DURHAM, NH – Now that Governor Maggie Hassan has announced a run for US Senate, Granite Staters will be electing someone new to the corner office in 2016. However, prospective candidates are largely unknown among New Hampshire residents. Roughly half of New Hampshire residents support casino gambling in New Hampshire and a bill to establish a 30 day residency requirement in order to vote in a state election.

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll,* conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and eighty-seven (587) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed by landline and cellular telephone between September 24 and October 2, 2015. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.0 percent. Included were five hundred nineteen (519) likely 2016 general election voters (MSE = +/- 4.3%).

Gubernatorial Approval

Democratic Governor Maggie Hassan, who has declared her run for US Senate and therefore will not run for a third term, continues to have the approval of a majority of New Hampshire adults. In the most recent Granite State Poll, 54% of Granite Staters say they approve of the job Hassan is doing as governor, 30% disapprove, and 17% are neutral or don't know enough to say. Hassan's job approval rating has stayed the same since July. Democrats (79% approve, 11% disapprove) and Independents (48% approve, 25% disapprove) approve of Hassan's job performance, while Republicans disapprove (26% approve, 55% disapprove).

Favorability Ratings – Potential NH Governor Candidates

Now that Governor Hassan has decided not to run for re-election, the race for the next governor of New Hampshire is wide open. The potential candidates to replace Hassan are all largely unknown among New Hampshire residents.

The best known of these candidates is the only declared candidate in the race -- Republican Chris Sununu of Newfields, who is the son of former governor John H. Sununu and the brother of former U.S. senator John E. Sununu. Currently 26% of New Hampshire adults have a favorable opinion of Sununu, 22% have an unfavorable opinion, 10% are neutral and 42% don't know enough about him to have an opinion (including 32% in the 3rd district which he represents).

Another potential candidate is Republican state senator and former congressman Jeb Bradley of Wolfeboro. Currently 24% have a favorable opinion of Bradley, 16% have an unfavorable opinion, 9% are neutral and 51% don't know enough about him to have an opinion.

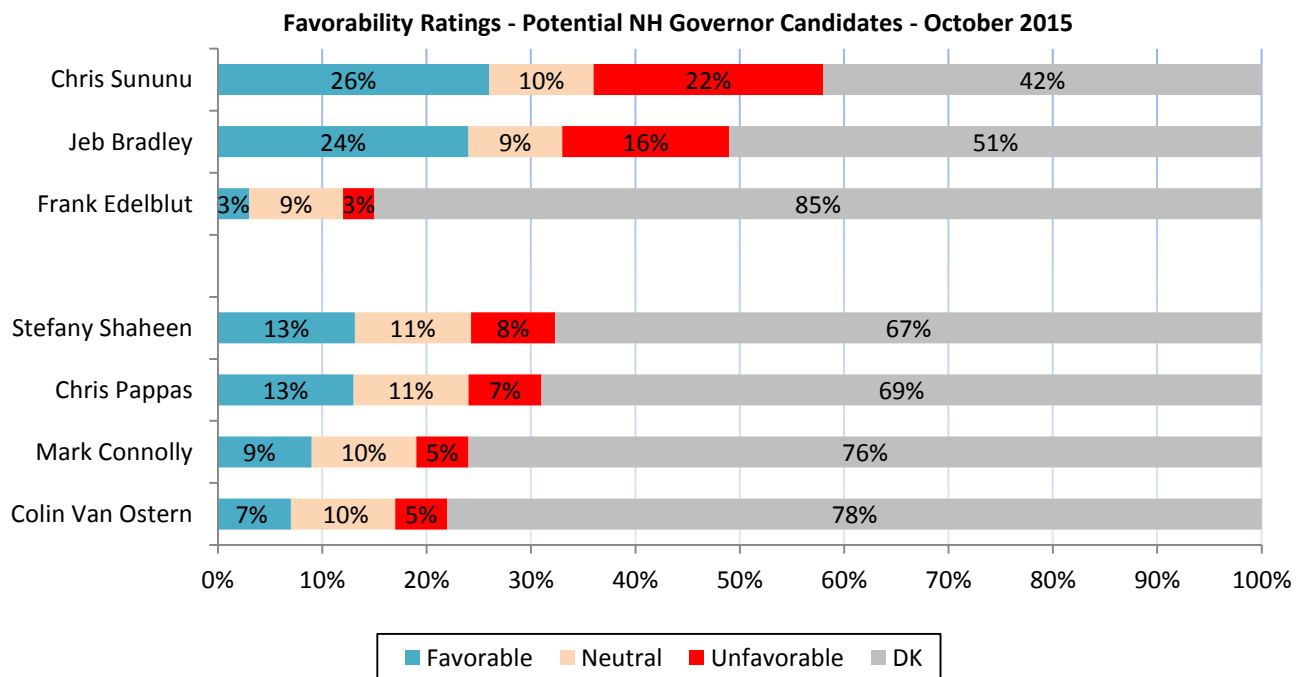

Rounding out the candidates tested on the Republican side is first-term state representative Frank Edelblut of Wilton. Currently 3% have a favorable opinion of Edelblut, 3% have an unfavorable opinion, 9% are neutral and 85% don't know enough about him to say.

The best known candidate on the Democratic side is Portsmouth City Councilor Stefany Shaheen, who is the daughter of US Senator Jeanne Shaheen. Currently 13% have a favorable opinion of Shaheen, 8% have an unfavorable opinion, 11% are neutral and 67% don't know enough about her to say.

Another potential candidate is Executive Councilor Chris Pappas of Manchester -- 13% have a favorable opinion of Pappas, 7% have an unfavorable opinion, 11% are neutral and 69% don't know enough about him to have an opinion (including 57% in the 4th district which he represents).

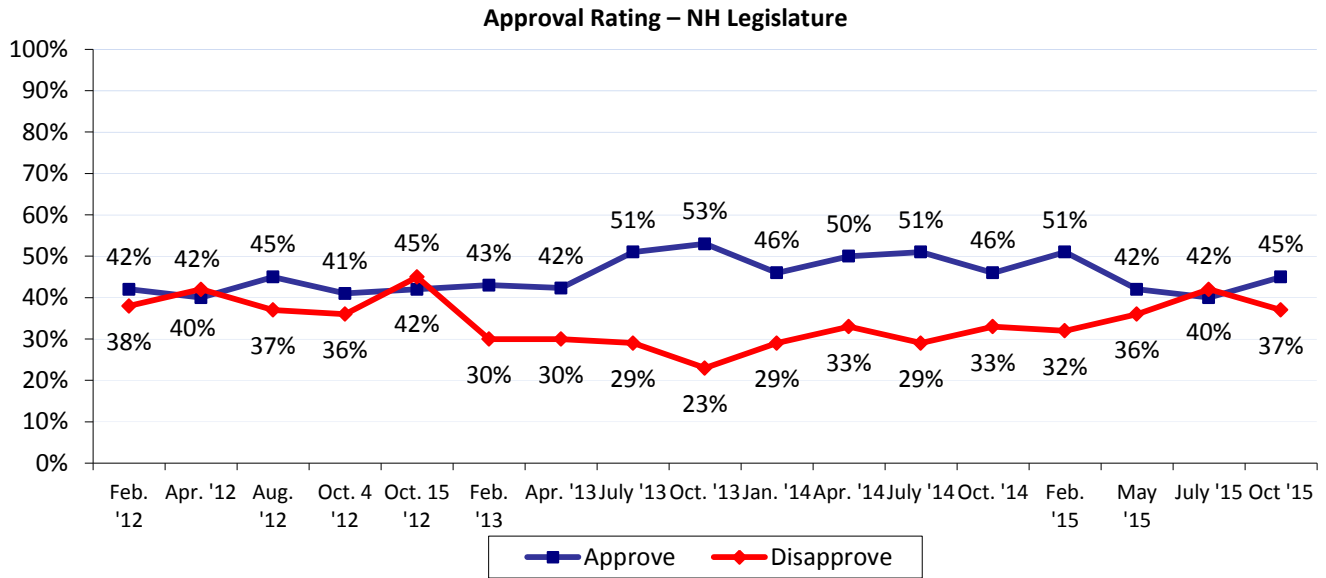

Currently 7% of New Hampshire adults have a favorable opinion of Democratic Executive Councilor Colin Van Ostern of Concord, 5% have an unfavorable opinion, 10% are neutral and 78% don't know enough about him to have an opinion (including 67% in the 2nd district which he represents).

Currently 9% of New Hampshire adults have a favorable opinion of former New Hampshire Securities Chief Mark Connolly of New Castle, 5% have an unfavorable opinion, 10% are neutral and 76% don't know enough about him to have an opinion.

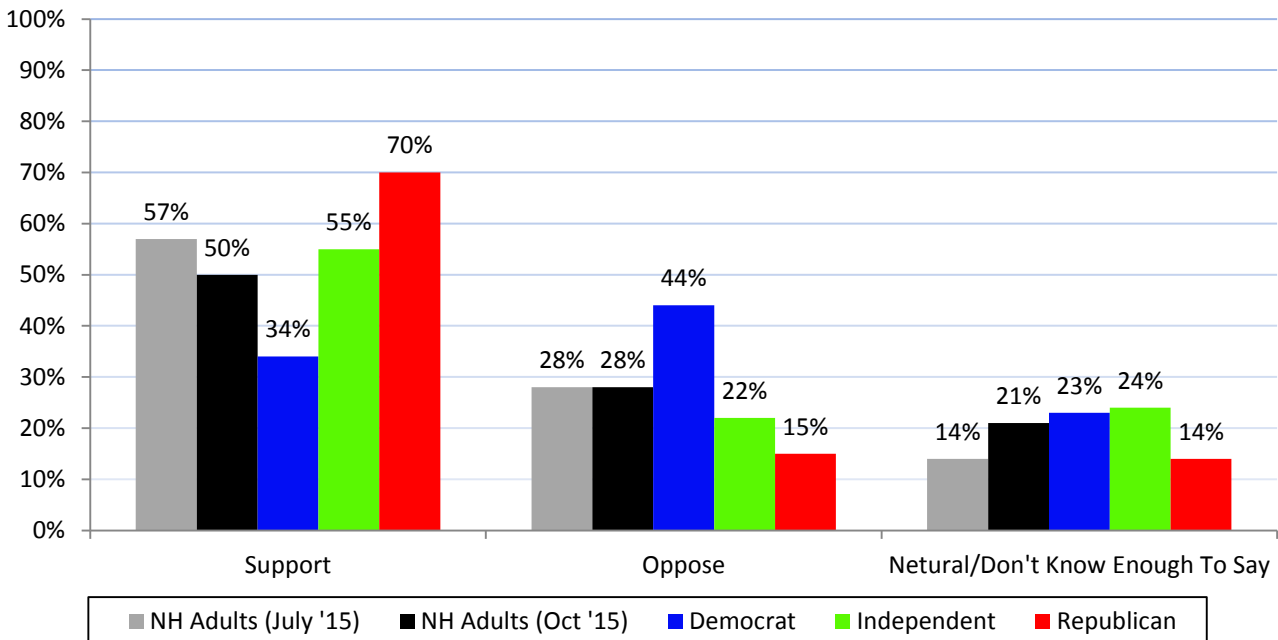

Approval of New Hampshire Legislature

New Hampshire residents are divided on the job the state legislature is doing. Currently, 45% of New Hampshire adults approve of how the State Legislature is doing its job, 37% disapprove, and 18% are neutral or don't know enough to say. A majority of Independents (55%) approve of the legislature but only 42% of Democrats, and 39% of Republicans agree.

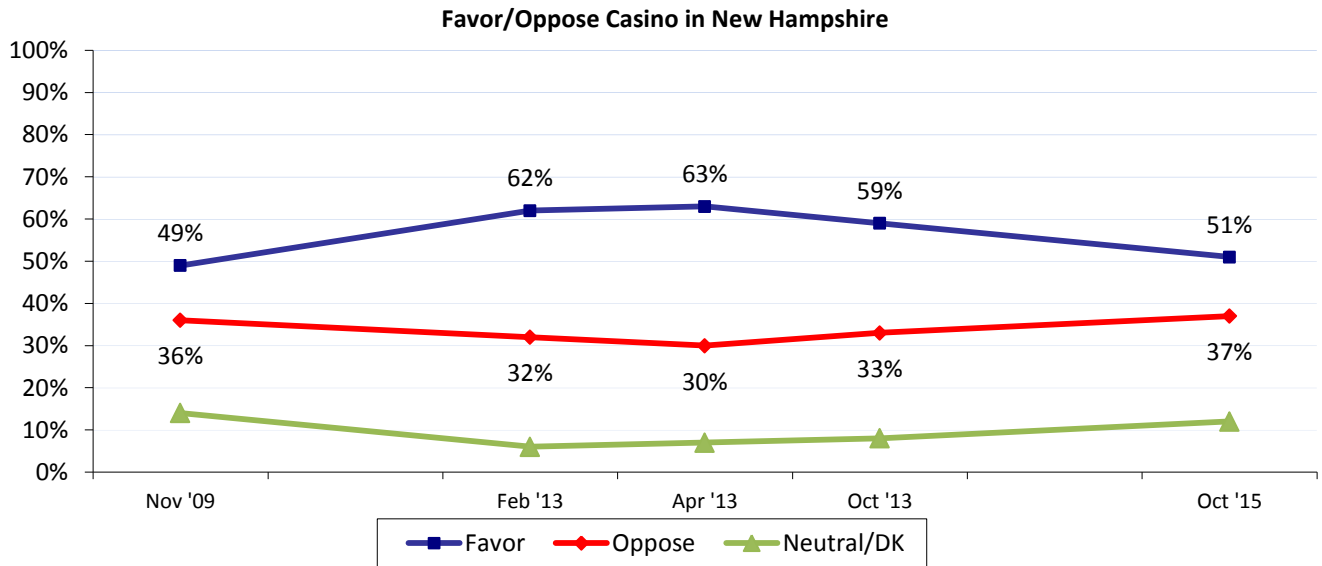

Support/Oppose 30 Day Residency Law?

A contentious issue in Concord that could re-emerge next year was a bill that would require a person to live in New Hampshire for 30 days before being allowed to register to vote. The legislature passed this bill but Governor Hassan vetoed it. Half (50%) of Granite Staters support this law (36% strongly and 14% somewhat), 28% oppose it (18% strongly and 10% somewhat), and 21% are neutral or don't know enough to say. Republicans (70% support, 15% oppose) and Independents (55% support, 22% oppose) support the legislation, while Democrats (34% support, 44% oppose) are divided. While support of this bill has dipped somewhat (from 57% to 50%) since July, opposition has not changed.

Favor/Oppose Casino In New Hampshire

Another issue that the legislature may take up again next year is a familiar one – whether to legalize casino gambling in the state. Currently 51% of New Hampshire residents say they would favor casino gambling in New Hampshire (32% strongly and 19% somewhat), 37% oppose (25% strongly and 12% somewhat) and 12% are neutral or unsure. Support for casino gambling has dropped since October 2013, the last time this measure was tested. Support for gambling is similar across party lines – 58% of Independents, 50% of Republicans and 49% of Democrats say they favor a casino.

Right Direction or Wrong Track?

New Hampshire residents continue to think the state, as a whole, is headed in the right direction. Currently, 61% of New Hampshire adults feel the state is heading in the right direction, 28% think the state is seriously off on the wrong track, and 11% are unsure. Majorities of Democrats (72%) and Independents (63%), and 48% of Republicans say the state is headed in the right direction.

Granite State Poll Methodology

These findings are based on the latest WMUR Granite State Poll, conducted by the University of New Hampshire Survey Center. Five hundred and eighty-seven (587) randomly selected New Hampshire adults were interviewed in English by landline and cellular telephone between September 24 and October 2, 2015. The margin of sampling error for the survey is +/- 4.0 percent. Included were five hundred nineteen (519) likely 2016 general election voters (MSE = +/- 4.3%). These MSE's have not been adjusted for design effect. The design effect for the survey is 1.1% and 1.1% for the sample of likely 2016 general election voters.

The random sample used in the WMUR Granite State Poll was purchased from Marketing Systems Group (MSG), Horsham, PA. MSG screens each selected telephone number to eliminate non-working numbers, disconnected numbers, and business numbers to improve the efficiency of the sample, reducing the amount of time interviewers spend calling non-usable numbers.

The data have been weighted to adjust for numbers of adults and telephone lines within households, respondent sex, age, and region of the state. In addition to potential sampling error, all surveys have other potential sources of non-sampling error including question order effects, question wording effects, and non-response. Due to rounding, percentages may not sum to 100%. The number of respondents in each demographic below may not equal the number reported in cross-tabulation tables as some respondents choose not to answer some questions.
