SELECTMEN'S REPORT

This past year has been a year of many accomplishments in all the Town Departments serving our community. The following brief summary recognizes a few of the dedicated individuals responsible for improving the quality of life here in Marlow.

Charley Strickland served as Selectman from March 2001 to September 2003 before resigning for personal reasons. Through his efforts while in office he kept the other Selectmen focused on key issues such as upgrading the Fire Dept., modernizing the Town Office, expanding the capabilities of the Transfer Station, and maintaining Marlow's historic buildings. Through his incredible recollection of Marlow history as a life-long resident, Charlie was and still is, a valuable resource of historical information. Beyond his service as a Selectman, Charlie has done so much for us that he can definitely be regarded as a "community institution". His presence at the Monday night Selectmen's meetings are sorely missed.

The Sand Storage building at the Town Highway Dept. has been completed. Through the efforts of Road Agent Tony Davis and his Highway Dept. crew it was completed on schedule and under budget. All the construction was accomplished with labor from just the Highway Dept. and two volunteers. We wish to recognize the two volunteers, Jim Elliot, Sr. and Henry Pletzner and thank them for the tens of hours of invaluable volunteer labor they provided; without their help this project would not have been a success.

Another Highway Dept. accomplishment this year was the reconstruction of the road intersection at Symondsville Road and Route 10. Through the efforts of Tony Davis, Charles Elliott and Patrick Mooney this intersection is now usable by our school buses and safer to use by everyone.

NOTES FROM THE SELECTMEN'S OFFICE

The Selectmen's Office has hired an assessing firm, Earls Neider Perkins (ENP), to conduct a town-wide revaluation of properties in the 2004 to 2005 timeframe. It had been the goal to appropriate $25,000.00 per year for three years to finance this project. The Revaluation Capital Reserve Fund presently has $50,000.00. ENP's bid of $45,500.00 to accomplish this project means that the Selectmen do not have to ask the Town for the last $25,000.00.

An explanation of recent developments is in order in regards to the “reval”. The State of New Hampshire Dept. of Revenue Administration (DRA) has directed Marlow to complete a revaluation of all properties in 2005. During the last year the DRA has been adjusting their requirements and is now taking a more realistic approach to attain an equalized statewide property tax structure. The DRA now calls the “reval” (or “certification”) an “Assessment Review”. Earls Neider Perkins’ bid reflects these recent changes and as a result the Town will benefit by:

1. Having the assessment review completed in the Spring of 2005 using the new DRA guidelines.
2. Having a new assessing software program (included in the bid) capable of accomplishing future reviews which will be in accordance with DRA directives.
3. Saving $25,000.00.

The Selectmen’s Office has instituted a purchase order policy that will ensure that all departments’ budgets will be monitored periodically throughout the year for adherence to their planned expenditures. End of the year “extras” will be closely scrutinized in the future.

It has been noted that many residents still have not posted their street numbers. It is essential that everyone complies and displays their 9-1-1 street numbers prominently so that our fire, police, and ambulance personnel can respond quickly to any emergency.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of the Board of Selectmen
Town of Marlow
Marlow, New Hampshire

We have audited the accompanying general purpose financial statements of the Town of Marlow, New Hampshire as of and for the year ended December 31, 2003 as listed in the table of contents. These general purpose financial statements are the responsibility of the Town's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these general purpose financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the general purpose financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The general purpose financial statements referred to above do not include the general fixed assets account group which should be included in order to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. As is the case with many municipal entities in the State of New Hampshire, the Town of Marlow has not maintained historical cost records of its fixed assets. The amount that should be recorded in the general fixed assets account group is not known.

In our opinion, except for the effect on the financial statements of the omission described in the preceding paragraph, the general purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Town of Marlow as of December 31, 2003, and the results of its operations and the cash flows of its nonexpendable trust funds for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the general purpose financial statements of the Town of Marlow taken as a whole. The combining and individual fund financial statements listed as schedules in the table of contents are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the general purpose financial statements of the Town of Marlow. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the general purpose financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the general purpose financial statements taken as a whole.

Marlow Town Library 2003

Two new programs were added to our library this year. Dave Stewart led a series of computer classes that helped beginning users find their way around the keyboard and the internet.

A book discussion, led by a facilitator from NH Humanities, allowed readers to get together and talk about a prominent New England author and share how they were affected by the story. We would like to continue both programs if there is enough interest. Please call, e-mail, or stop in the library and let us know if you would like to participate in either of these.

The library welcomed two assistant librarians this year. Jen Brown and Shelli Silk-Huntley job-share the position. They take turns manning the library on Saturday. Sadly, we say goodbye to two trustees. Jane MacLachlan was a trustee for a short time, but we welcomed her expertise in sign making and e-bay selling. Claire Brady has been our treasurer for 7 years. She was the moving force behind the library renovation, taking on the task of the lawyers and court, helping to hire a general contractor, pitching in wherever she could, and inspiring us all to not give up when things got bogged down.

The summer reading program ended with the 8th annual family picnic. We would like to thank all those who volunteered to lead the weekly crafts programs, and Toadstool Bookstore and Marlow Grocery for their continued support with certificates for our participants. We are also appreciative of all the community support the library receives: donations of new books, the printing of cards, bookmarks, and stationary at a nominal cost, even the plowing by a neighbor so our librarian could get to the door! Thank you to all who gave their time and energy - it's a big part of what makes our town library a success.

Marlow Fire Department responded to 26 incidents 2003

Motor Vehicle Fires	9
Permit Burns	1
Public Utilities	1
False Alarms	7
Carbon Monoxide	2
Mutual Aid	5

2003 has been a average year for the Marlow Fire Department. Again, we were very fortunate not to have any major incidents in our town

During this past year we had one member complete a Firefighter 1A level and another member complete a Firefighter 1B Level of certification. Congratulations to them as they achieve their goals to improve their skills in becoming better firefighters.

The Marlow Fire Department did not receive the money from the FEMA Grant for our New Fire Truck We have since gone to the lease – purchase agreement that we had voted for at our last Town Meeting. We should be taking delivery of our new piece of apparatus sometime this summer.

Again, I would like to ask the town to join me in thanking our firefighters for the terrific job that they do in protecting life and property in our community.

MARLOW AMBULANCE REPORT FOR 2003

We would like to take time to thank all the people in the towns of Marlow, Lempster, and Gilsum for the support they have given us for the year. The Fire Departments and the Rescue Squads are the best in our area.

To the townspeople of these towns we deeply appreciate the donations that were sent in. The money helps with training and supplies.

The members of our ambulance squad have recently formed a nonprofit corporation in order to accept donations for charitable use. Please note that any donation to the "Marlow Ambulance Association" will not be used to support the operational expenses of the ambulance.

The following was our calls for the year;

Marlow = 49

Gilsum = 29

Lempster = 48

Stoddard = 01

Total number of calls were 127

Report of Forest Fire Warden and State Forest Ranger

Your local Forest Fire Warden, Fire Department, and the State of New Hampshire Division of Forests and Lands cooperate and coordinate to reduce the risk of wildland fires in New Hampshire. To help us assist you, contact your local Forest Fire Warden or Fire Department to find out if a permit is required before doing ANY outside burning. Fire permits are mandatory for all outside burning unless the ground where the burning is to be done (and surrounding areas) is completely covered with snow. Violations of the fire permit law and the other burning laws of the State of New Hampshire are misdemeanors punishable by fines up to $2,000 and/or a year in jail, plus the cost of suppressing the fire..

A new law effective January 1, 2003 prohibits residential trash burning (RSA 125-N). Contact New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services at (800) 498-6868 or www.des.state.nh.us for more information.

Help us to protect you and our forest resources. Most New Hampshire wildfires are human caused. Homeowners can help protect their homes by maintaining adequate green space around the house and make sure that the house number is correct and visible. Contact your fire department or the New Hampshire Division of Forests and Lands at www.nhdfi.org or 271-2217 for wildland fire safety information.

Home Health Care and Community Services (HCS) offers a variety of services in Marlow. From prenatal care to hospice services, HCS can provide home health and wellness care to residents of all ages and circumstances. Here's just a sampling of HCS services:

Visiting Nurse - A registered nurse can come to the home to provide care after a hospital stay or to treat a chronic illness. Nurses can even make home visits to new mothers who leave the hospital under early discharge programs. Doctor's orders are needed to provide care.

Home Health Aides and Homemakers - Home health aides provide personal care, such as assistance with bathing, dressing and therapeutic exercises to those who are homebound. Homemakers can help with grocery shopping, laundry, light housekeeping and tasks that are essential to help a person to maintain their independence at home.

Well Child Clinic - Physical exams, immunizations, nutrition counseling, and developmental assessments are available to income eligible families with children from newborn to age ten. Immunization clinics are offered to children up to age seventeen, regardless of family income.

Hospice Alliance at HCS is a Medicare certified hospice program supporting terminally ill patients who choose to die in the comfort and dignity of their own home. Care is provided by nurses, home health aides, other health care professionals and volunteers. HCS offers training programs for volunteers in the spring and fall; if you are interested in becoming a volunteer call us!

Community Clinics - A registered nurse is available in Marlow at the Library at various times to check blood pressures for residents of all ages. There is no charge for this service. HCS also offers other services at this clinic in the fall for a minimal fee.

HCS is always happy to answer questions about home care services.

Ashuelot River Local Advisory Committee

Washington Lempster Marlow Gilsum Sullivan Surry Keene Swanzey Winchester
Hinsdale

2003 Annual Report

The Ashuelot River Local Advisory Committee (ARLAC) was established in 1994, one year after the Ashuelot River was enrolled into the State Rivers Management and Protection Program. Since then, members, who are nominated by local municipal officials, have been educated in a broad array of issues associated with the river and its watershed. It is the hope of the committee to be a resource that works well between the interests and concerns of the citizens in the watershed, and State authorities.

The volunteer river water quality monitoring program in conjunction with NHDES Volunteer River Assessment Program (VRAP) continued this year for its third season. ARLAC members, working with community volunteers, participated in a spring training session, leading into a five-month effort of sampling once per month from May through September. Again, analyses were done for E. coli, temperature, pH, total phosphorus, dissolved oxygen (DO), turbidity and conductivity, with the City of Keene again donating lab services for E. coli. Copper and chloride sampling were not repeated this year due to low levels found in the previous year. Phosphorus testing, analyzed by the State Lab, was funded this year by the W.S. Badger Co. of Gilsum, and a grant funded by the Connecticut River Joint Commission enabled us to use our own water quality monitoring equipment, helping to ensure consistency in data. Again this year, Donna Hanscom of the Keene Waste Water Treatment Facility treated ARLAC and monitor volunteers to a summary presentation of the sampling results. Continued monitoring and public education will keep the Ashuelot River the vital community resource that it is today.

A regular task for the Committee is to review and comment on state permit applications within the river corridor that may have potential impacts on the river. This year we submitted comments on projects proposed in Washington, Marlow, Gilsum, Keene, Swanzey, Winchester and Hinsdale.

The Committee also submitted comments regarding SB-87; a state bill that may allow the spreading of septage, biosolids, and shortpaper fiber within the 250-foot buffer currently afforded to protected rivers. ARLAC believes prohibition within the 250-foot buffer should be maintained.

This past year saw the State put together final criteria regarding the removal of dams. Since 2001, two dams have been removed along the Ashuelot, and with the possibility of two more removals in upcoming years, communities will better understand the importance of their removal while keeping environmental, cultural and historical impacts in mind.

The Committee meets each month, on the third Tuesday evening in the Keene Public Library. The Local Advisory Committee invites citizens and town officials to contact their local ARLAC representatives or the Southwest Region Planning Commission for more information.

Respectfully submitted,

Cemetery Trustees and Trustees of Trust Funds 2003

The year 2003 proved to be another interesting year for the Marlow Trustees. In February, we were told that Rupert Thompson had decided not to run for Sexton and so the Trustees began our search for someone to replace him. After a futile search on our own, the Trustees were very pleased when two residents came forward and applied for the job and subsequently were appointed, namely Edward Allen for Sexton and Rob Allen, Edward's father, as Assistant Sexton. In has been a great learning experience for both Edward and the Trustees. Edward is young, very committed and conscientious and we are looking forward to a long relationship with him and Rob and we thank them for volunteering.

Several others in our towns deserve our thanks and appreciation. We offer a sincere thank you to Carol and Tim Jones for erecting a new, carefree fence delineating the cemetery boundaries and their property at absolutely no cost to the Trustees or the taxpayers. It certainly enhanced our cemetery and we are most appreciative.

And lastly, but not least, we thank our hard working Road Agent, Tony Davis, who did so much work for us last year in the Village Cemetery. This year our focus has been the West Yard Cemetery (historical name) on the Jay Allen Road. There was a somewhat steep bank leading up to the cemetery, which was difficult for some to scramble up. Tony accommodated us by finding some large flat stones to serve as steps and then fashioned a beautiful railing to hold onto. Tony, what a great job! We have also installed a new sign identifying the West Yard Cemetery following the same format as the Village Cemetery, which was erected in 2001. The Marlow Historical Society sponsored a West Yard Cemetery walk this fall and Neil Jenness, the speaker, told us we have some of the oldest and most beautiful headstones up there that she has ever seen. So pay a visit to the Village Cemetery and the West Yard Cemetery and enjoy the peace and tranquility of both.

We get many requests each year from people near and far researching and seeking out their ancestors. We try to accommodate them all.

There have been three grave purchases this year. Two 4-grave plots and one cremain plot.

An old Village Cemetery map has surfaced and while it is in a very rustic frame, we have had it matted with an acid-free mat to prevent further deterioration.

And now, believe it or not, we intend to start work on the Sargent Cemetery, hoping to gain proper access and proceed with preservation efforts, including up righting the large memorial stone erected there in the late 1880's commemorating the burial place of some of the earliest settlers of Marlow.

I would like to again call your attention to the Frances Strickland Scholarship Fund, which is available to anyone furthering his or her education beyond high school. It is not just for high school seniors, but includes any adult who wishes to further their education in nursing, paralegal, or technical school offerings. Please contact any Trustee for rules and requirements and further information.

Lastly, we have been very pleased with our relationship with Citizens Bank in handling our various trust funds. Unfortunately, the interest earned is very low due to market conditions; however, the service is swift and accurate.

Many thanks to Patty and Chuck for their input and support. Please cast your vote for Patty Little for another term of office for the Cemetery Trustees and Trustee of the Trust Funds.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of the School Board
Marlow School District
Marlow, New Hampshire

We have audited the accompanying general purpose financial statements of the Marlow School District as of and for the year ended June 30, 2003 as listed in the table of contents. These general purpose financial statements are the responsibility of the School District's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these general purpose financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the general purpose financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The general purpose financial statements referred to above do not include the general fixed assets account group which should be included in order to conform with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. As is the case with most municipal entities in the State of New Hampshire, the Marlow School District has not maintained historical cost records of its fixed assets. The amount that should be recorded in the general fixed assets account group is not known.

In our opinion, except for the effect on the financial statements of the omission described in the preceding paragraph, the general purpose financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Marlow School District as of June 30, 2003, and the results of its operations for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the general purpose financial statements of the Marlow School District taken as a whole. The combining and individual fund financial statements listed as schedules in the table of contents are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the general purpose financial statements of the Marlow School District. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the general purpose financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly presented in all material respects in relation to the general purpose financial statements taken as a whole.

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT

The staff at John D. Perkins Elementary School, like staff in other schools in SAU 29, has placed considerable emphasis on the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) legislation. This piece of federal legislation is very significant with regard to its impact on what and how we do what we do in schools, the manner in which students are assessed and schools are held accountable, and the sanctions for those schools which do not comply with, or meet federal expectations.

NCLB has influenced the work of the staff, especially with regard to curriculum review and revision and teaching. The teachers have been actively involved in training in both analyses of test results and curriculum mapping. Analysis of test results helps teachers identify trends in student performance that are impacted by the content of the curriculum presented and the teaching strategies used to present the material. Curriculum mapping is a method by which teachers can work to develop a more coordinated curriculum that is better aligned with the state standards upon which the state testing program (NHEIAP) is based. Teachers have greatly expanded their knowledge of technology as a teaching tool, i.e., they are making greater use of technology to assist in classroom instruction. Much of this training and related technology equipment has been funded through a grant written by Keene School District personnel to establish the Southwest Learning Center which services school districts throughout southwestern New Hampshire.

Review of this year's test results on the state testing program shows Marlow's students performing well in comparison to other schools across the state. The New Hampshire Department of Education comparatively reports schools' scores as the percentage of students scoring at the "Basic or better level". The Department of Education equates this with performance "at grade level or better". Due to the small class sizes in Marlow, results are reported in three-year averages. At the third grade level, scores show 81 percent of Marlow's students performing higher than the average for the state (75 percent) in English language arts. In mathematics (the only other area tested in grade three), Marlow's average score of 70 percent is slightly below the state average (72 percent). At the sixth grade level, with the exception of mathematics, Marlow's average scores exceed the state average scores in subject areas tested (English language arts, science and social studies). Again this year, the difference between Marlow's average scores and the state's is substantial -- 13 percent better than the state. In mathematics, Marlow's average score is one percent less than the state average score (72 percent).

Although not a measure used by NCLB, student performance in their classes is important and is a measure used to report on at Keene High School. There were 44 students from Marlow in attendance at the high school last year. Again this year, a relative area of strength for Marlow students was in English where 60 percent of the students taking an English class received a grade of "B" or better. Science was another area of strength in which 57 percent of those taking a science class earned a grade of "B" or better. Approximately 25 percent of the students taking a science class were enrolled in either an honors or Advanced Placement level class. It is interesting to note that 81 percent of the students enrolled in an honors or Advanced Placement class in the core subject areas (English, mathematics, science, social studies, or world language) earned a grade of "B" or better. Marlow students also continue to take advantage of co-curricular -- athletic as well as non-athletic -- opportunities.

Teachers have continued to work hard to provide the children with challenging and productive learning activities. They have done this in the face of several significant obstacles. Funding is one of these. The NCLB legislation contains several underfunded or unfunded mandates. Combined with the continuation of underfunding related to special education and changes to the state's funding scheme, it is increasingly more difficult to find the funds needed to meet the needs of all students. Unfortunately, John D. Perkins School lost its Title I funding this year. Eligibility for these federal funds is based on poverty level as defined by the federal census bureau. I compliment the staff on its resourcefulness in looking to other outside funds to help provide students with enrichment, as well as remedial programs.

Community support for the school has been tremendous and greatly helps with projects that would otherwise not be completed. The P.T.A. has been active and generous in its financial support of various activities. As the staff and school board work through the full implementation of NCLB and try to deal with the funding problems plaguing many school districts in the state, it is very important that the community be involved and informed. I encourage you to visit and observe what occurs at the school. Please attend a school board meeting to hear about and discuss school-related matters in a timely fashion. Also, please plan to attend this year's annual district meeting on Thursday, March 11, at 7:00 p.m.

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Our current population is as follows: kindergarten - 7, grade one - 11, grade two - 1, grade three - 12, grade four - 9, grade five - 10, grade six - 7. Total population - 57.

We have had few changes in the staff at the school since last March. Our new music teacher is Ms. Vicky Moore. Mrs. Sandra Cunningham, our kindergarten teacher, is now our Title II teacher in the afternoon. Last year she was the Title I teacher.

We continue to use federal funds to support student learning. Unfortunately, we have lost our Title I funding. We do have some funding left over from previous years and are planning how to use those funds to purchase equipment and materials to support basic skills in our identified Title I students. Title II funds are being used to provide a class size reduction teacher in the afternoon. As mentioned above, Mrs. Cunningham has accepted that position. Title II is also providing funding for teacher training. Title V funds (last year called Title VI) are being used to provide a pre-school resource center in the school. Mrs. JoEllen Manning has accepted the position of coordinator of that program. REAP funding has been used to replace antiquated computers with new systems in two classrooms, as well as providing three classrooms with new LCD projectors.

The PTA continues to be very active, even with a small membership. They have used much of the proceeds of their fundraisers to make the school safer and a better place to learn. For example, they donated $200 to each specials teacher to enable the students in those classes to have some unique project or entertainment. The Spanish teacher was able to invite a drummer, Michael Wingfield, to demonstrate different musical cultures. Music stands were provided for students in music class. Concerns about student safety prompted the purchase of helmets, which were sold to students at a much-reduced rate. A donation was made to the Yearbook Committee for the graduates, who were also given atlases. A fold-up cot was purchased and is kept in the office for students feeling under the weather. Teacher appreciation was shown by purchasing a much-needed refrigerator for the teachers' room and providing a great noontime meal for the staff. Food was provided at Field Day and Discovery Night. The PTA also sponsored the Read-a-Thon; a fundraiser that provides students with incentives to read. Proceeds went to local organizations. The PTA also arranged a number of activities. Game night continues to be a student favorite. Thanksgiving dinner was served to all our students and some of their families; approximately 120 people. Many students also attended the Christmas Craft Day Workshop.

We continued to make improvements to the property this last year. The hill that was planted with conservation mix in the fall was replanted in the spring and should be ready for mowing this spring. The PTA provided bird feeders for the garden and regular upkeep has been performed by PTA members, staff and students. We added an addition to the covered walkway to divert falling snow and ice away from the sidewalk. The PTA provided the school with a bike rack for students, which is now located adjacent to the walkway.

Other volunteers continue to be assets to the school. Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Dave Elliott, and Mrs. Mike Elliott contributed many hours to produce the school yearbook last spring. This year Mrs. Andreasen and Mrs. Reynolds continue that tradition. Many thanks to Dave Stewart who is still maintaining our school website. The site continues to be a conduit linking the community with the school.

Respectfully Submitted,

Richard Brewer

CHAIR'S REPORT

To begin, I would like to thank Bill Rescsanski for his years of service to the district. I would also like to thank Denise Dennis for coming forward to fill Bill's unexpired term.

As of this writing, the Board has yet to finalize the budget. However, we are looking at a reduction in the budget. The bad news is that the conditions that have driven our budget so high have not changed. Special education costs are on the rise and federal reimbursement is still inadequate. In addition, unfunded mandates associated with the No Child Left Behind legislation have further reduced our adequacy funding and grant monies. As we head into an election year, I would urge everyone to make special education funding a priority when voting.

Elizabeth Scharf was this year's recipient of the Marlow School Board Scholarship. Elizabeth is attending UNH and majoring in Chemistry.

As always, I would like to thank the staff at John D. Perkins School for their hard work and dedication. I also wish to thank the administrative and support staff of SAU 29.

It is not an easy task for the Board to balance the needs of the students with our responsibility to the taxpayer, given the lack of control we have over much of the budget. I can state that the budget we will present to you, the voters, is a no-frills budget and I ask for your support.

I closing I would like to say how much I appreciate the efforts of my fellow board members -- Art Andreasen, Ken Dassau, and Stephanie Tickner.

Joseph Scharf, Chair
