AUDITORS' REPORT

We have examined the accounts for the year ending January 31, 1923 of the Selectmen, Town Treasurer, Collector of Taxes, Town Clerk, Trustees of Trust Funds, Library Trustees, and Collector of Water Works Department and find them kept in a most excellent manner. The audit shows all accounts to be correctly cast with proper vouchers for all moneys received and disbursed, and arranged in uniform classification as adopted by the State Tax Commission.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of the Wolfeboro Town Library,

Gentlemen:

The eighteenth annual report of the Librarian is herewith presented.

No special feature has developed in our work during the past year. In the more than thirty years of its existence, the library has been closely allied with the educational interests of the town, and its value could never be fully realized unless its doors should be permanently closed.

To show something of its growth, let me give the figures for the average monthly circulation for each fifth year.

Year	Average monthly circulation
1897	279
1902	758
1907	703
1912	1086
1917	1490
1922	1695

When one considers in addition to the books given out the amount of work done in the library room, our task is by no means an easy one.

The circulation for the past year has been 20,336 books, of these classes: fiction, 10,955; non-fiction, 3,251; children's books, 6,130. This is a gain of 1,406 over the preceding year. 56 new books have been purchased for the Town library.

The larger space given to the children has proved a satisfactory arrangement, although not as yet fully completed. A special assistant is now employed for this room a part of the time, and we are trying to teach the children to use the library for themselves. During the past year, this branch of our work has increased one-third.

We find that more people would use the library were it not for the trouble of borrowing and returning the books. To those who live within a walking distance, this should be a pleasant diversion. For those outside the village precinct some arrangement should be made. In some towns a book wagon goes around at stated intervals distributing and gathering books. The same thing might be carried out here through the rural delivery mail carriers. The people at East Wolfboro hope in the spring to establish a branch library in connection with their community house.

The patronage of the summer visitors is a delightful feature of our work, some coming a distance of ten miles. These people speak most appreciatingly of the fact that our library is open to all free of charge.

The following is an account of the money taken in at the desk during the year:

Balance Feb. 1, 1922	$ 5 45
Books lost in circulation	2 00
Books sold	5 66
Gifts	7 00
Fines on overdue books	104 00
	<hr/>
	$124 11
Books purchased	$ 37 81
Box rent	2 25
Express, freight and cartage	10 09
Stationery and postage	17 26
Printing	4 25
Cleaning library	11 80
Varnishing tables	2 85
Framing picture	1 00
Supplies	25 01
Balance Feb. 1, 1923	11 79
	<hr/>
	$124 11

The public library is for the people of Wolfeboro. It is their privilege to help make it what it should be, and to use it to the utmost.

We wish to express our appreciation of the many helpful suggestions given the past year. Constructive criticism is always welcome.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Beardsley for his continuous exhibition of prize photos.

Gifts of money by Miss Tenney and Miss Wood for new music should be acknowledged.

Contributions of fiction books from Mrs. Jenkinson and others have helped greatly at this time when books cost so much.

I would express appreciation at this time of the faithful work of my assistants, and again thank the trustees for their cooperation and interest.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH BREWSTER, Librarian.
