Report of Library Trustees.

The whole number of books taken from the library during the past year is 2,249, an increase of 197 over the year before.

One hundred and twelve volumes have been added, and with the funds now on hand another addition will soon be made.

We wish to express our appreciation of the gratuitous services of Miss Salina E. Sanborn, who has charge of the delivery office at North Danville.

The public library has come to be recognized as one of the important institutions of the town, and we commend its welfare to the careful consideration of our citizens.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

To the Inhabitants of the Town of Danville:

The Board of Education submit the following report of the schools under their charge for the school year ending August 1, 1897:

NORTH SCHOOL.

This school for the entire year has been taught by Miss Mabel W. Sanborn of Kingston. Miss Sanborn came to us well recommended and proved herself fully up to the recommendation, and good progress was made in all the studies, and her work in general was satisfactory to the Board.

CENTRE SCHOOL.

This school has been under the care for the year of Miss Henrietta M. Peaslee of Danville. The Board still feel she has fully sustained her past record as a teacher, which needs no comment.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

This school has been under the instruction of Mattie S. Darbe of Danville for the year. Although she has not enjoyed the best of health all the time, her work was satisfactory to the Board.

INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL.

Miss L. H. A. Burleigh, of Plymouth, taught this school for the year, and the work accomplished is a source of gratification to the Board.
