REPORT
OF THE
SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE
OF THE
TOWN OF HEBRON,
FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 1, 1884.

DISTRICT No. 1.

MARY J. WHEET, teacher. Length of term, 9 weeks. Number of scholars, 4. Wages per month, including board, $20.

UNION DISTRICT No. 1.

The school in Union District No. 1, was under the supervision of the Superintending School Committee of Plymouth.

DISTRICT No. 2.

CLARA M. FARNUM, teacher. Length of term 8 weeks. Number of scholars, 3. Wages per month, including board, $23.57 1-2.

DISTRICT No. 3.

GRACE E. WHITCOMB, teacher. Length of term, 10 weeks. Number of scholars, 16. Average attendance, 12. Wages per month, including board, $18.

DISTRICT No. 5.

The first term commenced with GRACE E. WHITCOMB for teacher, and at the end of two weeks was suspended on account of scarlet fever and measles. Miss Whitcomb's wages, including board, were at the rate of $20 per month.

The remainder of the term, 8 weeks, was kept by MARY L. COLBURN. Number of scholars, 25. Average attendance, 24. Wages per month, including board, $28.

The second term, of 8 weeks, was taught by MARY A. MORRILL. Number of scholars, 25. Average attendance, 20. Wages per month, including board, $28.

In our schools 47 have attended to reading; the same number to spelling; 33 to penmanship; 38 to arithmetic; 28 to geography; 10 to grammar; 3 to history; 2 to composition; 2 to physiology; 2 to book-keeping; 1 to algebra. The roll of honor contains 15 names; 3 more than last year.

The teachers have manifested a good degree of interest in their work, and have met with fair success in exciting the interest of scholars in their studies, and promoting their progress.

A change has been made in the readers. The old ones, so long used that pupils had become weary of them, have been discarded, and Lippincott's readers introduced with satisfactory results. In some instances two or three different kinds of readers were found in the same class. Confusion in text books has sometimes arisen from the fact that teachers have assumed the responsibility of introducing books without consultation with the committee.

Attention is called to the amendment to section 10 of chapter 89 of the general laws, which takes effect from and after March 1, 1884. The amendment requires that "teachers shall be examined in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the effects of alcoholic drinks and narcotics upon the human system. The school committee may prescribe suitable rules and regulations, &c., provided that physiology and hygiene, including special reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics upon the human system shall be prescribed in all schools sufficiently advanced."

Says Hon. J. W. Patterson, Superintendent of Public Instruction: "It will be readily seen that to realize the beneficent purpose of the law the text-book used must be accurate and clear in statement, and the teacher competent to instruct and interested in the subject." He also says. "As many of our teachers have little or no knowledge of the subject, it may be necessary to be indulgent the present year, and in some cases to give a certificate on examination which would not subsequently be accepted; but, though it may not be wise to be too exacting at first, it will hereafter be the duty of school committees to re quire adequate knowledge of the science so far as it is taught.”

I make these quotations that you may have the matter distinctly before you, and be prepared to cooperate with your Superintending School Committee in efforts to comply with the requisitions of the law upon this subject. Faithful instruction in our schools in reference to the effects of alcoholic stimulants and narcotics upon the human system, will unquestionably have an influence in saving many of our youth from intemperance and vice, in promoting in them a true and pure manhood, and making them a power for good in the world.

J. B. COOK, S. S. Committee.
