

ROLL OF HONOR: First term, Lela Cox, Minnie Sanborn, Maud Piper, Nicholas Evans, Bertie Evans.

PRESCOTT SCHOOL.

Taught by Mrs. Winnie E. Willoughby, who labored earnestly and conscientiously in the interest of her pupils. Her painstaking and untiring patience resulted in a marked improvement in all the studies, and particularly reading.

TRUE SCHOOL.

Both teachers have taught their first school. Spring term very satisfactorily by Miss Mabel A. Bailey, who won the confidence and esteem of her pupils and respect of their parents.

Fall term by Miss Georgianna Boynton. Only a few pupils were present at its close, among whom Miss Edna Bennett did much credit to herself and teacher by her prompt answers in all her studies. She had the highest rank in deportment, and has not been tardy nor absent during the year. Good progress was made with those who attended regularly.

EAST HOLDERNESS SCHOOL.

Taught by Mrs. Callie Baker, who has fully sustained her previous reputation as a successful and faithful teacher. In this school the number of pupils on the roll of honor exceeds all others in town. This fact speaks well for school, teacher, and parents.
ROLL OF HONOR: First term, Cora M. Berry, Susie E. Piper, Garrie M. Piper, Ethel J. Piper, Bennie W. Piper, Preston W. Piper, John A. Perkins. Second term, Cora M. Berry, Susie E. Piper, Ethel J. Piper, Emma L. Greener, Bennie W. Piper, Preston R. Piper.

COXBORO' SCHOOL.

Spring term taught by Miss Vina Hawkins. This was Miss Hawkins' first experience in teaching. She was energetic and persevering in her efforts, which were attended with success, and gave good satisfaction.

Fall term, by Mrs. Etta W. Cox, an experienced and thorough teacher. The progress was excellent, and the closing examination perfectly satisfactory.

The text books were returned in very good condition.

Respectfully submitted,

Laura J. Shaw.
