Research question

What does the Marine Corps want Junior leaders to know?

Granite State College

Research findings

The Marine Corps demands that all leaders know 8 things -

- The leadership principles
- The leadership traits
- The leadership styles
- The known
- The unknown
- The mind
- The body
- The spirit

Conclusion

If the Marine Corps has all this information, why are Noncommissioned Officers failing?

Recommendations

- More time allocated to NCO's
- Specific training to run concurrently with group level exercises
- A separation of NCO's from general population
