Raligh N.C. May 22 # /65-Dear Emmy. Ces & promised to write to you again as soon as & arrived at this place, I am afraid you will think that my promise has not been kept very well. Paris ed here on Friday night. but chief not prid any letters, as they had just sent the last to my address at Wilmington. I have been so very importinate in my corresponden. ce lately, and there is so little to till gan, that I feel but little interest in writing. There are a great where are a great many stories gains, as rosmal. in the Reg!, but there is nothing, that is reliable, known in regard to being mistered our, It is likely that

Transcription:

Raleigh N.C. May 22<sup>d/65</sup>

Dear Emmy, As I promised to write to you again as soon as I arrived at this place, I am afraid you will think that my promise has not been kept very well. I arriv ed here on Friday night, but did not find any letters, as they had just sent the last to my address at Wilmington. I have been so very unfortunate in my corresponden ce lately, and there is so little to tell you, that I feel but little interest in writing. There are a great many stories going, as usual in the Regt but there is nothing, that is reliable, known in regard to being mustered out. It is likely that we shall be ordered home, before a greatwhil, but I cannot till zon anything definite about it. Do not expect us too soon, and de, get disappointed am very anxious for the time to come, when I can see you again, Perhaps you would like to know acmething about Kaligh, and the other places, here, but I do not feel like writing about in so I will wait till we meet, and tell you, My health continues good as nonal, and Pam berg ting Jours Leander

Transcription:

we shall be ordered home, before a greatwhile, but I cannot tell you any thing definite about it.

Do not expect us too soon, and so get disappointed I am very anxious for the time to come, when I can see you again.

Perhaps you would like to know something about Raleigh, and the other places, here, but I do not feel like writing about it, so I will wait till we meet, and tell you.

My health continues good as usual, and I am Very truly Yours Leander